RIOTERS HOIST THE RED FLAG

Wild Disorder in Russian Poland Follows the Outbreak in Lodz.

REVOLT IS GENERAL

Troops Pour Deadly Fire Into Ranks of the Frenzied Populace.

GLOOMY DAYS FOR RUSSIA

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

ST. PETERSBURG, June 27.—These are gloomy days for the government of Russia. Every new dispatch accentuates the seriousness of the situation in Poland and the Caucasus, where a state of almost open war exists, and reports of strikes, demonstrations and agrarian disorders are pouring in from many parts of Russia proper, as if the volleys fired at Lodz had been the signal for an outbreak of general disorders like those following the events of January 22, "Red Sunday."

Up to the present St. Petersburg and Moscow have not been affected, but if mobilization is to be attempted in the two capitals, as reported, a recrudescence of former tumults is apt to be precipitated.

Another danger spot in Georgia (Russian Trans-Caucasia), the warlike inhabitants of which are deeply incensed over the affront offered to their clergy, 70 of whom while meeting to discuss the question of church and state were attacked by Cossacks, who dispersed them with knouts. The priests, in their protest against this action, practically laid their country under an interdict like that pronounced in the middle ages, by refusing to solemnize baptisms, marriages and other rites of the church until redress is given by the whole orthodox church.

Will Test Trepoff's Power.

The situation offers a crucial test of the ability of Gen. Trepoff, and the new police minister is virtually on trial before the emperor of Russia to justify his selection for so responsible a post.

The present trouble is all the more sudden and the more unexpected, coming on the heels of the good impression produced by the emperor's reception of the zemstvoists and his promise to consider their grievances and to give the country a national assembly as rapidly as possible.

A dispatch from Erivan reports a new and alarming feature of the situation in the Caucasus in the desire of Persian Mahomedans to join their Moslem brethren across the border, which would convert a racial strife into a real "holy war" and kindle a flame which would devastate the Southern Caucasus and be extinguished only by streams of blood.

WARSAW, June 26.—Disorderly crowds have thonged the streets since early this morning. They erected barricades at Ogrodowa, Krochmalna and Wrania streets, on top of which they placed red flags. The police and soldiers stormed these barricades and 10 persons were wounded by bullets or bayonets.

Another affray took place at Zelazna street, where Cossacks charged the crowd and wounded three persons. In the central market a crowd attacked a patrol with revolvers, to which the patrol replied with volleys, killing a boy and wounding three other persons.

Five workmen who had refused to strike were stabbed to death by their comrades. Revolutionary proclamations have been posted on the walls and 200 persons have been arrested. A heavy rain fell all day and this is believed to have prevented more serious collisions.

Jews in the Uproar.

The city has the appearance of a military encampment. Infantry and Cossacks are bivouacked in the streets and patrols are circulating everywhere. The shops are closed, but cabs and street cars are running.

The Jewish districts are in full revolt. Street cars have been overturned to form the nucleus of barricades and great crowds throng the streets. The ugly temper of both the populace and the troops threatens to break out in bloodshed at any moment.

A bomb was thrown last night at a carriage occupied by Chief of Police M. Pavloff of the town of Czenstochowa, government of Piotrkow. The chief of police and seven other persons were seriously wounded.

LODZ, June 26.—Since the proclamation of martial law the situation has become quieter. The rumor of an approaching massacre of Jews has caused 20,000 Jews to leave the town.

Scattered cases of rioting as a result of insurrectionary spirit, however, continue. One of these occurred today in the old Protestant cemetery, when a patrol was fired on from behind a wall. The patrol charged and killed 12 persons, five men, four women and three children.

Soldiers in Revolt.

Business is at a standstill and all traffic has been stopped. A case of disaffection among the troops was reported today when the officers of one regiment informed their commander that they would refuse to fire on defenseless people. The regiment was at once transferred to another place.

The victims of the outbreak total over 1,200. Thus far the bodies of 343 Jews and Christians have been buried. The wounded number over 700. Lieut. Gen. Suttleworth, commander of the First Cavalry corps, has assumed command of the forces here during the existence of martial law.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 26.—The army reserves of the two capitals, St. Petersburg and Moscow, will, according to a late report, be mobilized, the former June 28 and the latter June 29.

ROSTOFF-ON-DON, June 26.—The police have discovered that large quantities of arms and ammunition have been purchased here and shipped away.

Rioters Throw Bombs.

NAMES OF ENVOYS ARE MADE PUBLIC

They Are Nelidoff and Rosen for Russia, Komura and Takahira for Japan.

LATTER'S RANK TO BE RAISED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Russia has given reassurance of its intentions in the peace negotiations by placing the president in possession of the tentative selection of her plenipotentiaries, as follows: M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador at Paris, and Baron Rosen, the newly appointed Russian ambassador at Washington.

Russia, thus having taken the initiative, it is believed Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, during his call at the White House today informally told the president that Japan's selections, also tentative, were Baron Komura, the Japanese minister for foreign affairs, and Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister at Washington.

Official announcement of the names of the plenipotentiaries is withheld for several reasons. M. Nelidoff's health may not permit him to make the trip and pressure of official work may necessitate the presence in Tokyo of Baron Komura. Mr. Takahira and Baron Rosen are regarded as the certainties, and the belief is that unless something unforeseen should occur, both Russia and Japan will consent to the official announcement of the personnel of the Washington conference within a few days.

In any event, both missions will consist of many advisors, including army and possibly naval officers and officials from the foreign offices in Tokyo and St. Petersburg. It is expected that altogether each mission may number 10 or 12. Should six plenipotentiaries be chosen, both Russia and Japan, it is learned, have names under consideration which will enable them to announce their third plenipotentiaries without delay.

In recognition of his services during the preliminary negotiations, and in view of the high official rank of the Russian plenipotentiaries, it is believed the official announcement of Mr. Takahira's appointment will be followed by his elevation to the rank of ambassador. In view of the fact that Japan intends, when the war is over, to elevate her legations at Washington, London, Berlin, Paris, Vienna, St. Petersburg and Rome to embassies, it is believed Mr. Takahira's elevation would be permanent. While it is not certain he will be given ambassadorial rank, nor is it necessary to his appointment as a plenipotentiary, officials of the American government point out that this would be the regular and expected course for the Japanese government to follow.

Interest regarding an armistice has largely diminished in the last few days because of the receipt of information that the rainy season is beginning in Manchuria. It is believed here this will serve the purposes of an armistice in preventing a clash before the convening of the conference in August. Moreover, the informal soundings initiated by the president at Tokyo and St. Petersburg did not yield much hope for successful negotiations looking to an armistice until after the plenipotentiaries meet. If Japan is then convinced of the serious desire of Russia for peace, she will readily consent to an armistice.

ONE HUNDRED FALL VICTIMS TO POISON

WARREN, PA., June 26.—(Special.)—Fifty persons became violently ill today after eating ice cream purchased from a traveling vender. William Woodruff was among those most seriously affected and is not yet out of danger. In addition to the 50 cases reported by physicians, it is estimated that 100 more were less severely affected and did not receive treatment. An investigation is being made.

WALLACE IS OUT; SO SAYS SHONTS

Various Reasons Given for Retirement of Chief Engineer of Panama Canal.

TO HEAD RAILROAD SYSTEM

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Herald Building, Herald Square, NEW YORK, June 26.

Announcement was made today, and practically confirmed by Theodore P. Shonts, president of the canal commission, that John Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, and a member of the commission, has resigned his offices, and that the resignations will be accepted formally at Washington tomorrow or Wednesday.

For the resignations there are two versions. The first, that was current today is to the effect that the resignation of Mr. Wallace was requested because of differences between the chief engineer, members of the commission, Secretary Taft and through the latter with President Roosevelt. The other deals with department red tape and hampering executive orders, which have led Mr. Wallace to accept a position of importance as the head of a great railway system.

This latter version contradicts the assertion that his resignation was demanded, or that he was recalled to this country, and sets forth that he came at his own request, and announced his intention of dropping the canal work to Mr. Taft at the Hotel Manhattan last Sunday morning.

Mr. Shonts would not confirm for publication the announcement of the resignation today, but declared that he had no intention of getting out. "Whatever trouble there may be between Mr. Wallace and the president and the secretary of war," he said, "it will not affect me personally. I am not at liberty to talk of the affairs of the commission, and any announcement to be made must come from the president."

To several personal friends earlier in the day Mr. Shonts confirmed the statement that Mr. Wallace had resigned, and that he had been asked to do so.

Mr. Taft accused the engineer of handicapping the administration by various actions, particularly in getting out, and announced that he did not care how soon the resignation was presented. It was presented on the spot, accounts say, but, being directed to the president, it had to go to Washington, where it is now in the executive office at the White House awaiting acceptance.

PENROSE CONFERS WITH GOVERNOR

Flying Trip of Senator to Harrisburg Raises Rumors About Appointments.

SILENT ABOUT CONFERENCE

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, HARRISBURG, PA., June 26.

Senator Penrose and Gov. Pennypacker had a two-hour talk this afternoon over various matters of mutual interest to the Republican state organization and the state administration. The senator expects to leave next week for his usual summer hunting trip in the west, and the governor, it is said, desired to consult him on a variety of subjects before his going away.

Gov. Pennypacker is especially desirous of making an immediate success of the new state constabulary, authorized under an act of the last legislature which Senator Penrose was largely instrumental in having put through. It was reported that the senator had come to Harrisburg to suggest the advisability of appointing James Foust of Altoona, at present Pittsburgh district agent for the dairy and food bureau, as superintendent of the constabulary. When asked as to the correctness of this rumor, the senator replied:

"I do not care to say anything on that subject." He also declined to discuss the political situation in Philadelphia and the state at large.

Gov. Pennypacker has a large number of appointments to make in several of the departments, and it is said he and Senator Penrose this afternoon considered at length a long list of available men. It is expected that the governor will make all the appointments during the present week.

Senator Penrose arrived in Harrisburg at 1 o'clock and left for Philadelphia at 2:30. He saw nobody but Gov. Pennypacker and State Treasurer Mathues.

REILLY'S CUP OF JOY MUST NOW OVERFLOW

LAMOURE, N. D., June 26.—Mrs. Evigne E. Reilly today gave birth to three girls and a boy. The little ones are perfect and well. Mrs. Reilly, who is 34 years old, is the mother of 10 children.

Congressman Bates Honored.

MEADVILLE, June 26.—Congressman Arthur L. Bates received notice today of his appointment as delegate to the international peace conference to meet at Brussels, August 28. The appointment comes from the Hon. Richard Bartholdt of Missouri, president of the American group.

FOLK WILL ORDER RAID ON THE GAMBLERS AT DELMAR

Declares He Will Send Either St. Louis Police or Militia Against Bookmakers—One Member of Betting Fraternity Already Under Arrest.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., June 26.—Gov. Folk today declared either the Missouri National Guard of the St. Louis police department will be directed within the next 24 hours to raid the alleged bookmakers at Delmar race track. The governor has discovered that section 14 of the St. Louis charter gives the city of St. Louis the same power in the county as in the city.

Gov. Folk and President Stewart of the St. Louis police board, held a conversation over the telephone today. President Stewart assured the governor that if the section of the charter referred to was still in force, a detail of policemen would at once be dispatched to St. Louis county to arrest the alleged race track gamblers. If this plan is found inadvisable, the governor will at once direct the adjutant general to assemble a company of state militia for immediate service in this county, to enforce the anti-gambling laws at all hazards.

ST. LOUIS, June 26.—Owing to the action of county officers in arresting Charles Cella, a member of the Central Turf association during the first race today, there was no official odds on the last five races, and the only bets made were between individuals. Cella was later held under $1,000 bond to answer a charge of violating the anti-betting law.

Officers of the Delmar Jockey club announce the action of the county officers will not interfere with the race program for tomorrow.

ORDERS SUITS AGAINST ROADS

President Directs Milton D. Purdy to Undertake the Task.

NOW IN KANSAS CITY

LINE OF ACTION UNDEFINED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Room 10, Postal Building, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.

President Roosevelt has determined that the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway and all other roads that have violated the interstate commerce law through rebating shall be prosecuted. He directed Attorney General Moody today to make public the fact that Milton D. Purdy had been assigned to the task in place of Judson & Harmon, who resigned 10 days ago because of a disagreement of the attorney general as to the method of procedure in these cases.

Paul Morton will not be one of the men who will be prosecuted, though during the hearings before the commission he testified that he was aware that the Santa Fe was violating the law in rebating. That Mr. Morton is to go free is taken from the tenor of the president's letter to him at the time of the Judson-Harmon episode.

Mr. Purdy is a regular assistant attorney general. He is now in Kansas City preparing the cases against the railroad. Just what his instructions are is very much of a mystery, as all that the attorney general would say was: "Mr. Purdy has been assigned to do whatever is necessary in these cases." Mr. Moody gave to the press only this brief announcement and would not add to it:

"The attorney general has placed the matter of carrying out the president's directions to prosecute certain railroad corporations, including the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, for giving rebates, under the direction of Assistant Attorney General Purdy. Mr. Purdy will devote all of his time for the present to this work and has gone to Kansas City for that purpose."

Just when Mr. Purdy will take action and the exact form of the action were not stated by Mr. Moody. It is presumed that it will be in the nature of contempt proceedings against the corporation, as outlined by Mr. Moody in his correspondence with Judson & Harmon as to the best action to take in these cases. Mr. Harmon and his associate, Mr. Judson of St. Louis, thought the officers of the road should be brought before the courts for contempt in disobeying the rulings of the courts in these matters, but the attorney general took the position that the proceedings should be against the corporation.

Mr. Purdy was United States attorney of Minnesota when he was appointed as assistant attorney general March 16, 1903. He has had much experience in handling large cases and the department relies upon him to make a good showing against the Santa Fe.

MR. HAY IS IMPROVED; OFFICIALS ARE PLEASED

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Acting Secretary Pierce of the state department today received from Mrs. Hay a telegram stating that Secretary Hay had been ill with the same trouble which he experienced four years ago, as a result of the change from the warm climate of Washington to the cool temperature of the New Hampshire hills. Mrs. Hay stated that the secretary was better and that it was thought he would be well in a day or two.

This news was encouraging to officials who were startled by the reports of an illness which necessitated the summoning of physicians on special trains from Boston. The trouble Mr. Hay experienced four years ago was uraemia, brought on by a cold contracted during the trip from Washington to Lake Sunapee.

It is realized that Mr. Hay is not as strong as he once was, and inasmuch as his life has been a busy and eventful one, it is though he may decide before long to resign.

NEWBURY, N. H., June 26.—Drs. Charles L. Scudder and Fred T. Murphy of Boston came here on a special train to see Mr. Hay when the usual remedies did not have their usual effect. His trouble was soon relieved. Dr. Murphy returned to Boston this afternoon while Dr. Scudder remained with the patient.

Standard Opens Kansas Pipe Line.

INDEPENDENCE, KAS., June 26.—The Standard Oil Company's pipe line from southern Kansas to Whiting, Ind., was opened for oil today. The pipe holds 120,000 barrels and in addition to the pipe there is completed rankage along the route for 30,000 barrels. The working capacity of the line will be 18,000 barrels a day, when all pumping stations are finished.

Dakota Tornado Kills Five.

MITCHELL, S. D., June 26.—It is reported here today that the storm damage at Plankinton and Artesian is heavy. At Plankinton a man, his wife and daughter, were killed outright by flying timbers. The town of Artesian was struck by a tornado but only meager reports have been received. It is known, however, two men were killed.

Gomez Leaves Estate to Family.

HAVANA, June 26.—(Special Cable.)—The will of Gen. Maximo Gomez, which has just been filed in this city, shows that the former commander-in-chief of the Cuban army left an estate of $30,000, which will be divided among his widow and his six children.

COUNCILMEN HEAR BIGELOW

Director Has the Hump Ordinance Returned to Finance Committee.

SLAPS AT SOUTH SIDE

Director Says Property Owners Will Advocate Original Plan for 18-Foot Cut.

MR. BRAND SPEAKS POINTEDLY

"It was not a fair test when the hump bond issue was defeated last year.

"Mr. Frick means to do what is right. He is a liberal man when you have him on your side.

"The South Side voted against the hump last year. The South Side does not want to pay for anything.

"The hump removal will not cost the taxpayer a dollar. It will pay for itself in taxes.

"I advise you to send the hump ordinance back to the finance committee, and that persons interested be given a hearing. Every person should be for the removal of the hump whether he is a Citizen, Republican, Orphan, Democrat or Mugwump."

Director Bigelow gave common council the above advice last night when he presented the body with his views on the hump removal. Mr. Bigelow's remarks accompanied his letter presenting the offer of H. C. Frick agreeing to a four-foot cut in the front of the entrances to the Frick office building in Grant street and Fifth avenue, upon which Director based his plan of a 12-foot cut at Fifth and Wylie avenues.

Charged With Deception.

Director Bigelow was openly charged on the floor of councils with having last year claimed that he held waivers of damages from property owners of the hump district who afterward denied they had signed such waivers.

South Side members emphatically repudiated Director Bigelow's assertion that "the South Side does not want to pay for anything" and sharply took the director to task.

Director Bigelow's program was carried out to the letter. The hump ordinance was returned to the finance committee as Mr. Bigelow advised, and Mr. Bigelow announced that a meeting of the finance committee would be held either on Friday of this week or more probably, the first of next week to "hear property owners in interest."

"Quite a number of property owners of the hump called upon me today and told me they were ready to sign waivers for an 18-foot cut, although they did not sign waivers last year," said Mr. Bigelow last night in explaining his advice to councils.

Decide on 18-Foot Cut.

"Among the property owners who called upon me and declared their willingness to sign waivers was Mr. Maloney who owns property in Grant street. I then decided that the best plan was to have the ordinance sent back to the finance committee so that all of these people could be heard and that councils might know how to act intelligently. I am not going out of the city on any vacation until this matter is settled. The hump election will probably be held in August."

Director Bigelow's remarks made it evident that an 18-foot cut is a foregone conclusion, and that the so-called 12-foot cut, based upon the 4-foot cut in front of the entrances to the Frick building, is not even considered by the administration. Although Mr. Bigelow said the whole matter was "up to councils" his preparations showed that he intended to take no chances on any other disposition being made of the ordinance. Before Director Bigelow's important communication had even been properly received and ordered filed by council, J. J. McKelvey, an administration member, moved that the hump ordinance be returned to the finance committee.

Bigelow's Plan Carried Out.

This was a little in advance of the program and President Ward corrected Mr. McKelvey by stating that a motion to receive and file Mr. Bigelow's letter was first in order. President Ward's suggestion was adopted. Finally Mr. McKelvey had his opportunity and the second time made his motion to return the ordinance to the finance committee. Director Bigelow had announced in the morning that this action would be taken. A. G. Roenigk, another administration member, moved that Director Bigelow make a statement to council and Mr. Bigelow appeared on the floor. He was given close attention.

"The last election on the hump bond issue was not a fair test," he said. "and I have drawn up an ordinance to have the matter submitted again. I have a great many waivers from property owners on the hump. The Frick building, the Bakewell building, the Leader, Maeder and other buildings are all built for the 12-foot cut. The question for you to decide is what is right for the future of the city.

"Mr. Frick means to do what is right, and he is a liberal man when he is on your side. The hump cut will not cost the taxpayers of the city one dollar. Before the Frick building was erected the property on which the building stands paid the city only $1,200 in taxes. It now pays the city 16 times that amount in taxes.

South Siders Get Wrathy.

"Last year the South Siders helped to defeat the hump cut because it was not willing to pay for it. The South Side never wants to pay for anything."

This slap at the South Side was resented by John F. Brennenstuhl of the Twenty-sixth ward and Joseph Rapp of the Thirty-fifth ward.

"I object to Director Bigelow's statement that the South Side does not want to pay for anything," said Mr. Brennenstuhl when the director had concluded. "If Director Bigelow had not been so active in preventing the bond issue for the purchase of the South Side water plant last year, and in preventing the proposition being also submitted to the voters, the hump would have gone through with the filtration bond issue. We are ready to go along with the hump if you can give us filtered water."

"Mr. Bigelow's remarks to the effect that the South Side does not want to pay for anything are out of order and are not true," said Councilman Rapp, a Citizens member.

Director Bigelow interrupted Mr. Semmelrock to say that he would be glad if Mr. Semmelrock would aid him in purchasing the Monongahela water plant. "The only way to buy the South Side water plant is by condemnation proceedings, and that cannot be done before next year," said the director.

Not Fair Test, Says Bigelow.

"If the company would agree to waive its contract with the city would you proceed to buy the South Side plant?" inquired Mr. Semmelrock.

"Yes, sir, I would," replied Mr. Bigelow.

Mr. Semmelrock then proceeded to ask the director if he would agree to the Second avenue widening, which is one of Mr. Semmelrock's pet schemes, and this also Mr. Bigelow readily promised.

"What do you mean by saying that the last bond election on the hump question was not a fair test," asked William Brand of Director Bigelow. "Was not the result to your taste? Did not the people decide the matter?"

"No, they did not," answered Director Bigelow. "I have it in writing what defeated it the last time," added the director.

"It was not a fair test, then, because of the result," said Mr. Brand.

"No, it was not a fair test, because of the way it was done," replied the director.

"The director of public works and mayor should lay before councils and the people what they propose to do," said Mr. Brand. "They should tell the people what out is to be made in the hump and what streets are to be regraded."

Director Bigelow interrupted to state that the ordinances fixing the grades of the hump streets were not to be passed until after the election to determine whether the people want the hump removed, otherwise if the people defeated the hump bond issue the regrading ordinances would have to be repealed.

Bigelow Resents Charge.

"The administration should produce the waivers of damages. Last year Director Bigelow said he had waivers of damages and promised to show them to councils, but we never saw them, and I learned that some of the persons whom he claimed had signed waivers denied that they had signed. The hump proposition was defeated last year because of lack of confidence on the part of the people," asserted Mr. Brand.

"I beg your pardon," shouted Mr. Bigelow. "It is not true that I said I had waivers which I did not have."

The motion to recommit the hump ordinance to the finance committee was finally passed by a unanimous vote.

Although it is Director Bigelow's avowed intention of having the finance committee turn down the proposition for a 12-foot cut of the hump and report to councils in favor of the original 18-foot cut, the director carefully refrained from committing himself in the letter read to common council last night. The letter was as follows:

Submits Frick's Offer.

To the Members of Common Council:

Gentlemen: You have before you an ordinance providing for an election on the subject of a bond issue for the sum of $2,000,000 for the removal of the hump. The estimates were prepared, as you know, on a basis of an 18-foot cut at Fifth avenue and Wylie avenue, and a 15-foot cut at Fifth avenue and Grant street.

The improvement was to be made with the understanding that a majority in number and interest would waive all claims for damages against the city of Pittsburgh. On June 17 I received a communication from Mr. H. C. Frick, one of the largest property owners in the hump district, declining to sign a waiver of damages unless the cut was reduced to six feet at Fifth avenue and Wylie avenue, and at the same time expressing the belief that the improvement could be made along the lines suggested by him with much less damages, and accomplishing the results sought.

I had a meeting with Mr. Frick on Saturday, June 24, when he agreed to waive all claims for damages, provided the improvement would be based on a four-foot cut on Grant street, in the center of the square between Fifth avenue and Diamond street. I have carefully gone over the plan, using the four-foot cut as a base, and find that it will result in a cut of 7½ feet at Fifth avenue and Grant street, and a 12-foot cut at Fifth avenue and Wylie avenue.

The grade in Fifth avenue between Cherry alley and Smithfield street will not be changed, but between Cherry alley and Grant street will be reduced from 7.8 per cent to 4.3 per cent.

Area Is Cut Down.

The area of the improvement would be reduced from Tunnel street to Sixth avenue on the north, Seventh avenue to Sixth avenue on the north, Third avenue and fourth avenue on the south, and Smithfield street to Cherry alley on the west.

Knowing the subject to be one of great importance to the citizens of Pittsburgh, and one that should be carefully considered before final action is taken, I would ask that you return the ordinance to the committee that they may have all parties interested before them and give you their conclusions as to what should be done.

Yours respectfully,

EDWARD M. BIGELOW,
Director Department of Public Works.

An old bill which was rendered to councils and refused payment in 1902, for the inspection of the old South Tenth street bridge, was presented again last night by Emil Swensson, one of the three engineers employed by Director McCandless. The original bill of the three engineers was for $700. Mr. Swensson asks for $400 for inspecting the bridge, also $50 for expert testimony in the Grant boulevard case in 1903, and $100 for expert testimony in the Grant boulevard case again in 1905, in the suit of the contractors against the city. Director Bigelow says the bill should be paid.

More Money for McNally.

A bill was presented to transfer $20,000 from the fund for the cultivation and planting of the slopes of the Schenley park oval to the fund for the reconstruction of the Schenley park oval. The contract for the reconstruction of the oval was let to Thomas McNally, a brother of Councilman Richard McNally, for about $15,000, and the object of the proposed transfer is to increase his compensation for this work which was secured by competition with other contractors.

If the entire $20,000 is given McNally the contract will cost in the neighborhood of $35,000.

Ordinances were also introduced creating the positions of additional clerk and stenographer in the general office of the department of public works at $75 a month, and two inspectors of brick work in the bureau of construction at union wages.

BAD STORM IN NEW YORK.

New Building Blown Down in Harlem and One Man Is Killed.

NEW YORK, June 26.—A storm of cyclonic proportions, accompanied by a terrific deluge of rain, passed over Harlem and the Bronx this afternoon, causing widespread havoc.

A building in course of erection in One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street, near Riverside drive, was demolished, John Lawler, foreman of the bricklayers, being crushed to death and two Italian laborers severely injured.

Abraham Pearlman of Pearlman & Brown, the builders, and Abraham Bordock, the superintendent of construction, were later arrested.

Train Hits Trolley; Two Killed.

BALTIMORE, June 26.—In a collision tonight between a trolley car and a freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad Mrs. Sarah Crowell, white, and Laura Scarborough, colored, were killed. The seriously injured are Oliver Cromwell, Mrs. Mary Kirchenberg, Edward Ulrich, Francis S. Shirvan, Oliver Price, Mary Kaish, Thomas N. Mason, George Drescher, Charles Brebeck, Sarah Jones and George S. Mann.

A bank book showing a snug balance with the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, Smithfield street and Fourth avenue, is full of delightful promise. If you haven't yet opened a four per cent savings account with this old bank, do it NOW.

MORTON BEGINS ACTION AT LAW

ALSO CUTS OFF PERQUISITES

NEW YORK, June 26.—As chairman of the Equitable Life Assurance society's board of directors, Paul Morton has begun legal proceedings to recover money alleged to have been wrongfully taken from the society, and he also has cut off certain perquisites in the society. Mr. Morton tonight made the following statement:

"I have retained Messrs. Austin G. Fox and Wallace MacFarlane as special counsel for the Equitable society in connection with the investigation of the past financial transactions of the society by Price, Waterhouse & Co. and Haskins & Sells, chartered accountants, which is now in progress, and to institute such legal proceedings as they may consider to be appropriate for the recovery of any money and property to which the Equitable is found to be entitled as the result of their examination. Messrs. Fox and MacFarlane have been instructed to put themselves in communication with the attorney general and the insurance department and to act in harmony with them.

"It has been the rule heretofore to allow directors $25 for attending executive committee meetings of the Equitable society, and these allowances were made whether the directors were present or absent. This has been changed. No director in future will get fees unless he is present at the meeting, and no officer or employe who happens to be a director will hereafter receive any fee for attending board meetings of any kind."

It became known late tonight that Charles Stewart Smith and Marcellus Hartley Dodge, who were qualified as directors of the Equitable Life Assurance society by holding Hyde stock, had placed their resignations in the hands of Paul Morton, chairman of the board, in order that the trustees might not be embarrassed by their retention of office under that qualification.

It was reported that Mr. Morton had received under like conditions the resignation of John Jacob Astor. This last report could not be verified. Col. Astor will sail for Europe tomorrow.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 26.—Superintendent of Insurance Hendricks today withdrew the statement in his preliminary report on the Equitable Assurance society that Alvin W. Krech participated in the "syndicate" operations while a director of the society. Mr. Hendricks said:

Since the publication of the report I have received the certificate of Mr. Hyde that these syndicate transactions were closed July 13, 1904, and the certificate of William Alexander, secretary of the society, that Mr. Krech was first elected a director August 2, 1904. It follows, therefore, that his participation in the syndicate transactions were terminated 21 days before he become a director. I am pleased to make this correction."

OLDFIELD LOWERS HIS COLORS TO CHEVROLET

Machine Goes Wrong and Puts Him Back, but He Gives Victor a Close Contest.

NEW YORK, June 26.—One good race redeemed an otherwise featureless automobile meet on the Empire City track this afternoon. This occurred in the match race for $2,000 between Barney Oldfield's Peerless "Green Dragon," and Maj. C. J. S. Miller's "Ninety" Fiat, driven by Chevrolet. In the first heat at five miles something went wrong with the Peerless ignition in the fourth mile, and Oldfield failed to finish.

Chevrolet ran away with the lead in the second heat at 10 miles, held it by 25 yards at one mile, by 50 yards at two miles and by 75 yards at three miles. This advantage he maintained to the finish of six miles, when Oldfield began to reduce the distance, principally by making closer cuts at the corners. At eight miles Oldfield was only 20 yards behind and at nine miles he drew alongside at the judge's stand, passing into a lead at the clubhouse turn, which he increased to 25 yards at the finish.

On the final 10 miles, however, Oldfield was unable to repeat his earlier performance. Maj. Miller's car led from start to finish, winning by 75 yards, in 9 minutes, 20 3-5 seconds. Oldfield's time was 9 minutes, 32 1-5 seconds.

The so-called championship race at 10 miles was as great a failure as other attempts at track championships. Webb Jay, in the White steamer, won the first heat at five miles from Sartori, in A. G. Vanderbilt's "Ninety" Fiat, while Chevrolot, in Maj. Miller's "Ninety" Fiat, took the second heat from H. S. Houpt's "Sixty" Thomas, driven by M. Roberts. In the final between the winners, the White steam racer had engine trouble in the second mile in the lead and Chevrolet, alone on the track, stopped at five miles and was awarded the race.

Want Representatives from Here.

An invitation has been extended the Pittsburgh chamber of commerce to send representatives to the international congress of chambers of commerce of the world, which will be held at Liege, Belgium, in September. The invitation comes through James S. McNally, American consul at Liege, who is a Pittsburgher. Andrew Carnegie, an honorary member of the Pittsburgh chamber, has been written to represent the Pittsburgh body. Others placed on the probable delegate list are Dr. W. J. Holland, George H. Anderson, John Eaton, Edward B. Taylor and Emil Winter.

DR. HILPRECHT IS ACQUITTED OF CHARGES AGAINST HIM

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—By a unanimous vote of the board of trustees of the University of Pennsylvania the Rev. Dr. Hermann Vollerat Hilprecht, research professor of Assyriology and professor of Semitic philosophy and archaeology of the University of Pennsylvania, was today acquitted of the charges recently brought against him concerning his integrity in the matter of his explorations in Babylonia.

The charges were brought against Dr. Hilbrecht by several professors of archaeology and were investigated by a committee of six appointed from among the trustees of the university. The accusers of Dr. Hilprecht appeared before the committee, as did also the accused professor. The report of the committee was submitted to the full board today which unanimously adopted it and made it public tonight.

The report says the case against Dr. Hilprecht, upon the evidence and arguments submitted, can be divided into three parts:

The charge of literary dishonesty, based mainly upon certain illustrations shown and statements made by Dr. Hilprecht in his books, "Excavations in Bible Lands" and "The Babylonian Expedition of the University of Pennsylvania."

The charge of improperly retaining objects found on expeditions of which Hilprecht was the scientific director, which objects, it is claimed, belonged to the University of Pennsylvania.

The charge that what was found at Nippur has no just claim to be called a temple library.

The committee discusses the evidence submitted on each charge and comes to the conclusion that each charge is "unsustained and untrue."

UNCLE SAM AND PENN NOT JOINT SLEUTHS

Federal Authorities and State Officers Not Prosecuting Oleo Men Together.

Uncle Sam and Father Penn are not likely to combine forces in prosecuting Pennsylvania violators of the pure food laws. The federal authorities are conducting a quiet campaign against oleomargarine dealers, and the disposition is to carry on the warfare against impure butter and adulterated foods independent of the state inspectors.

"It seems incompatible for the federal authorities and the state inspectors to work together in this matter," said Allen Kearns, general agent for the internal revenue department. "The federal officers work quietly and little publicity is given their movements. This has always been our plan, because, otherwise, those who violate the laws would be forewarned of our purposes and would be given an opportunity to escape. I think the ends of justice would best be served by both departments working independently."

"The report that Pennsylvania Dairy and Food Inspector Warren had seen the president and complained against my alleged dilatoriness in not co-operating with the state authorities in prosecuting oleomargarine dealers was news to me," said Mr. Heiner. "It has not been our custom to combine forces with the state authorities, and I cannot see how any one has been dilatory. If I receive instruction from Commissioner John W. Yerkes, the chief of our department, then I shall be glad to do all I can to catch oleo dealers in conjunction with Gov. Pennypacker's agents. Otherwise, we shall work independently.

SIGNS OF ARMISTICE NOT SEEN IN FIELD

Screen of Japanese Scouts May Indicate Great Turning Operation is Beginning.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

GUNSHU PASS, MANCHURIA, June 26.—Very vague dispatches, reaching here through the official paper which is edited for the army, make the conditions under which the proposed peace is to be reached very indifferently understood.

In consequence of events at Washington, a military initiative for an armistice had been expected, but although Gens. Linevitch and Kuropatkin express the conviction that Russia is drifting toward peace, no action looking to an armistice has yet been taken. On the contrary, the commanders appear to regret that at the time when the army has reached its maximum strength it is likely to be deprived of victory.

Numerous small bodies of Japanese scouts have appeared in the regions of either Russian flank, and it is feared they were intended to screen the turning operations of the Japanese as before the battle of Mukden. Chinese report that flanking movements have been already begun, but the Russian staff denies this.

Traders coming from Bedoun say the Japanese are advancing in that direction from Simuntin.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 26.—Two telegrams were received today by Emperor Nicholas from Lieut.-Gen. Linevitch, dated June 24 and June 25, respectively, and referring to the movements of June 21 and June 22. On the latter date a Japanese attempt to dislodge the Russian outposts in the valley of the Kao was repulsed, while the Russians in the Hallungchen district dislodged the Japanese outposts at Nanshancheng and advanced southward of that place.

The Russians operating in the direction of Ufangtu retired after unmasking a considerable force of Japanese. The latter pursued the Russians and occupied Yulangtzu in the Hallungchen district. The Japanese resumed the offensive in the neighborhood of Shimiaotse, continuing a frontal attack and making an energetic turning movement. The latter threatened to cut off the Russians, who consequently retired.

STRIKE AMONG MOLDERS.

Those Employed at the Plant of Mesta Machine Company Are Dissatisfied Over Wages.

The molders employed at the Mesta Machine Company's plant in West Homestead, numbering about 150, went out on strike yesterday owing to a dissatisfaction over the adjustment of wages in the foundry department. The molders are all members of the union.

The management of the company stated that they pay according to a man's ability, and that an adavnce in wages was granted recently. Saturday the men received their first pay since the advance, and it is said that many received but 10 per cent raise while others were granted advances averaging 40 per cent. The molders want a more uniform advance and a minimum of $3.50 a day.

The Mesta Machine Company has recently completed a large addition to their works, and is rushed with orders, and the strike is expected to be adjusted within a few days. There is no dissatisfaction in other departments of the plant.

AWAIT GERMANY'S REPLY.

French Diplomats, However, Think They Have Forecasted the Kaiser's Attitude in Morocco.

PARIS, June 26.—Although Germany's formal reply to the French note has not yet been received, there is reason to believe the French ambassador to Germany has succeeded in quite fully foreshadowing Germany's intentions in Morocco. The results of the interview are now in the possession of Premier Rouvier and he is not likely to make them known before the meeting of ministers tomorrow, when the status of the negotiations will be fully gone over.

M. Rouvier conferred at noon with Mr. Leon Bourgeois and Jules Cambon, the French ambassador to Spain. M. Bourgeois has been under consideration for a special mission to Berlin. It is understood that M. Rouvier will receive Prince Radolin, German ambassador to France, after the meeting of the council. Public tension over the controversy is much relieved, the bourse sharing in the improvement.

PENROSE AND DURHAM TO TAKE A VACATION

Not Letting Philadelphia Politics Worry Them—Experts Examine Filtration Work.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—With Senator Penrose and Israel W. Durham scheduled for their annual summer vacations, this or next week, it looks as though there might be a lull in the series of developments which have kept the city at white heat for the past month.

Election officers of the Thirteenth ward will tomorrow be tried on a charge of ballot box stuffing and interest is added owing to the fact that one of the defendants is a son of Magistrate Leslie Yates, a former member of the legislature. Mayor Weaver and Judge Gordon, his attorney, say there will be no lull in their activities.

William Barclay Parsons and H. de Parson, the New York engineering experts, accompanied by ex-Judge Gordon, called on the mayor today and conferred with him in relation to the work they were engaged to perform.

Messrs. Parsons will begin tomorrow their investigation of the filtration system. It will take several days for them to examine plans, specifications and contracts and when this is done the physical examination of the work will be taken up.

The fact that the engineers came to Philadelphia today is taken to mean that the representatives of the New York Audit Company, who have been examining the accounts of the filtration bureau, have nearly completed their work and will soon present to Mayor Weaver a report showing the result of their examination.

Notwithstanding the present condition of politics in this city Mr. Durham told some of his friends today that he will go north on Saturday next. He will spend a week or 10 days in the Moosehead region of Maine. He is contemplating a relief from all business, and will spend his time in fishing. Only one or two of his intimates will accompany him and during much of the time he will be far from post and telegraph offices. On his return he will endeavor to aid in adjusting the changes to be made in the Republican county ticket.

CHESTER D. POTTER.

DEMOCRATS GATHERING FOR STATE CONVENTION

Plenty of Candidates for the Various Ohio Offices—Monnett Again Seeks Place.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—With nearly all the candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor present and many of the delegates gathered in the hotel lobbies, political discussions warmed up perceptibly tonight.

The convention on Wednesday will have 861 delegates with 431 necessary for nomination. The Anti-Saloon league is said to support John M. Pattison.

The large number of uninstructed delegates makes it probable that no choice will be made on the first few ballots.

Frank Marriott of Delaware was most frequently suggested for lieutenant governor. Mayor Kemple of Akron, having declined to consider the place. James S. Thomas of Portsmouth and Frank S. Monnett of Columbus are candidates for attorney general. John Winn has been named by Defiance county as a proper candidate for supreme judge, but Judge Mathers of Sidney will be presented for that position by the delegation from his county.

TURNERS FROM GERMANY CARRY OFF THE HONORS

Awards in Gymnastic Festival Are Announced—Pittsburghers' Scores Well Toward Bottom of the List.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., June 26.—The jury of awards of the German Turner festival, which closed here today, late tonight announced the scores and rank on apparatus work, far jump and running. Group scores will not be announced until tomorrow or Wednesday.

For apparatus work, far jump and running, J. Keyl of Munich, Germany, carried off first honors, with a percentage of 95.4; Frederick Wolf of Hanover, Germany, second, 95.1; A. Mayer of Stuttgart, German, third, 93.5; A. Schimor, Pforzheim, Germany, fourth, 92.9; H. Berger, Frankfort, Germany, fifth, 92.7; W. Lemcke, Philadelphia, sixth, 91.9.

E. Ehrmann of the Central Turnverein, Pittsburgh, was 22d on the list, with a percentage of 85.6; F. E. Ehrmann, also of Pittsburgh, was 51st, with 78.5. These two were the only Pittsburghers to receive more than a percentage of 75.

KEEPER OF THE WORMS.

Duquesne Fishing Club Selects Fred, W. Edwards for This Important Position.

The Duquesne Fishing club yesterday held its annual meeting at Republican headquarters. These officers were elected: John P. Hunter, president; Robert Ostermaier, secretary, Thomas G. McClure, treasurer; Arch Mackrell, captain; Fred W. Edwards, keeper of the worms; Congressman A. J. Barchfeld, surgeon; L. L. Davis, attorney; E. J. Martin and W. D. Grimes, baggage masters.

The club will leave for the Georgian bay fishing grounds on the night of August 5, traveling in a special Pullman car. There will be 32 members in the trip; five colored servants will be taken along and 16 guides and a cook have been secured in Canada. The club lives in houseboats and has its own tug to make the trips to and from the fishing grounds.

COTTON LEAKAGE WILL BE PROBED

Secretary Wilson Postpones His Western Trip That He May Investigate Charges.

CONFERS WITH PRESIDENT

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 26.

Secretary Wilson has postponed a trip west he had planned to take July 1, because of the many additional rumors regarding the cotton report leak and manipulation of the figures in that report. He has reached the conclusion it will be better for him to remain in Washington and go to the bottom of things while he is about it.

The return to Washington from Europe of John Hyde, chief statistician of the department, gave a fresh impetus to the investigation today. Mr. Hyde was in conference with Secretary Wilson and the secret service officers working on the case. Richard Cheatham of Alabama, secretary of the Southern Cotton association, was also in conference with Mr. Wilson regarding the charges which Mr. Cheatham made concerning manipulation of figures and leakages of advance information able to make any announcement re that time Mr. Wilson does not expect to tion concerning the periodical government estimates of the cotton crop.

It is evident the secret service men are on fresh tracks which it will take at least a week or ten days to follow out. Before gard the affair. Especial stress is laid on the fact that secret service in reporting to Mr. Wilson will deal only with proved facts.

Before the president left for his summer home today, the secretary had a long conference with him regarding the evidence that has been unearthed. On leaving the White House the secretary said:

"We are giving the secret service ample time in which to make the investigation. No date has been fixed for them to report. They will run down every hint that reaches them."

This morning Secretary Wilson submitted to Mr. Hyde all the papers relating to the charges, and discussed the probability of the guilt on the part of certain employes who are engaged on the work of compiling the crop reports. Up to this time it is understood no suspicion has been attached to Mr. Hyde, although the administration of his division in some respects has been unfavorably commented on. These comments, however, relate more to the favoritism shown certain of the clerks than to the matter under immediate investigation.

RIOTERS HOIST RED FLAG

day. It wounded several policemen and broke all the windows for blocks around the station.

EKATERINOSLAV, June 26.—A semi-panic has been created here by the distribution of proclamations by thugs and rowdies calling on the people to fight against treason, and fears are expressed that the lowest classes of the people are being incited by the police against the educated classes.

KOVNO, June 26.—A mob of a thousand persons surrounded and attacked the police station and the governor general's palace today. All the windows were broken before the rioters were overpowered by the police. Five policemen were wounded. A detachment of dragoons finally arrived on the scene and dispersed the rioters.

STARISTA, June 26.—Revolutionists from Tver, Central Russia, are scattering proclamations broadcast among the peasantry calling on them to rise. The proclamations are signed with the name of Father Gapon, but his name is believed to have been forged.

BYELOSTOK, June 26.—The workmen have presented a demand for the opening of all suspended factories and the immediate satisfaction of all grievances, under threat of bloodshed. The Jewish members of the douma have resigned as a protest against the attitude of the authorities.

KALISH, June 26.—The population was thrown into a state of panic last night by a sudden volley of revolver shots in the center of the city and by "red flag" demonstrations. The people fled to their homes and the shops were closed. The manifestants dispersed on the arrival of patrols.

TO REACH CLAIRTON.

Peters Creek Street Railway Company Asks Charter for Short Line in Jefferson Township.

The Peters Creek Street Railway Company is the name of a company for which a charter will be asked July 11. The incorporators are W. G. Weimer and J. E. White, engineers. A. M. Thompson, J. H. Thompson and Howard Shaw are the other applicants. The route of the proposed line is as follows:

Beginning at the center of Peters creek on the Dravosburg and West Elizabeth township road, sometimes called State street, in the township of Jefferson, county of Allegheny, state of Pennsylvania; thence along said Dravosburg and West Elizabeth township road in a southerly direction to the borough of Clairton, where said borough line crosses the easterly side of said road and returning by the same route to the place of beginning, making a continuous circuit all within the limits of Jefferson township.

It was stated last evening by Attorney Thompson that the new trolley line will be independent of the Pittsburgh Railways Company.

LAWRENCEVILLE GERMANS MAKE MERRY AND LAY STONE

The corner stone of the addition the Eintracht Singing society is erecting to its hall in Thirty-sixth street, near Penn avenue, was laid last evening in the presence of over 20 persons. Addresses were made by A. G. Winterhalter, Emanuel Schello and Anthony Schello, president of the society. The music was furnished by a chorus under the direction of Prof. John S. Vogel. After the stone was in place fire works were set off and five balloons sent up. A dance closed the festivities. The addition will cost $16,000 and add greatly to the capacity of the hall. The society, which was organized in 1872, is popular and prosperous.

Mrs. Morgan Secures Her Divorce.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., June 26.—(Special.)—The final decree of the supreme court, separating Mrs. Edith Parsons Morgan, daughter of John E. Parsons, the millionaire lawyer, from her husband, David Percy Morgan, a wealthy New York clubman, was filed today. Under its provisions neither husband nor wife may marry again during the life of the other. Mr. Morgan deserted his wife on May 10, 1904, when he kidnaped his four children and took them to Ithan, Pa. The decree gives absolute custody of the children to Mrs. Morgan.

BEGINS JOURNEY TO ALMA MATER

Mr. Roosevelt En Route to Commencement Exercises at Harvard University.

GOES THENCE TO OYSTER BAY

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 26.—President Roosevelt left Washington at 5:39 o'clock this afternoon by special train over the Pennsylvania railroad for Cambridge, Mass., to attend the commencement exercises at Harvard university. The president will not return to Washington but will go to Oyster Bay, where he will spend the heated season at his summer home at Sagamore Hill. He was accompanied by Secretary Loeb, the White House staff, secret service, Dr. C. F. Stokes of Washington will remain with the party until the president settles down at Sagamore Hill. Miss Isabel Hagner, secretary to Mrs. Roosevelt, who is en route to Maine to fill a social engagement, will be with the party as far as Boston.

Just before the departure of the train Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, was driven to the station, having been unable to reach the White House to bid the president farewell. He was met on the platform by Mr. Roosevelt and they held a hurried conversation. When the ambassador left the train the signal was given for the start.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The president's train arrived at Jersey City at 10:40 p. m., where the president's car was taken aboard a transfer boat for Mount Haven, to be placed on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 26.—Mrs. Roosevelt arrived at 7:30, accompanied by her maid. She was driven to Sagamore Hill by Noah Seaman, superintendent of the president's place. Mrs. Roosevelt seemed pleased to get home again. She is looking remarkably well. Her arrival was at an hour when few people are at the depot.

It is definitely settled that the president will come over from Connecticut on the Sylph on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, landing in a launch at the foot of the Sewannaka-Corinthian Yacht club at the shore here and proceed to his carriage at the station.

The work of getting the executive offices in Moore's block in working order will be completed tomorrow.

Tomorrow (Wednesday) and Thursday

A Month's-End Sale of Widest Scope

An Explanation.

Visitors to the store tomorrow and thereafter will find a new method of reaching departments on the first floor. Beginning with the Men's Furnishing Store entrance at Cecil Way, the aisles will be numbered running west from 1 to 10; thus the men's furnishing aisle will be No. 1 and the last aisle in the west building, paralleling Fifth Street, where the silks are sold, will be No. 10.

Large signs at the head of each aisle will tell you which aisle it is, and to help customers quickly to departments we shall hereafter give in advertisements the aisle in which the goods are for sale. The idea is carried out in this advertisement relating to tomorrow and Thursday.

$8.50, $10.00 and $12.00 Trimmed Hats for $5.00.

Third Floor, West.

At the even five dollars during these two days women can choose from an assortment of some two hundred tastefully trimmed hats in which there are no two alike. There is no shape of the season which is not represented, and as for straws, there is every kind, that is, every kind that is fashionable—Milans, neopolitans, lace, French chip, colored Panama and fancy braids.

These hats were all trimmed in our own workrooms, and many of them were modeled after imported creations. Chiffon, ribbon, flowers, wings have been put to such artistic uses as only the skillful millinery maker can devise.

When the store closes this evening these hats will still bear their original prices, tomorrow and Thursday, $5.00, and the hat is yours.

Women's Wash Petticoats, 75c, Were $1.00 and $1.25.

Second Floor, East.

You can have choice of two styles—one is made of a fine quality gingham, assorted stripes, black and white and gray and white. Deep flounce with lace insertion and ruffle with lace edge.

The other style has deep flounce trimmed with narrow ruffle, finished with fancy braid.

$6.00 Corsets, $2.00.

Second Floor, East.

Opportunity tomorrow to buy white silk batiste corsets, either plain or with small figures, Princess hip, medium high bust, trimmed with lace and ribbon. We formerly sold these for $6.00, and what are left will be closed out at $2.00 a pair.

We will also have ready for you a lot of R. & G. Girdle Corsets of mercerized tape. These are $1.00 girdles, but tomorrow and Thursday we will say, a pair.....50c

Infants' Apparel Infinitely Lower Than Usual.

Second Floor, East.

Hand-made short dresses, not many of them, fine French nainsook, trimmed with real lace, tucks and briar stitching, as well as several other ideas of trimming, reduced as follows:

$5.00 for $7.75 Short Dresses.
$7.50 for $10.00 Short Short Dresses.

and on by similar reductions up to $25.00 dresses for $15.00. There are sizes for 6 months, 1 and 2 years.

French hand-made Caps of fine mull, trimmed with either solid or clustered tucks, feather stitching and lace at these reduced prices: at 50c from $1.00, at $1.00 from $2.00, and up to $4.00 caps for $2.00.

Winsome Prices on Women's Woven Underwear.

Second Floor, East.

If you are not won by these prices, then we take it that you are not interested in knit underwear at any price. They couldn't well be lower.

Women's Vests, at 8c from 12½c.
Women's Fancy Vests, at 35c from 50c and 60c; at 50c from 65c, 75c, 85c; at 75c from $1.00 and $1.25.
Women's silk mixed Vests, high neck, at $1.00 from $1.50.
Women's Union Suits, long sleeves, at 50c from 75c and $1.00.
Women's Umbrella Drawers, at 75c from $1.00 and $1.25.
Women's Silk Mixed Drawers, at 75c from $1.25.
Women's Lisle Thread Drawers, at 75c from $1.00.
Odd pieces and broken lines of children's underwear reduced in like ratio.

OUR public has taken so kindly to our day-in-advance notices of prospective sales that in these sales set for tomorrow and Thursday we shall drop all verbiage and go at once to the salient features of the occasion. It is for you to say, after going over the sections of this bulletin, whether you will be justified in attending on either of the days.

Prosecutor Shuff made his appearance in court, as he was properly required to do, and established his bona fide interest in the case against the boulevard street railway project. This point having been settled the cause may proceed, it may be hoped, to a speedy and just conclusion.

Return made by the county commissioners to the state of the taxables, taxable property and revenues in Allegheny county shows a gratifying increase in each item. This is but one of the indications of the progress that is being made in population, business and wealth by the county of Allegheny.

Federal and state laws will continue to be enforced separately. Such is the tenor of instructions from Washington elicited by the clash between Inspector Warren and Internal Revenue Collector Heiner. There is a suggestion, however, that each may be helpful to the other without neglect of particular duties assigned. Obviously this is a truth too little appreciated, or not often enough acted on.

Ion Perdicaris, recently held hostage by Raisuli, Moroccan bandit, is devoting his energies at present to opposing French supremacy in Morocco. He is giving off interviews and magazine articles with astonishing freedom, leaving the inference that he prefers a continuation of the misgovernment, punctuated by sensational kidnapings, that made his name known around the world, to a system of responsible control.

Reports of the brutality of Russian troops in Lodz are almost incredible. They would not be credited from any other country classed as civilized, being on a par with Turkish barbarities. What the final outcome will be may not be predicted at this time, but the fact must be recognized that the situation is menacing. Continuance of the war in the far east will not improve it, either.

A serious attempt is to be made to elect a Republican legislature in Virginia this fall in order to secure a member of that party in congress to succeed Senator Martin. It is proposed to ignore the negro vote in securing this result, and, with Missouri as a precedent, the advocates of the plan have reason for hopes of ultimate success. In invading the solid south it seems necessary to capture the border states first.

It is the final judgment of the ordnance board and the experts that no advantage has been gained by the 16-inch gun mounted at Sandy Hook. It is capable of the long range expected and might prove formidable to an attacking enemy, but the great cost of construction and service is not justified by its general efficiency. Smaller guns more quickly fired will give better service at less cost.

President Roosevelt has left the capital for his summer home, but not until he had settled all urgent questions demanding his attention. Just before leaving he was advised of the names of peace envoys from Russia and Japan, as an indication that matters are proceeding regularly. The president is entitled to what rest he may get at Oyster Bay and to the more salubrious conditions there for the performance of such work as he will choose to do.

While a new trial has been granted former Superintendent Campbell, it is distinctly on a technicality. Two offenses were charged in the information on which he was held for court; one only was mentioned in the indictment; testimony was admitted on both; the court charged the jury that it might convict on either. For the reason that but one offense was charged in the indictment and the jury may have convicted on the testimony relating to the other, Judge Shafer grants a new trial. This is strictly in accord with the law governing practice, though it may appear to the layman as being peculiar. As a matter of fact, legal procedure would be improved by the removal of some of its fine technicalities. If a man should be indicted for a certain murder not mentioned in the indictment, but strong enough to convince a jury and obtain a verdict, that man would be technically entitled to retrial.

Back for Reconsideration.

Hump removal has been referred back to the finance committee, where it may be considered in its new aspects. Public hearings may be given before fresh action is taken. Director Bigelow adheres to his advocacy of a cut of 18 feet and Mr. Frick remains firm in the position that he will not waive damages if the reduction exceeds four feet at the entrances to his building in Fifth avenue and Grant street.

As The Gazette said the other day, Mr. Frick's withdrawal of his waivers creates a new situation. It must be considered in all its aspects. No final action should be taken until all the details are made public, including cost of the improvement, probable damages and waivers of same. A basis of assessed damages and benefits, with the city to pay the possible difference, would be the most equitable plan. This does not seem to be favored by those most actively concerned. On any other basis the general public will want to know the precise facts and has a right to the information.

Gross Abuses Rebuked.

Secretary Taft's address to the seniors of Yale university law school will challenge wide attention. It is worthy of all the consideration it will receive. Vigorous in its attack on American judicial procedure, almost vicious in spots, it is helpful because it points the way out. Every observing man has been convinced there is something wrong with the administration of law and justice in this country, which increases tremendously in cost without corresponding increase in good results.

It is not necessary to go to the turbulent mountain districts of Kentucky, or into the lynching belt to find evidence of the miscarriage of justice. New York is notorious for the endless delays in procedure very often ending in nothing. New England is a little less open to criticism and Pennsylvania is possibly on a par with New England. Other sections are no better. Secretary Taft's homicide statistics tell the story in a startling way, an increase in 10 years of 7,000 murders per year and an increase of eight in the number of convictions—from 108 to 116. There is good ground, indeed, for his claim that failure of justice is a prime cause of the crime of lynching.

It is not often that as good a lawyer as Judge Taft attacks the weakness of his own profession. He is fully justified, however, in his declaration of a constant increase in technicalities that may be used to shield the guilty. He is quite right in his arraignment of the privilege granted to counsel to browbeat witnesses and to make appeals to juries irrelevant to the case and in contradiction of the evidence. It should be the duty of counsel to prosecute and to defend vigorously, with the ultimate object of securing justice, but more often the aim of counsel for the state and attorney for the defense is to make a record of personal achievement, all the more conspicuous because contrary to the facts. Secretary Taft's rude blast ought to have good results by arousing the public conscience.

Love and Punctuation.

Despite the unsavory source from which it comes the code devised by the incarcerated ex-clergyman who is pining in prison in New Jersey for deserting his family will no doubt prove a boon for cruelly separated lovers. The exercise of the mental faculties in using a code so literary in style and so flavored with ancient lineage will in itself be a source of great instruction and enlightenment for young lovers. But if lovers will be benefited by this employment of literary skill, what shall be said of the vast good that will accrue to literary experts and writers. At last a really useful and intelligible place has been found for the punctuation marks. Hardly any other question has been for so long the subject of unhappy contention as the right use of the various punctuation marks. The libraries and schools of the world are full of volumes of instruction, and many tears have been shed over the problems they contain. Despite all this the average man who writes doesn't know a semicolon from the plus sign in algebra. Take the printed pages of today, whether in the form of book, magazine or newspaper, and the variety of opinions evidently held as to what punctuation really is proves conclusively that the general human mind has not yet accepted it as a necessity or assigned it a permanent place in the realm of letters. Now, here is an opportunity to give punctuation a real job that will keep it out of mischief and give the poor, tired proofreaders a chance to preserve their sanity, at least. It is an almost unsolvable problem as to where a comma goes when you are writing a letter, or what relation a semicolon or colon may sustain to the general anatomy of a spring poem, but if we can establish a law that an interrogation mark means "I am your ownest ducky duck," and that commas are simply warm, arduous kisses, the whole business will be simplified. The use of punctuation will then be removed from the sphere of unhappy debate, and the proofreader will find employment on the side as an instructor in Cupid's college instead of spending his idle moments, as he does now, in putting all your commas where the periods ought to be and making your semicolons do crazy stunts with words of one syllable. For our part we think this new code promises to be a real boon to suffering humanity.

Greater Pittsburgh.

Allegheny supporters of the Greater Pittsburgh are disheartened by the decision adverse to the Cook act. Some of them are ready to give up, others favor delay. No harm will come from taking time to think, but there should be no abandonment of the project. A vigorous campaign of education is in order to convince the opposing minority among the common people of the error of their way.

At the meeting of the chamber of commerce today it may be expected valuable suggestions will be offered. It may be decided by that meeting whether action under the Goehring bill should be begun at once, or deferred until the autumn. A prime feature in this consideration is the fact that Pittsburgh and Allegheny are to elect mayors next February for a term of three years. If they are to be consolidated it is desirable to have the union effected so but one mayor need be elected for the greater city. It is possible to arrange the details if the election is held as early as the general election in November, though the time would be short. If not effected coincident with expiration of present official terms, consolidation may have to be deferred until 1909. In any event, there is no cause for abandonment of the plan.

Decreasing Death Rate.

Special attention is now being given by municipal boards of health and many charitable associations to the saving of child life, for it is found that here the most notable gains can be made in decreasing the death rate. The distribution of proper food and the spread of advice as to its use and the care needed by children produce good results. Added to this there is the increase in utilizing fresh air and improvement in the sanitary conditions.

The recent change of management in the Chicago health bureau has given occasion for the publication of statistics showing how much healthier the American city is growing. The improvement in general health conditions as shown in this typical American city has been 36 per cent in 10 years, comparing 1904 with 1893, but this is not so remarkable as the fact that there has been a decrease in the death rate of infants under one year old of 50 per cent in that time and of children between one and five years old of 64 per cent. These figures seem almost too remarkable to be true. But there has been an increase in the longevity of Chicago adults, although the death rate is principally affected by the decrease of mortality among children. Thus the average age of those who died in 1893 was 22.8 years, while in 1904 the average was 32.5 years, an increase of over nine years for every man, woman and child living in Chicago. This record is not only a cause for rejoicing in Chicago, but it is in a measure typical of the results secured elsewhere.

If the other nations of the world will excuse us for a while we will pull off a national celebration that will emphasize the fact that we know a little something of war ourselves.

Making His Report.

When an animal is killed on an English railway the nearest station master is required to send to the headquarters of the company a report of the accident. On one occasion a newly installed station master found himself confronted with the necessity of making out his first report. All went well down to the last line, when he discovered that he had neglected to question the owner of the deceased cow concerning one important point. The line was headed "Disposition of carcass." Underneath he wrote, with all earnestness: "Kind and gentle."—New York Tribune.

Speaker Gully.

From the London Art Review.

Speaker Gully has had comparative tranquil times to deal with; but whenever there has been a row, he has been rather feeble and ineffective. In the matter of allowing his eye to be caught by members desirous of speaking, we suppose that every speaker is abused by those whom he does not call. The truth is that the speaker divides solicitors of his eye into three classes—those who by virtue of their present or past office have the right to be called; those whom the house wishes to hear; and those who are constant in their attendance.

QUIET OBSERVATIONS

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Isn't it funny that about the time you had grown tired of the hot, moist atmosphere, and had concluded that you must tear yourself loose from business and go on a vacation, it should turn cool and threaten frost?

And maybe it isn't funny, not so awfully funny, to you, especially if you have your arrangements all made and can't change them.

Of course, if you are philosophical it won't make a whole lot of difference, since it all goes into your lifetime. But if you are not, you will fret and fume, and stew and fuss over it until you have actually grown uglier.

You may not know it, or at least realize the fact that ugly features of the face and form are often the reflection of the ugliness within. It naturally follows, therefore, that if you cultivate ugly features of disposition, or even permit them to exist, you will grow in ugliness until maybe you become a perfect fright, an old hag, a veritable witch.

And of all foolish things the most foolish and unprofitable is to kick against the inevitable, to fault Providence because the weather don't suit, and to cry over spilled milk. These are beauty robbers all, and are in no sense profitable.

We've got the smokeless powder,
Likewise the boneless ham:
We've got the seedless apple,
Tasteless cod liver oil:

To bake and fry and boil,
And many a smell-less, noiseless
Production and device—
But here's the iceman's monthly bill:
Oh, for a meltless ice!

Ed. Mott.

You mind Ed. Mott who used to write Susquehanna bear stories? And he wrote good ones, too, but not always true, at least not as to minor details. In fact, a plain, unvarnished bear story is almost too plain to be interesting. And the same is true of fish and snake stories, and possibly of others.

To tell a story well, which is to tell it right, the teller must be something of an artist. That explains why there are so few really good story tellers, also why there are so really good musicians, preachers, comedians or other specialists.

A recent story from Brazil shows evidences of being sadly spoiled by the original teller of it, and showed conclusively that he was not an artist, at least not a good newspaper artist.

He said that on one of his outings he discovered what appeared to be a great knot, or hump, in the crotch of a large tree. A nearer view revealed the fact that it was a monster boa constrictor that had swallowed something.

So, the fellow up with his gun and knocked the snake down from its cosy quarters. Upon ripping it open the body of a horse tumbled out. The fellow merely said he was a good deal surprised.

He should have said that after the horse had pulled itself together he mounted it and went on his way rejoicing at his good luck, for which he felt thankful to the snake.

It is a great thing to be able to make the best of things as they come and go.

By this is not meant the habit of allowing things to come and go without giving them the careful, serious attention they deserve. Some people have this habit, and have it so badly that they allow many good things to pass them.

"Prove all things, hold fast that which is good," is a mighty safe rule. And that to which you hold fast is worth embellishing and being made to yield all the good there is in it.

You may know some persons who can take a very unattractive house and make a palace of it, and that without any great expense. These simply make the best of it.

And you may know women who are plain and unattractive, as they stand, but who are among the handsomest and most interesting of your acquaintances. They have made themselves so by making the best of their opportunities.

The woman who is an artist in this line never tries to hide her plain points, but rather to counteract them. To attempt to hide them only draws attention to them. But by making other points more attractive the plain ones, or even positive defects, become unnoticeable.

If you will treat your disappointments in this way your neighbors will hardly suspect, much less know that you had been disappointed.

Don't allow things to slip past unnoticed, for among them may be some mighty good things but hold on to the good and let the rest go.

We are forever hearing about those who have stumbled on to something good. These stumblers rarely amount to much, or even to anything worth while.

You have known young fellows who stumbled on to fortunes by stumbling into the good graces of girls who had money.

Where are they now, or whither are they heading? Are they making the best of their opportunities, and doing the best they can with their fortunes?

Some clever sort of fellow has done this phase of the social question up so cleverly that it is given herewith.

"In almost every newspaper we peruse, we are sure to find a lot of talk about the man behind the counter and the man behind the gun; the man behind the buzz-saw, and the man behind his son; the man behind the times and the man behind his rent; the man behind the plowshare and the man behind the fence; and the man behind the whistle and the man behind the bars; the man behind the kodak and the man behind the cars; the man behind his whiskers, the man behind his fists; and everything behind has entered on the list.

"But they've skipped another fellow of whom nothing has been said—the fellow who is even, or a little way ahead, who always pays for what he gets, whose bills are always signed—he's a blame sight more important than the man who is behind. All we editors and merchants and the whole commercial clan are indebted for existence to this honest fellowman. He keeps us all in business and his town is never dead, and so we take our hats off to the man that is ahead."

What a lot of odd sorts there are among the people who go to summer resorts, and what lots of odd things they do. To one on the outside these are more interesting than the clowns and trick animals in a circus. And if you are built right for seeing these you can make your vacation doubly interesting and profitable by keeping a lookout for them.

From a piece printed in the Newark (N. J.) News, it would seem that the simpering abomination, the summer masher, has the center of the stage this season.

"Its trousers are turned up showing a fine pair of ankles and generously proportioned feet incased in black Oxford ties. The laces in its half shoes are about one inch in width, and are tied with exquisite neatness. They are of cotton. The coat is a three-button affair, well fitting at the shoulders. The masher's shirt is a white negligee with black stripes. The cuffs are clean. The collar is low, exposing a large handsome pink neck. Beneath the collar is a green spotted butterfly tie, cunningly knotted. Upon its head the masher wears a derby hat, from which peeps hair of a warm shade of pink. The masher's face is also pink—kind of raw pink. The longer you look at it the pinker it gets. Also its hands are pink and rather large at the knuckles. The nails are carefully manicured. The color of the masher's eyes we failed to determine owing to the masher's indisposition to let us look at them. Probably they also are pink. A pair of gold-rimmed glasses protect them from injury. There is a deep and fetching dimple right in the middle of the masher's chin. The subject is about 25 years old, 5 feet 11 in height and weight around 160 pounds."

TALKED OF IN GOTHAM

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 26.—The teachers in the New York public schools have a new line of work—they are to give daily lectures on the necessity of obeying the law of the land, especially that particular section which orders that patriotic enthusiasm which is usally manifested by the shooting of firecrackers shall be bottled up until the morning of the Fourth of July dawns bright and clear. The order was sent out this morning by Superintendent Maxwell, who believes that the youthful mind can be saturated with respect for the law if the proper course is taken. Other things the youngsters are to be told are not strictly within the law are throwing missiles at automobiles, or street and railway cars, and playing ball in the public streets with a hard ball and bat. The superintendent forgot to mention playing "cat" despite the fact that an aged woman was seriously hurt the other day by being struck in the face by a "cat," which everyone should know is a piece of wood about six inches long and pointed at both ends.

"Public sentiment among the young, properly aroused and directed in the schools, is one of the most potent influences in the community upon the side of law and order," writes the superintendent in his letter to the teachers. "In this connection it might not be amiss to explain to them they are the real owners, as children of taxpayers, of street lamps, pavements, shrubs in the parks, and other municipal property, and that injury to these things is almost the same as useless destruction of personal possessions."

All of which most of the young hopefuls are likely to forget the moment they see a stray cat to shy a stone at, despite the possibility of hitting something else.

Curb Brokers Much Agrieved.

The curb brokers in Broad street, are very much agrieved that they should be roped off in the street like so many animals in cages. They had their first try today at Commissioner McAdoo's new plan, and they declare it is not only annoying to them, but in no way prevents the street congestion, which was the commissioner's excuse for issuing the order. They argue when they were allowed to scatter along the entire width of the street they were quick to get out of the way of vehicles, but now the vehicles are confined to a small space and must pick their way slowly through the narrow lane. Perhaps in the course of a few days they will fit themselves to the new plan and be happy again. At least the commissioner says they must make the best of it.

One Day's Toll of Death.

With the thousands of people who went in bathing yesterday it is not remarkable there were five fatalities in the rivers and along the beaches of the greater city. The hot weather always demands this toll of death from among the bathers. The terrible heat of the past two days drove the people to the beaches in great crowds, taxing every medium of transportation. That there were not many serious accidents on street cars and railroads seems almost miraculous, as the cars were jammed to their utmost with struggling, pushing crowds. The heat continued today. Although there seemed to be a promise of rain early in the afternoon, it failed to arrive and much suffering will come to the tenement dwellers.

One Honest Automobile Owner.

James J. Hill, the railroad magnate, got his name in the papers in poster type because he admitted that his chauffeur was going just a little beyond the speed limit in an effort to make quick time to Albany. The policeman gasped in astonishment when Mr. Hill made the admission it is so unusual, and the magistrate before whom the chauffeur was arraigned was equally astonished.

"Your frankness is refreshing," said the court, "but I'm afraid we will have to hold the chauffeur in $500 bail for trial."

If the magistrate had released the chauffeur because of the honesty of his employer, we might have expected to see all owners of whiz wagons turn honest—wholly with the hope of receiving equally lenient treatment in the courts.

Trying to Close "Fake Hotels."

While the committee of fourteen is going slow in the matter in order to make no mistakes, there is a firm intention displayed to close all the fake hotels in the city, illegal dives that are run under the Raines law, which says that any building containing ten bedrooms is a hotel, or may be. Fully 100 places are on the list made up by the committee as needing investigation. Several have already been closed out and a score more condemned, against which legal action will be taken. These places are usually the worst dens of vice in the city. They have sprung up under the Raines law, about as bad a piece of legislation as was ever foisted upon the city. Its greatest fault is in the number of loopholes left for its evasion.

Found Starving Amid Plenty.

In the home of an aged woman taken to the hospital this morning in a starving condition was found not only food in plenty, but more than $14,000 in securities and nearly $1,000 in cash. The woman, who is more than 80 years old lived alone. A few days ago she was taken ill and was unable to leave her bed to help herself in any way. The neighbors finally became suspicious that all was not right and this morning called in the police. At the hospital it was said the privation is likely to result fatally.

West Forces the Issue.

Men from the west furnished the argument that caused the Twentieth Century train on the New York Central to return to the 18-hour schedule. The eastern officials of the road were inclined to be a little more conservative, but the hustlers from Chicago were able to convince them that in the west time is money and they haven't any of it to spend in the wadding along the road between Gotham and the Windy City. And the New Yorkers agreed that there are many reasons why some people would like to get out of Chicago as rapidly as possible.

WAR INDEMNITIES

If a joint commission of plenipotentiaries from Russia and Japan meet in Washington next August to discuss terms for peace, the chief contention is likely to be as to the size of the indemnity or the question whether there should be any indemnity paid to Japan. It is generally admitted there must be a new agreement on the control of Korea and the evacuation of Manchuria by the Russians will also be required. Inasmuch as Port Arthur was once before won by the Japanese and then wrested from them, it is likely Japan will have something to say about the disposition of this fortress. But from the tone of the remarks made by Japanese and the czar of Russia, it is likely the question of money payment will be the most troublesome. The czar is reported to have announced that while at the head of the Russian government he would never agree to the payment of a money indemnity to Japan. The Japanese, on the other hand, expect some indemnity, variously estimated at the cost of the war, say $500,000,000 down to a nominal sum.

France the Greatest Sufferer.

It might be supposed that war indemnities had been assessed and paid according to the means of the defeated nation and this has been the case, especially with Turkey and Greece. But the money exacted from France by Germany was so enormous financiers doubted her ability to pay it. The common people resorted to their savings to promptly take up the indebtedness. So France has been able to re-establish her territory to a degree and to maintain her credit in spite of the defects which proved so costly. One of the first heavy losses France incurred was during the 100 years' war with England, when the invaders captured King John at Poitiers. The imprisoned French king had to pay three million gold crowns as a ransom and nearly half the territory of France was ceded to the British crown. This land was mostly recovered and England had difficulty in collecting the debt, but the strain on France was none the less severe. The next setback France received was when the treaty of Paris in 1763 ended a seven years' war with England and she was forced to cede Canada to her conquerors. After Napoleon had drained the country by his costly campaigns, France was again humiliated by the terms of the second treaty of Paris, which required that she pay 28,000,000 pounds sterling directly to the allies composed of Russia, Austria, Great Britain and Prussia and about twice that sum in all on account of the depredations caused by Napoleon. Beside this, France had to support an army of the allies who could remain on her territory for not more than five years. After Germany had administered a crushing defeat on France in 1871 Bismarck demanded an indemnity of $1,200,000,000. M. Thiers protested and succeeded in reducing the amount by $200,000,000. German troops were to remain in occupation of French territory until this was paid and the French hastened to liquidate the obligation before it became due to rid themselves of the presence of the hated troops. Beside the money indemnity, parts of Alsace and Loraine had to be given up.

China an Easy Victim.

Since she has been unable to control her own people for whose outrages she is held responsible and has been unwilling to resist a first-class power, China has been an easy victim in the indemnity demand. After the opium war and an insurrection in which England was involved, she had to tax her resources heavily to meet the demands made by Great Britain. The Boxer insurrection of 1900 hit ten nations, who found grounds for presenting claims. The United States endeavored to have these reduced, and they were finally fixed at 450,000,000 taels or $65,000,000. When the treaty was made after the war with Japan, China had to pay that little island 200,000,000 taels beside the territory she was forced to surrender.

Twice has Austria been severely mulcted because of the defeat of her armies. When Napoleon had won the battle of Austerlitz in 1805, the treaty of Presburah which followed robbed the country of 100,000,000 francs beside 20,000 square miles of territory. When the Prussian armies swept the Austrians before them in the seven-weeks' war which helped establish the German empire. Bismarck considered himself very lenient because he demanded only 20,000,000 thalers as indemnity.

Treaties Which Recognized Republics.

Republics have been recognized by some of the famous treaties that have closed wars. The peace of Westphalia, established by the treaty of Munster, not only closed the 30 years' war between Sweden and Germany, but it recognized the independent existence of Switzerland. By the terms of this treaty Sweden was awarded four million crowns. The independence of the United States was recognized by the treaty of Paris in 1783.

Turkey would have been impoverished by Russia's demands after the war of 1877 but for the influence of the other powers. But Turkey soon found another pauper nation when she defeated Greece and tried to impose an indemnity there.

The United States has had so few foreign wars that the matter of indemnity has not been a feature of her treaties. After she had defeated Spain, however, instead of demanding a money indemnity, she paid $20,000,000 for the Philippines and thus established a unique record.

Seidlitz Powder Cartridge.

How a man's life was saved by a common Seidlitz powder is described by a German physician, Dr. Franck, who was called to treat a man who had swallowed a large piece of tough meat, which stuck in his gullet. As it was impossible to dislodge the meat by natural means, and as the patient's condition was critical, the doctor tried the efficacy of the gas which is generated when the constituents of a Seidlitz powder are mixed. He directed the man to swallow the two halves of one of the powders separately, and the resulting pneumatic pressure, aided by the man, who shut his mouth and closed the nasal passages was sufficient to drive the piece of meat out of the gullet into the stomach.—New York Press.

Doubts About Arcady.

"And when we are married," said Charley De Mott, "it will be one perennial dream of bliss. We shall dwell in Arcady."

PICKED UP IN LOBBIES

When It's "Kidding the Kidder."

"Do you know, boys, that a hotel clerk, just like a poet, is born and not made," remarked M. T. Connell of Dayton as he sat in the lobby of the Colonial hotel last night. "I have been on the road for about a quarter of a century, maybe more, and I have seen about all the hotel clerks in the land. I always have a happy feeling when I am coming to Pittsburgh, for seldom do I find a better lot of all-round hotel clerks than right here in the Smoky City. That's no particular jolly for them, as every one of you will admit." And Mr. Connell's companions did admit it.

"But as I was going to say," he continued, "a genuinely good hotel clerk is born and not made; so are traveling men and thus we are somewhat related. I have heard of traveling men writing verses, too; maybe there are versifiers among the clerks. Have you noticed when you entered any of the Pittsburgh hotels the 'smile that won't come off?' That's the mark of a good clerk in most instances, as thousands of commercial men well know. You know that traveling men are supposed to be the dispensers of 'salt' and if you keep your eyes open long enough you will know that there is no class that likes to be fed 'salty' as well. Just watch two old commercial friends meet and see the jollying. So it's like 'kidding the kidder' when we step up to the hotel register and press the extended hand and meet the smile of welcome. That's the stuff that brings the business abroad as much as the reputation of a house for good rooms and eats. Probably that is the reason for the general line of affable clerks at the Pittsburgh hotels, some of the hotel managers and proprietors themselves have been clerks. I know it. And they know a good clerk the first time he waits upon a patron. True enough, some of this 'jollying' spirit can be gained by practice and experience, but the real good 'kidder' is born. Pittsburgh is a pretty good place for them, too. They live been here every day."

Just then a Pittsburgher stepped up and asked how "the man of massive vices and virtues was making it." "Didn't I just tell you they are born every day, boys?" remarked Mr. Connell.

Banquet of High School Class.

The boys of the '05 class of the Central high school of Pittsburgh held their first stag banquet last evening and decided to make the banquet an annual affair. The dinner, followed by a social hour, was held at the Hotel Henry, 45 members of the class and Prof. P. M. Dysart, teacher of physics, and Prof. J. L. Marvin, teacher of English, being present. Charles H. Bracken was toastmaster, and the following spoke in response to the toasts: "To '05," Allan M. Digby; "Our Faculty," William Monroe; "Advice," Profs. Marvin and Dysart; "Our Girls," Harry O'Hara; "Merits and Demerits," Wilson Little; "Letters of Regret," Guy M. Stewart and Elmer Barchfield. The president of the class is Howard R. Loughridge, the vice president is Edward McClelland, the secretary is Leslie McLean, and the treasurer is Ward Gable.

Will Visit Germany.

Mrs. Ernest Meyer of Pennsylvania avenue, Emsworth, and Miss Anna Vollman, niece of Albert Panzer of Glenfield, will leave over the Pennsylvania railroad this evening for Baltimore, where they will board the steamer Hanover tomorrow for Germany. Mrs. Meyer will spend about six months on the continent visiting at her birthplace, Posen, and at Berlin, where she spent her girlhood days until she was 9 years old, also spending some time at Bremen, Hanover and Heidelberg and in Switzerland and France. Miss Vollman, who is also a native of Germany, will remain at Berlin for her home. Mrs. Meyer is the daughter of the late Rudolph Schendel, for many years a well-known resident of Allegheny.

They Were Not Max and Gus.

For a little while last evening there was a little excitement among a few of the friends of the Rogers Brothers—Max and Gus. A couple of their friends happened to be downtown and heard that the Rogers Brothers were registered at the Hotel Duquesne. While the Rogers brothers were registered there, it was found that their initials were not M. and G., but E. J. and L. K., of Wheeling.

ORPHANS GIVE OUT STATEMENT

Say There Has Been Much Misundertsanding About the Indictment of Zahniser.

CITIZENS CONVENTION TODAY

Nine Orphans last night conferred long and earnestly. The subject under discussion was the local political situation. At the conclusion W. H. Stevenson handed this statement to the reporters:

"There has been apparently a great misunderstanding on the part of the newspapers as to the position of the Orphans party in respect to the appointment of Mr. Zahniser to the county commissionership. The fact is that the central committee indorsed Mr. Zahniser solely on account of his well known qualifications to fill the position and his good record in councils. Furthermore the members of the Orphans party are not seeking office. The prime object of the organization being to support and advocate the election of honest and capable men to county and city positions and these principles will be adhered to in the approaching county election."

The conference was held in the offices of W. C. Reitz on the nineteenth floor of the Frick building. Controller John B. Larkin was not present. Mr. Stevenson said the only information for the public is contained in the statement printed above.

The sub-committee on Republican rules will meet this afternoon to begin work on its report to be submitted to the county committee on July 15. While some of the committeemen believe the delegate system should be retained, there is nothing to indicate opposition of an organized character to the adoption of a direct vote plan of nominating. The sentiment in favor of a change is daily growing stronger and the belief is generally expressed among party leaders that there will not be a fight over the proposition in the county committee. There was a rumor yesterday about the committee not putting the new rules into operation until next year. Chairman T. J. Ford said he had not even heard the rumor.

The Citizens will hold a county convention in the Bijou theater this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The program is to have R. B. Ward act as temporary chairman and a former Congressman James W. Brown be the permanent presiding officer, should he return from the east this morning. According to the plans arranged yesterday the convention will nominate this ticket: J. D. O'Neil, recorder; Henry Meyer, register; James A. Clark, commissioner; R. J. Cunningham, controller; Reid Kennedy, treasurer; F. X. Barr, clerk of courts, and a Sixth legislative district man for director of the poor. The latter candidate is to be slated this morning.

Unless a change is made in the program this morning, the nomination of one candidate for commissioner and the nominee for prothonotary will be left to a committee clothed with powers to join with the Democratic conferees in making nominations. This is done to protect County Commissioner Clark, who is particular about the strength as a vote-getter of his running mate. Clark desires to remove as many stones as possible from his pathway to the minority commissionership.

For prothonotary there has been some talk of Henry Hunneshagen, director of charities in Allegheny. Those in the fusion conferences say his name has not been considered. There is a report that Mayor Wyman wants Hunneshagen to keep off the fall ticket, so he can be used as a candidate for mayor in case the present executive decides to throw his support to some one other than John R. Murphy.

Select Councilman John W. Robinson of Allegheny, who has been a strong advocate of Greater Pittsburgh, is now counseling delay. He argues the time to ask for a vote has not arrived. The municipal affairs committee of the chamber of commerce will meet this afternoon. It is scheduled to take up the question of annexation under the provisions of the Goehring act.

M'ILVAIN MAY GET CONTRACT FOR SEWER

He Asks $14,400 for a Job Which Is Only a Block Long—Is Son of Director.

Bids were received yesterday for the reconstruction of a portion of one of the main sewers of the downtown district of Pittsburgh which the officials of the public works department state is liable to break at any time and cause serious damage, as did the Shingiss street sewer. Director Bigelow and Mayor Hays yesterday opened bids for the contract to rebuild the Garrison alley sewer, between Liberty and Penn avenues.

This sewer drains the entire hillside district from the Bedford water basin, covering the Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, Eleventh and Thirteenth wards, and the Third and Fourth wards downtown. The lowest bidder was the International Construction company, of which the son of Director of Public Works McIlvain of Allegheny is the head. When he became director of public works in Allegheny E. J. McIlvain turned over his interest to his son, who is acting in his stead. Although the sewer is to be repaired for a distance of only a short block the lowest bid on the contract by the McIlvain company is $14,400. The distance, it is stated by the Pittsburgh officials, is about 700 feet. The award to the McIlvain company will probably be made in a few days. The sewer is of brick and is 5 feet 6 inches in diameter.

LARGE CONTRACTS GO TO TWO PITTSBURGH FIRMS

They Include Supervision Over and Structural Steel for Allis Chalmers Plant Extension.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ANOTHER CHANCE FOR CAMPBELL

WILL BE TRIED IN JULY

Former Superintendent of Police Melvin H. Campbell of Allegheny was granted a new trial by Judge Shafer yesterday and District Attorney Stewart expects to bring him to trial next week if the case can be prepared in time. Campbell was convicted at the March term of court of extortion in receiving money from a woman of the North Side to allow her to open a disorderly house. His conviction was the first big victory for the anti-graft people and was followed shortly afterward by the prosecution and conviction of Charles Striepeke, street commissioner, on a similar charge. Striepeke asked for a new trial, but no decision has been rendered in his case. In granting the new trial Judge Shafer said:

Without discussing all the various questions raised by the defendant in his motion for a new trial, we deem it sufficient to say that we are of the opinion that this record contains manifest error in one respect, and that one which defendant has not thought proper to point out in his reasons for a new trial. The indictment charges that defendant did on a certain day demand and extort $50 lawful money, etc.

On the trial evidence was given of this, and evidence was also given that on another day he also received a diamond pin from the same person. This evidence was not objected to, and, of course, the defendant could not thereafter complain of its reception or of any argument drawn from it in support of the charge in the indictment.

The jury, however, was told in the charge that if it found that the defendant in fact received either the money or the diamond pin it might find him guilty if it found certain other facts. Now it is impossible to say whether the jury believed that he got both or only one, and if only one, then which one it was that he received. Of course, this confusion arose from the fact that the information contains both charges, and counsel on both sides and the court following them took for granted that the indictment contained both. This, however, does not cure the error of the instructions to the jury that it might find the defendant guilty of that with which he was not charged, in which case the verdict would be no protection against another prosecution for the same offense. This is not the case of a variance in the proof in circumstances of time and place and such details from the indictment, but was that of a distinct offense committed at a different time under different circumstances.

Attorney John Marron, when he heard the decision, remarked, "It is still true that laws are webs to catch small flies, but to let big ones through."

Campbell's case will probably be the first graft case to be taken up in July, and will be followed by that against Director Scandrett and others. If Striepeke gets a new trial he will also be put on at that time.

FILIAL HONOR IS PAID TO MEMORY OF VICTORIA

British Born Pittsburghers Endow a Memorial Cot at the Hospital for Children.

In memory of England's good queen and mother, Victoria, residents of Pittsburgh who are born under the British flag yesterday endowed a cot in the Children's hospital and presented to the institution a replica of Benjamin Constant's great painting of the queen. The donors, a score of men, were received by Mrs. George W. Guthrie, president of the board of managers, assisted by the four vice presidents, Miss Mary McKee, Mrs. James H. Reed, Mrs. Herbert DePuy and Mrs. Horace Drave, with Miss Bessie Johnston, secretary. Mrs. DeWees Wood, Mrs. W. D. Corcoran and Miss Martha Childs. Alexander J. Dempster made the presentation speech.

The cot, a handsome brass one, is marked with a plate upon which the following inscription has been placed:

"This cot was endowed Coronation day, June 26, 1902, in memory of Queen Victoria by the British born residents of Pittsburgh."

About 50 people contributed to the fund and among the donors who were present at the presentation exercises yesterday afternoon were James I. Buchanan, C. E. E. Childers, Thomas Saunders, Mr. Steel, Mr. Hudson and John Young.

BRIDGE CASE ON TRIAL.

First of the Beaver County Hearings in Progress Before the Butler Courts.

BUTLER, June 26.—(Special.)—The first of the Beaver county bridge cases went on trial today before Judge Galbreath and a Butler county jury on a change of venue from Beaver county. Three bridges, one over the Beaver river from Bridgewater to New Brighton, and two over the Ohio river were condemned for public use on proceedings by the commissioners of Beaver county.

Viewers appointed in the cases warded the corporations $230,000 for one bridge, $147,000 for another and $95,000 for another, the total aggregating nearly $500,000. The owners took appeals and asked for change of venue. The first one to go to trial was that of the New Brighton and Bridgewater bridge. The evidence this afternoon was that the bridge brought in $10,000 revenue yearly.

ITALIAN FINED $1,000; HAD DYNAMITE IN TRUNK

CINCINNATI June 26.—Nicola Tafian, an Italian, was fined $1,000 in the United States court today. He pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying dynamite in his trunk while traveling from Martins Ferry, O., to Indianapolis. When the train officials discovered that there were six pounds of dynamite wrapped up in his clothing, they stopped the train and left Tafian's trunk in a field near Xenia.

Alleged Bond Loser Is Arrested.

BOSTON, June 26.—Col. Henry W. Comstock, who on June 12 reported that he had been robbed of $120,000 worth of securities while on a Fall River line boat, was arrested tonight on a charge of larceny. Mrs. Cora A. Frothingham of Atlantic alleges that she gave Comstock two $1,000 bonds of the New York Central railroad on March 28 last to be held as collateral for the purchase of some stock. She claims that she has not received any stock and that the bonds have not been returned.

Drowned Men Probably Pittsburghers.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., June 26.—(Special.)—While in a skiff near the center of the Ohio river a few miles south of here, two men became frightened at the approach of the steamer Virginia last night and jumped into the water. Their boat was not struck. An attempt was made to rescue them, but they sank. The names of the men are not known, but it is thought they were from Pittsburgh and belonged to a crowd of campers.

Cadets Drowned in Wrecked Ship.

COPENHAGEN, June 26.—A serious disaster occurred last night near here, when the Danish cadet training schooner Georg-Stage was rammed and sunk by the British steamer Ancona. The Georg-Stage sank in one and one-half minutes. Twenty-two cadets were drowned and 57 rescued.

GIRL GRADUATES GET ROSES JUST THE SAME AS BEFORE

"No Flowers" Order Doesn't Hold in the Allegheny High School Commencement—They Hear Sermon on Work.

"Work, work, work! This is the thing that counts," said Chancellor McCormick to the graduates of the Allegheny High school at their commencement exercises last night at the Gayety theater. Grouped about the stage were 135 young people radiant in evening clothes and still more radiant in happy smiles, who listened to the text and the sermon, and smiled approval. Before the speaker were crowded 2,000 friends of the happy throng behind the footlights. It was an inspiration even to such a sophisticated and experienced schoolmaster as Chancellor McCormick.

An iron-clad rule against the giving of flowers had been posted, but on an occasion like last night, who could see the sweet girls sit there with nothing but their lace fans? Somebody who admired one of those dainty little women just jumped over the traces and gave her a magnificent bouquet of American beauties and then—everybody followed the good example. The girls beaced an irresistible "thank you" and each took out a tender blossom and tucked it into her curls—just for luck.

It was just such a gathering as would have made old Ponce de Leon believe that he had found the fountain of youth, and all that he could have dreamed of finding in a halcyon land. The girls—and somebody said, "God bless 'em"—occupied the center of the stage and got every gleam of the lime light, while the young men—who looked gallant enough to deserve such fair company, were scattered about the wings, modestly contributing to the attractive ensemble.

And it would have been supposed that a prosaic text like "work" would have sounded out of place when the chancellor rose to address the class, but when Prof. W. L. Smith came forward and opened a tiny envelope and took out six glittering gold medals—rewards for hard work—nobody doubted that the triumphs represented by diplomas, medals and American beauties were not well earned. Medals were given to Miss Harriet Elizabeth Kelly, Miss Edith Marion Knox, Miss Nellie Elizabeth Miller, and Miss Elinor Hart Kirkwood, all of whom were graduated with honor. Beside the medals, Miss Kelly was given a scholarship to the Western University of Pennsylvania, and Miss Knox won the scholarship to the Pennsylvania College for Women. Miss Edith G. Kennedy received a medal for her essay on History, and Miss Anna M. Rentsch was awarded one for her essay of English.

After explaining that work counts for more than genius in the success of a man's life, Chancellor McCormick admonished the young people to remember their duty toward their fellow men and to aim toward the highest ideals. He continued:

"There is need today of a better and finer preparation for life than there was 25 or 50 years ago. The responsibilities of life have increased. Those who expect to accomplish something in this life must reach out and make life worth living, and at the same time strive for success. The first thing for the foundation in life is work, and that is the stone upon which you must build. We cannot attain success without engaging in toil that is constant and earnest."

The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Dr. David S. Schaff. After the diplomas were given the graduates stood up and sang, "Goodby, Dear Old High School," the Rev. Dr. D. A. McClenahan said the benediction—and they parted, perhaps, forever.

M'AULEY TO SUCCEED SUPT. M. H. CAMPBELL

About July 1 Public Announcement Will Be Made of Elevation of Scandrett's Clerk.

John T. McAuley, assistant clerk and stenographer in the office of Public Safety Director Scandrett, is said to be slated for appointment as the real superintendent of police in Allegheny. As yet this is supposed to be an administration secret, but enough has leaked out to make the report look like an actuality.

One of Mayor Wyman's intimate personal and political friends told a reporter for The Gazette last night that McAuley was really appointed to the superintendency several days ago and that the public announcement of the appointment will be made on July 1, or soon thereafter. Yesterday's order of the court granting Melvin H. Campbell, the suspended superintendent, a new trial will, it is said, have no effect upon the appointment, for, so the report goes, Campbell's resignation has been in Wyman's hands for several weeks, but has never been officially accepted.

It is no secret that Campbell is thoroughly disgusted with public life and public office and cares nothing for further participation in the affairs of the Allegheny police. His resignation, it is said, will be made public at the time McAuley's appointment is announced.

For about two weeks McAuley has been acting superintendent of police. Campbell was suspended immediately following his conviction on a charge of extortion. John Glenn, the assistant superintendent, was made acting chief and ruled in that capacity until he was stricken with a severe illness two weeks ago. Glenn returned to city hall yesterday looking very sick, and resumed his duties. When he arrived McAuley turned over the office to him and left. Director Scandrett is in Cincinnati and it is presumed McAuley will stay out of the police superintendent's office until the return of his chief.

According to the story told last night John Glenn will be retained as assistant superintendent, but McAuley will transact the business of the office and be the real head of the bureau of police. There is to be no interference of police captains or other police officers, as was the case when Campbell held the office.

OUTINGS FOR PUPILS.

Two Allegheny and Three Pittsburgh Schools Go to Rock Point Park This Week.

With the excursion yesterday of the Eighth ward public schools of Allegheny, a week of school picnics at New Rock Point Park was started. Close to 1,000 happy children, parents and friends, boarded the special Ft. Wayne trains in Allegheny yesterday and started for the famous old restort.

Today the Eleventh ward public schools of Allegheny have their picnic. Both the Davis and Shady avenue schools will take part in this outing. There will be over 1,500 pupils and about 1,000 parents and friends. Two long special trains have been provided by the Ft. Wayne to carry the crowd.

Tomorrow the fun crosses the river and the Pittsburgh school children begin their outing. The Ralston public schools of the Ninth and Tenth wards will go on three special trains to New Rock Point. The morning trains will leave the union station about 8 o'clock and the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

On Thursday the Lawrence public schools of the Fifteenth ward will have their outing. The crowd in this case will exceed 2,000 and like the other schools will have special trains. The school week ends on Friday with the excursion of the Grant public schools of the Third ward.

CONTRACT IS LET FOR MORE U. S. STEEL OVENS

Contracts have been let by the United States Coal and Coke Company, a subsidiary concern of the United States Steel corporation, for building 250 coke ovens, the new work to cost about $200,000. The larger part of the ovens will be located on the Tug river in McDowell county, W. Va., where the company already has extensive property. Weakland Bros., of Gary, W. Va., received the contract for the work.

ITALIAN MURDERS BOY IN BUTLER COUNTY

BUTLER, June 26.—(Special.)—Antonio Sissitka shot and killed a four-year-old boy in Annadale, 20 miles north of this place, late this afternoon. After the shooting Sissitka boarded a train, rode to Branchton and took the afternoon passenger train for Erie. The authorities in this place were notified and word was sent to the chief of police of Erie to arrest Sissitka.

Will Elect Select Councilman.

A special election will be held in the Sixth ward, McKeesport, today for the purpose of electing a successor to the late George R. Stone, select councilman. Joseph Werry, a Republican, is unopposed for the office. Mr. Werry will be elected for a term lasting until the first Monday in April, 1907.

LAWYERS WILL MEET AT BEDFORD SPRINGS

Gov. Pennypacker May Address State Bar Association on Thursday Evening.

Many members of the Allegheny county bar left last night for Bedford Springs, Pa., to attend the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Bar association, which will hold daily sessions until Thursday evening, when the annual banquet will be held at the Bedford Springs hotel. Gov. Pennypacker is expected to be present at this banquet and respond to a toast. Henry C. Niles, the retiring president, will act as toastmaster, and the Hon. Walter Lyon of Pittsburgh, Dwight M. Lowrey of Philadelphia and Col. Ned Arden Flood of Meadville, are also on the list for toasts.

The Tuesday afternoon session will be devoted to an address by President Niles. In the evening Charles A. Gardiner of New York will deliver the annual address on "The Constitutional Powers and Discretion of the President." W. Rush Gillan of Chambersburg will deliver an address during the session on "James Buchanan."

Last Saturday a party of Pittsburgh judges and attorneys started from Pittsburgh to drive to Bedford. Among them were Judges McClung, Miller, Macfarlane and Frazer, and Attorneys J. M. Shields and F. C. McGirr. The party expected to reach the hotel yesterday. Among other attorneys who will be present are T. S. Brown, J. McF. Carpenter, Charles Orr, William Scott, George B. Gordon, Thomas Patterson, Charles M. Thorp and Senator Knox. There are about 125 members of the association in Allegheny county.

MOORE TO MAKE PERSONAL INSPECTION OF THE POOLS

Director Is Determined to Make Bathing in the Rivers as Safe as Possible.

Harry Moore, director of the department of public safety, will make a personal inspection of the various swimming pools this week. If any of the swimming places are, in his judgment, found to be unsafe, he says he will prohibit their use. The director is determined to prevent the drowning of bathers even if more officers have to be placed on guard.

As a result of the big crowds which frequented the swimming pools all day Sunday, Director Moore has issued an order that hereafter the bathers will only be allowed in the water between 5 a. m. and 10 a. m. on Sundays. Sunday was the first holiday on which swimming was done under the guard of police, and the conclusion the police department has arrived at is that the entire police force would be unable to prevent accidents because the small boys try to emulate the aquatic doings of the men.

An additional officer will be placed at the swimming pool at lock No. 1. Director Moore has ordered the officers on duty at the bathing places to make soundings in order to learn the condition of the river bed, and he expects them to keep themselves familiar with the part of the river over which they are placed as guards. Crude platforms and springing boards will also be erected. A new bathing place will be established near the South Tenth street bridge today, and an officer placed on guard there.

QUARREL OVER ACCIDENT TERMINATES IN A KILLING

SHARON, PA., June 26.—(Special.)—Michael Corrosa died in the hospital this morning from a knife wound alleged to have been inflicted by Carmeno Scilazo at South Sharon, late last night. The latter was arrested as he was about to board a street car at Hubbard for Youngstown and brought to South Sharon. According to the story told by South Sharon police, Scilazo was riding a bicycle and ran into Corrosa. A dispute followed and Scilazo disemboweled the other with a stiletto.

Strikers Reject Employers' Proposals.

CHICAGO, June 26.—By an almost unanimous vote the striking teamsters tonight refused to accept the terms recently offered by the employers and the latest peace prospect in the strike has vanished.

Moore Is Permanent Receiver.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—J. Hampton Moore was today appointed permanent receiver for the City Trust Safe Deposit and Security Company of this city. The appointment was made on the application of Attorney General Carson.

YOUTH'S DEATH CAUSES MYSTERY

Tony Corelli Falls Unconscious After Calling for Someone to Take Care of Wagon.

RECOVER YOUNG OYERS BODY

"Call some one to take this wagon," cried Tony Corelli, aged 19, and then fell unconscious from his seat. Corelli was employed as a driver for a Sharpsburg florist, and was driving out Butler street. On reaching Fifty-second street he called to a small boy on the sidewalk to get some one to take the wagon. He was sent to the West Penn hospital, where he died last night without regaining consciousness. He lived at 128 Main street, Sharpsburg. It was reported last night that shortly before Corelli fell from his wagon an unknown man had taken him to a saloon and given him something to drink.

While handling a revolver that he had found in the yard in the rear of his home yesterday afternoon, Frank McClellan, aged 14, a son of Curtis M. McClellan of 708 Sandusky street, Allegheny, accidentally shot himself. The accident occurred shortly before 1 o'clock and at 9:20 last night the lad died. Ralph Smith, a nephew of Mr. McClellan, was in the back yard at noon and in a small outbuilding dropped a revolver he had been carrying. The boy found the gun and not being familiar with its mechanism snapped the trigger. The ball went through his right hand and entered his body just above the heart.

George F. Craig, aged 29, an airbrake inspector of the Pennsylvania railroad, met a terrible death yesterday at 11:20 a. m. in the West End. He had been inspecting brakes on cars in the Panhandle railroad yard in crawling out from under a car did not notice the approach of a fast passenger train. He was struck and instantly killed. Craig was single and lived with his father at 324 Plum avenue, Carnegie. Craig worked Sunday night and yesterday remained on duty so that another inspector could lay off for the day. He was a member of Rich Valley Lodge 916, I. O. O. F., Court Rosedale 29, F. of A., and Capt. Thomas Espy camp, Sons of Veterans.

William Lammer, a brakeman, was squeezed to death at 5:20 o'clock last night in the Pennsylvania railroad freight yards in New Grant street. He was working in the yard when an engine came along and crushed him against the freight house. Lammer lived in Sheraden.

The body of Charles Oyer, son of Alderman Oyer, who was drowned on Sunday while bathing near Lock No. 1 in the Monongahela river, was recovered at 8 o'clock last night. Thomas and John Manion, Michael Christy, William Burke and Policeman Patrick Manion, who had been dragging the river all day, recovered the body, which was sent to the morgue and later taken to his father's home, 1827 Fifth avenue. The body was found about 500 feet below where Oyer sank.

Mrs. Philomena Williams, aged 35, who was burned in a lamp explosion at her home, 129 Stoebner alley, while sweeping last wek, died early yesterday morning at the emergency hospital of Dr. J. J. Mullen in Penn avenue, East Liberty. The girl's father came to this country about a month ago and became acquainted with Thomas Williams, also an Italian, and told him of a daughter he had left in the old country. Williams sent money to the girl to come over, and on her arrival here they were married.

Honest Value at $3.50 and $4.00

IF you wish a shoe a little lower in price than the Hanan, in a comfortable foot-form last, ask the man to show you something at $3.50 and $4.00.

These shoes are stylish, nobby and wonderful value for the money. They are not made in the Hanan factory, but are made from Hanan specifications. That means that Hanan sees to it that you get honest value for every cent you pay.

That you get as good shoes as can be made for $3.50 and $4.00.

They will probably give you far better service than any shoes you have ever worn at that price.

But that doesn't alter the case.

They are worth just what you pay—$3.50 and $4.00—no more and no less.

The Atlantic
This last with Military Heel and medium toe is so stylish and comfortable and so deservedly popular that we offer it in an Oxford as shown, or in a lace or button shoe. Furnished in Patent Kid, Patent Calf, French Calf or Vici Calf. This is only one of the swagger styles at the Hanan Store.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS MESSIAH

DEBATE IS ON THE PROGRAM

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CALIFORNIA, PA., June 26.—The performance of Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," at the Normal school chapel this afternoon was witnessed by an audience including visitors from every town in the valley from Pittsburgh to Brownsville as well as from other points in the Tenth normal school district.

Pittsburgh was well represented among the soloists, Miss Louise L. Combs of the Third Presbyterian church, appearing as the soprano, and Edward Vaughn of Christ Methodist Episcopal church as tenor. The alto was well sustained by Mrs. Mabel Hugus Drum and the baritone by John Atkinson of Detroit. Prof. Charles S. Cornell, director of the chorus, and Mr. von Kunits, concertmeister of the Pittsburgh orchestra, shared in the honors.

The town is filled with visiting alumni here for their reunion and banquet. The normal authorities are dispensing genuine hospitality—in fact as well as in name—as visitors are being entertained free of charge, the students having surrendered their rooms for the time being.

Interest tomorrow will center largely in the reunion of "Old-Timers," or those who attended the school prior to its state recognition in 1874, some of them dating their attendance back in the 50s. The following is the program, Judge J. A. McElvaine, presiding:

Address of welcome, Dr. C. L. Ehrenfeld, California; response, E. P. Douglass, Esq., Pittsburgh; historical sketch, Prof. G. G. Hertzog, California; "The Veto of '59," T. B. McCain, Wilkinsburg; "The Living Past," Prof. W. N. Hull, Youngstown, O.; "Something Easy," the Hon. A. J. Buffington, Bentleyville; "The Boys," H. F. Bailey, Washington. Brief addresses will be made by any old-timers who have anything to say.

The contest between the two flourishing literary societies takes place tomorrow evening. The question is: "Resolved, That combinations of labor are more detrimental to the public welfare than combinations of capital." The judges are, the Hon. E. F. Acheson, Washington, Pa.; Director A. A. Hamerschlag, Pittsburgh; Supt. Grant Norris, Braddock.

YOUND LAD SHOOTS HIS MOTHER'S ASSAILANT

Italians Who Attack Woman Are Brought to Speedy Account by Members of Family.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

GREENSBURG, PA., June 26.—Mrs. Elmer Tarr, who lives near Ruffsdale, was murderously assaulted by an Italian and seriously injured. The Italian was shot by a son of Mrs. Tarr and probably fatally wounded.

Three Italians, Guy Murray, Tony Pasquette and Frank Pantalo, were driving on the road near the Tarr home. They became disorderly and Mrs. Tarr called them to account. One of them pulled a razor and attacked the woman. He struck her on the right arm while another held her, making a terrible gash, and again on the face. The Italians then fled.

The husband and a son started in pursuit. Getting within range he ordered them to surrender. Two of them did so, but the other jumped from the buggy and attempted to escape. The lad leveled the shot gun and fired at him. One side of the man was riddled with buckshot. The three men were taken to Ruffsdale and later brought to jail.

GARMAN KILLS HIMSELF.

Brother of Prominent Democratic Politician, Convicted of First Degree Murder, Ends His Own Life.

LEWISTOWN, June 26.—Ellwood Garman, convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of William Murray, was found dead in his cell in Mifflintown today. He committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid.

Garman, who was a prominent citizen of Mifflintown, was convicted on June 17 of the murder of a railroad clerk named Murray, who had accused Garman of undue intimacy with his wife. A quarrel followed and Garman shot Murray. Garman was a brother of John M. Garman, a prominent Democratic politician and former Democratic state chairman.

THINKS WOMAN CAST EVIL SPELL OVER CHILD

NEW CASTLE, June 26.—(Special.)—Because of his superstition, Sabbatino Zarlenga was arrested here today at the instance of Mrs. Mary Matteo, whom it is said he threatened to kill because he believed she cast an evil spell over one of his children. The child has been stricken with illness. He will have a hearing before Alderman Ranney on a charge of surety of the peace.

Italians Arrested for Shooting.

NEW CASTLE, PA., June 26.—(Special.)—Three Italians were arrested here today for a shooting affray last night at Mahoning town. The defendants are James Tomase, Geatano and Masone and Verge Ditamaso. Several shots were fired and a bullet passed through the coat of Ditamaso, who was also struck by a club.

Another Clerk for McKeesport.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—(Special.)—Under the readjustment to take effect July 1, one additional clerk is allowed the McKeesport postoffice and one at Charleston, W. Va., at $800 each.

The Death Roll.

George E. Macklin.

George E. Macklin of this city, general manager of the Pressed Steel Car Company, died in St. Joseph's hospital, Philadelphia, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, after a lingering illness from tuberculosis. His wife and A. M. Waite, a brother-in-law, of New York, were with him when the end came. The remains were removed to the home of a cousin, Mrs. Eskin V. Smith, 1617 North Sixteenth street. Funeral services will be held there tomorrow afternoon, and the remains will be taken to McVeytown, Pa., for interment. Several months ago Mr. Macklin left his home in this city for Florida owing to ill health. During the early part of April he suffered several hemorrhages, and he was taken to the Philadelphia hospital on April 8, his special train making a record-breaking 1,200-mile run. He was then in the last stages of tuberculosis, and had since been kept alive largely through the use of oxygen. While at the hospital he was under the care of Dr. Lawrence F. Flick, a tuberculosis specialist. Mr. Macklin was born at McVeytown, near Harrisburg, 42 years ago. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Macklin, are living at Colorado Springs. Mr. Macklin, early in life showed a decided taste for higher education and engineering problems. He first attended schools near his home and then was sent to Rensselaer Polytechnic school at Troy, N. Y., from which he graduated with honors. His first notable employment was with the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company at Salina, Kas., he leaving there to accept a position with the Simplex Railway Appliance Company. He was with this company several years, finally leaving it in 1892 to go with the Pressed Steel Car Company. He made such a good record in the sales department that he was promoted to take charge of the New York office with the title of assistant general sales agent. His success in this capacity was so pronounced that he returned to Pittsburgh as acting general manager and a member of the board of directors. He was also general manager of the Pennsylvania Car Wheel Company. Ten years ago Mr. Macklin married Elizabeth Gleason of Cleveland, who, with a 16-year-old daughter, survives him. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. S. M. Lansing and Mrs. M. M. Boss of Colorado Springs. He was prominent in Masonry, being a member of John H. Brown Lodge No. 216, F. and A. M., of Buffalo; Salina Chapter No. 18, R. A. M., and Mackey Lodge No. 12, A. and A. S. R. of Salina. He was a member of the Duquesne, Pittsburgh and Country clubs of this city, the Lawyers', Central Railroad, New York Railroad and Ardsley clubs of New York, and of the Chicago club. The family home in this city was on the Woodland road. A number of Pressed Steel Car Company officials will leave tonight for Philadelphia to attend the funeral. In the party will be James W. Friend, vice president; P. G. Jenks, treasurer; Maj. Samuel E. Moore, auditor; Chris Flinn, assistant general manager; Challis Bowker, superintendent McKees Rocks plant, and J. B. Fuller, who was private secretary to President M. N. Forney. President Mellon, Second Vice President O. C. Galey, and Assistant to the President F. H. Rapley will go to Philadelphia from New York.

Mrs. Mary Bishop Robinson.

Mrs. Mary Bishop Robinson, a descendent of the early pioneers of Pittsburgh, died last night at 11 o'clock at the family residence, 273 Fortieth street, of old age. Her parents came to this country in 1790 from England and purchased an 800 acre farm opposite Sharpsburg, in the district which is now the Eighteenth ward, Pittsburgh, where Mrs. Robinson was born 80 years ago. She was married at the age of 19 to Hebron Robinson, who died 40 years ago, and the couple went to Wheeling, W. Va., where Mr. Robinson engaged in the jewelry business. After 15 years in Wheeling they came to Pittsburgh, where Mr. Robinson engaged in the real estate business. Mrs. Robinson had been a reader of The Gazette all her life, her parents having taken the paper when she was a girl. She was a member of the Thirty-ninth Street Presbyterian church, and was active in church and charitable work. She is survived by the following children: John G. Robinson, treasurer of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad; Thomas R. Robinson of the Fidelity Title and Trust Company, and Mrs. Johns, wife of Clarence N. Johns, the artist. Twelve grandchildren also survive. Funeral services will be held at the family residence Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. Dr. A. E. Linn, pastor of the Thirty-ninth street church.

Professor Adolph Carpe.

Prof. Adolph Carpe, well known among musicians of the city, was found dead in his room at the residence of Dr. Oscar Brun, 151 Larimer avenue, last night at 7:30 o'clock. He had eaten his supper with the family. Shortly after 7 o'clock Mrs. Brun went to his room to see if he had gone out. She received no response to her knocking and on opening the door saw Prof. Carpe lying on a couch. Dr. Glaube was summoned and found that Carpe had died of apoplexy. Prof. Carpe was born in Paderbohn, Germany, 55 years ago and received his musical education in that country. He was formerly a resident of Boston and had been attached to the Boston Conservatory of Music. He has been in this city for several years and conducted a studio at 549 Penn avenue. Councilman Heidmold of the Twentieth ward and Frederick Bruening of the Bruening Cork Company are distant relatives. The body will be buried by friends in this city.

Dr. Charles Steinert.

Dr. Charles Steinert of 1169 Webster avenue died Sunday at Waynesburg and his body was brought back to Pittsburgh yesterday. Dr. Steinert and Mrs. Steinert went to Waynesburg Saturday to spend his sixty-fifth birthday with his daughter, Mrs. S. A. Rinehart. He was attacked by acute pneumonia, but his condition did not become alarming until two hours before his death. He is survived by his widow, one son and three daughters.

George F. Hochschwender.

George F. Hochschwender, aged 71, died yesterday morning at his home, 54 Southern avenue, Mt. Oliver, after an illness of six months from dropsy and asthma. He was born at Heidelberg, Germany, and came to Pittsburgh 51 years ago. He was a cooper, but had been retired for several years. His wife, who was Miss Susan Shepard, died four years ago. The following children survive: George, Andrew and Mary Hochschwender of this city and Mrs. Harry Lintner of Fair Haven, Pa. Funeral services will be held at his late residence tomorrow at 2:30 p. m.

Obituary Notes.

LOCAL PRESBYTERIES GAIN THEIR DEMANDS

Board Sanctions Printing of Bohemian Paper and Foreign Literature.

Pittsburgh and Allegheny presbyteries of the Presbyterian church were conceded their full demands upon the board of publication of the church at a conference held in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. For several years the local presbyteries, which have ever been liberal contributors to the board, have demanded foreign literature for home missionary distribution but the only grant given was a promise of American Tract society pamphlets. This was refused, and strictly Presbyterian literature demanded.

After repeated efforts had proved fruitless the local presbyteries ordered that the contributions of this year, which will reach $8,000, be held here, and that the local bodies apply the money in a printing plant and produce the literature wanted. This action brought three members of the publication board, which has headquarters in Philadelphia, to this city yesterday. They were the Rev. Dr. Alexander Henry, secretary; the Rev. Dr. J. R. Miller, editor and superintendent, and John R. Scribner, business agent of the board.

These men went into conference with the joint committee of the two local presbyteries, with the result that the local committee agreed to turn this year's contribution over to the board of publication as usual, with the proviso that the board turn it back with such additional money as will be necessary to organize and start the publication of a Bohemian newspaper and issue other tracts in foreign languages which the Pittsburgh and Allegheny presbyteries may find necessary in pursuing their missionary work. The representatives of the board further agreed that they would sanction the publication of other foreign newspapers in such localities best fitted for the purpose. The Bohemian paper is to be published here under the auspices of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny presbyteries and under the supervision of the board of publication.

TIDE IS TURNING IN STEEL TRADE

Delay in Railroad Buying Was Principal Cause of the Temporary Slowness.

DONE TO MAKE A "SHOWING"

Sooner than many had expected, there has come a turn of the tide in the iron and steel market. The lower ebb which marked May and the first part of this month was very perceptible and was used by consumers and other bear interests to advantage. It was then said by the manufacturers that July would reverse this situation, but already there are indications that the reversal has come, for a steady flow of orders, not only sufficient to keep the mills busy but to cause some accumulation, has begun in many lines.

This is especially true of the many lines that the railroad companies consume and the reasons for it are mainly Wall street reasons. July 1 is the beginning of the fiscal year of many railroad companies, particularly of the trunk lines, the largest buyers of iron and steel. It was necessary to make a good showing in May and June, and in every department which is a heavy buyer instructions were issued to hold back all orders which could be delayed. In this way the net earnings were brought up to a neater figure than would otherwise have been the case and the "showing" was accordingly strengthened.

The result of this is that July will be a month of great activity for the manufacturers, because the supply of about two months must be turned out in one. Not only are the orders being received, but they are accompanied by the requests for rush, which usually lead to premiums.

It was the slowness of railroad buying which caused considerable of the feeling that the iron and steel market was greatly weakened. The railroads are considered the best indicators of business conditions and their lead is often followed. It is the general belief that the improvement in the coming month will be of large proportions.

Even with the railroads out of the market, but there has been much other business for the steel trade and the mills have been normally busy in May and June.

In other lines than steel this slowness of June buying has been evident. It was true of the coal market. At the same time there was so much tonnage moving that the coal companies will at the end of the month have made a better record than in any month of the year up to June. July holds plenty of promise of doing still better, and from that time on the heavy fall and winter trade will be seeking its supply.

MURPHY COMES HOME TO LOOK AT HIS FENCES

Former Recorder of Allegheny Wants to Be Candidate for Mayor of North Side.

The return of John R. Murphy from Mt. Clemens on Sunday, means that there will be warfare in Allegheny politics from now until the January primaries. Murphy will be a candidate for mayor to succeed James G. Wyman, although so far he has made no positive declaration of his intentions. This, however, has made no difference to his friends in the months past, and they have quietly and persistently kept his name in the political atmosphere.

Since it has been decided by the supreme court that the Cook annexation bill is unconstitutional, the factions on the North Side have commenced to clear decks for action. Murphy's return to the city was expected. Sunday afternoon he was in conference with the men who made the fight against the Cook act. It is pretty generally understood in Allegheny that Wyman will be for Murphy in the fight at the primaries. The payroll vote is likely to be split, as Charles F. Kirschler has a considerable following.

It is a fact that both Murphy and Kirschler look to the eastern end of the city for their main support. Kirschler is strong among the Germans east of Federal street and Murphy realizes this. It is in that district that the most bitter fight will be waged.

Friends of Postmaster John Francies say that with Murphy and Kirschler fighting each other Francies would give them both a run, should he decide to be a candidate. He has a large following in all parts of the city.

EATON AS AN EVANGELIST

New Position in Pittsburgh Methodist Episcopal Conference Spoken of for the Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton.

It was reported in Methodist Episcopal circles yesterday that the Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton, of the North Avenue church, Allegheny, was a candidate for the position of conference evangelist of the Pittsburgh conference. Dr. Eaton recently informed his congregation that he would not be a candidate for reappointment at the conclusion of the conference year, September 1.

Under the church law each conference is permitted to employ a conference evangelist whose duties are to stimulate interest among non-churchgoers with a view of establishing missions and eventually new congregations. Nearly all of the conferences in the denomination have acted under this privilege, and have conference evangelists, although the Pittsburgh conference has never appointed one. Clergymen of the Pittsburgh conference are interested to know what the pleasure of Bishop Cranston and his advisers will be on this question.

FUGITIVE CHANGES HIS MIND ON BEING SHOT AT

After swimming a considerable distance out into the Monongahela river, Andrew Kohler changed his mind and allowed Policeman Joseph Ruvinski to arrest him. Ruvinski fired several shots at the fugitive, however, before Kohler was willing to be arrested. Kohler is alleged to have been detected coming out of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad trainshed yesterday with a bag on his shoulder. The railroad has been complaining of brass and lead pipe being stolen. Kohler is charged with being a suspicious person.

Vaudeville at the Traction Parks.

This week's vaudeville bills at Southern and Oakwood parks attracted fair-sized audiences last night. The bill at Oakwood is headed by Gavin, Platt and "Peaches," in a very funny sketch "A Stolen Kid." Jones and Sutton have a good singing and dancing act. Howard and Linder are fair impersonators of German characters and Miss Burdette, vocalist, adds much to the worth of the bill.

The program at Southern park comprises Cherry and Bates, comedy cyclists, who are clever in their line. Andrew McLeod in an act of Irish minstrelsy made a hit with his mixture of music and talk. Duffy, Sawtelle and Duffy, who were at Oakwood last week, were good enough to be re-engaged for Southern park. Their act is one of the best one-act playlets on the vaudeville stage.

Another Charge Against Nelson.

Walter E. Nelson, who is a prisoner in jail awaiting trial at court on several charges of false pretense in getting money on alleged fraudulent checks, had another commitment lodged against him yesterday by Alderman Anderson on a charge made by Martin Shaughnessy of Eleventh street. Shaughnessy alleges that on June 10 he gave Nelson $10 on a check for $30 on the Squires Carriage Company, and the company alleges the check to be a forged one.

Intercollegiate Regatta.

On account of the Intercollegiate rowing regatta over the Highland-Poughkeepsie course on the Hudson river Wednesday, June 28, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round trip tickets to Highland or Poughkeepsie on June 27 and 28, good to return until June 29, inclusive, from principal stations on its lines, at rate of single fare for the round trip.

BROOKLINE

THE 15-MINUTE SUBURB

ASK HIM FOR HIS AFFIDAVIT.

Then take, anywhere on Smithfield street, one of the southbound BROOKLINE VIA WEST LIBERTY cars and make a thorough investigation.

Everybody says that our ads are striking, but not half so striking as the property—that no advertising would be sufficiently powerful to do the Great White City justice.

When we get people to talking like that, we must have something.

The way they're buying is the proof. The time has come when a lot plan has to be good to command a sale. AND BROOKLINE IS CERTAINLY COMMANDING A SALE!

Double-size lots at $100 to $1,200. 5 per cent down, 2½ per cent monthly. No interest nor taxes for you to pay for two years. On the higher priced lots terms are easier. And don't forget that we are giving you city water, electric lights, gas, macadamized streets, paved streets, stone curbing, granolithic-stone sidewalks, an 80-foot boulevard parked like Beacon street of Boston, building restrictions—in fact, everything that the finest city on earth can possibly possess.

When the second track of the grand new speedrail trolley is completed and switch tracks abolished, Brookline's cars will be operated on rigid orders to make the run without fail in fifteen minutes—in fact, tests have shown that the distance can be made in even less time than fifteen minutes.

THE PIRATES' LAY OFF COSTS THE TEAM SECOND PLACE

THE BRAIN DEAL IS CALLED OFF

St. Louis Infielder Will Not Become a Pirate, but Must Play With the Cardinals.

RAIN PREVENTS GAME

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, June 26.—The baseball deal by which Dave Brain, the Cardinal's crack all-around player, was to have been traded to Pittsburgh, is all off according to a statement made by Treasurer Stanley Robison of the Cardinals this afternoon. No suitable arrangements could be made with the Pittsburgh management, Mr. Robison's statement tending one to believe that Pittsburgh wanted the Cardinal player for almost nothing.

It has been known for some time that Brain is not satisfied with his present berth and that he wants to get away. It was also known that a deal with Pittsburgh was being considered, the general expectation being that Brain would join Clarke's crew on the present trip, while McBride, Pittsburgh's utility infielder, would be left in exchange. When reminded of Brain's declaration that he wanted to get away from St. Louis, Mr. Robison said:

"We have no other trade in view concerning Brain. At present he will play in St. Louis or nowhere."

Philadelphia 3—Brooklyn 2.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—Philadelphia defeated Brooklyn today in a well-played game. The home team scored the winning run on a double, sacrifice and a single. Umpire Emslie was hit on the leg in the sixth inning by a foul tip and play was suspended for 20 minutes while a physician dressed his injury. Attendance, 3,697. Score:

PITTSBURGH COLLEGIANS WIN AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, PA., June 26.—(Special.)—The Pittsburgh Collegians beat the Washington Independents today 4 to 1. "Toots" Shultz was effective with men on bases, an error allowing the locals' only run. In the third inning two of the Pittsburgers got on bases through errors and Price and Uptegraf followed with two-baggers. Carlss, the U. of P. captain, played well for Washington. Price's fielding was a feature. Springer, with the exception of the third inning, was effective. The score:

PRESIDENT MORTON TO TRY TO BRING ABOUT PEACE

Charles Morton of Akron, O., president of the Independent association, is in Pittsburgh, visiting the different towns in his circuit. He attended the game yesterday at McKeesport and will see Akron play at Homestead this afternoon. This morning he will meet the authorities of the McKeesport and Braddock teams and try to effect an amicable adjustment of their troubles, arising from a decision of the Braddock umpire last week. Morton says the association is prosperous and the umpiring uniformly is good.

YOUNGSTOWN DEFEATED IN LONG GAME AT M'KEESPORT

Tube City Players Fight 16 Innings Before Beating Hoganites. Other Contests.

For 16 innings Ohio Works and McKeesport battled at McKeesport yesterday. McKeesport won, 4 to 2. Feature plays were numerous. McKeesport made two runs in the fifth and Ohio Works tied the score in the sixth. In the twelfth Ohio Works made one on singles by W. S. Thomas and T. Thomas and an error. The score was tied by McKeesport on Orbin's walk and steal of second and Soffel's single. In the sixteenth Crum led off with a single. Piper was safe on Whitney's drop of a throw from T. Thomas. Duff forced Piper, and with Crum on third Orbin hit to Phyle. Crum was retired at home and Orbin was doubled at first by a narrow margin. With two out and Duff on third Soffel sent one to Whitney that was too hot for him to handle, Duff scoring. Kennedy started the game with McKeesport, and until the ninth allowed but four hits, in throwing to first, Orbin struck him on the head and rendered him unconscious. Duff took his place and pitched nice ball. Score:

"MIKADO" IS SUNG BY CARLETON CO.

Gilbert and Sullivan's Old Japanese Comic Given a Worthy Revival.

The Gilbert and Sullivan wit is not susceptible to the ordinary laws of decay that inflict themselves upon our modern schools of light opera. Perhaps the Gilbertian humor may be a bit elusive to the modern taste that has been blunted by a succession of horse-play bombardments under the guise of comic opera, but once the point of contact is satisfactorily re-established the old sway of melody and wit is resumed. A satisfactory resumption was inaugurated by the Carleton Opera company at the Nixon last night. "The Mikado" is a classic. It has been perfectly rendered in America and our memories recall it with joy. It has been barn-stormed and car-barned innumerable times and still retains its flavor. Carleton, Sr., is one of the pioneer producers of the opera in this country. He captured it out of the hands of its composers during that celebrated New York run in 1885—and carried it off to San Francisco with a stage director who was "in at the start" over in England. Hence the Carleton idea and the Carleton business goes back to original principles. Gilbert despised horse-play. He knew he had the real thing. Carleton follows Gilbert and in this Nixon production he has given us the opera straight and put comedy and vocal talent in for good measure.

This isn't saying that "The Mikado" at the Nixon last night was a perfect one, but it is a long way the most enjoyable Mikado Pittsburgh has had in years. The best thing in it is Frederic Sullivan's Ko-Ko. Mr. Sullivan is a nephew of the composer and a comedian of most convincing humor. His work in the last act is especially fine, including the Henry Irving imitation and the side-splitting "Dickey Bird" song. Joseph Sheehan's fine tenor voice is another added charm to this latest Mikado. "The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring" was sung and acted with great good spirit and in all those numbers where Mr. Sheehan's voice received a chance lovers of vocalism for itself were satisfied. W. T. Carleton's Mikado was another good thing of this revival, as was young Carleton's Pooh-Bah. Of the feminine roles it is difficult to make distinction where the differing merit is so slight. Miss Vaughn is a sweet and winsome Yum Yum and strengthens the admiration for her sweet voice. Miss Palmer gets a real chance as Petti-Sing and measures up to it. Miss Gibbons renders excellent assistance and adds to the charm of the picture. Miss Preville improves in the second act over work that in the first act last night seemed a little uncertain vocally. The chorus is strong vocally but exceedingly stiff in the adaption of Japanese grace. For a first night, however, the opera ran smoothly and with more familiarity on the part of the people will become a really joyous and capable revival. Ko-Ko's topical song, "I've Got Him On the List," was broadened by war references and made a dig at the Greater Pittsburgh scheme. The opera is effectively if not always extravagantly or accurately put forward. Japan is in the public eye. "The Mikado" should help to add to the gaiety of the otherwise serious public interest in her affairs. Director Haig shows good control of his orchestra and when the singers fall more nearly into harmony with him by practice the production will appear better from that side.

JURY SYSTEM IS SCORED BY TAFT

Tells Yale's Budding Attorneys its Workings Are a Disgrace to This Country.

FILIPINOS DO NOT NEED IT

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW HAVEN, June 26.—The Yale senior classes of the college and Sheffield scientific departments of the university, held their class day exercises today. In addition to these exercises, the anniversary of the Yale law school and of the medical school, meetings of the law school alumni and the usual important commencement week meeting of the Yale incorporation, were on the very full program.

The Townsend prize speaking contest was held as part of the graduating exercises of the law school. Among the law school honors announced was the degree of D. C. L., magna cum laude, for Chung Hui Wang, Canton, China.

Secretary of War William H. Taft delivered the address to the law class on "The Administration of Criminal Law." He said in part:

Question of Trial by Jury.

Trial by jury has been adopted in Porto Rico. It has not been adopted in the Philippines. I do not think it too much to say, however, that it has proven a failure thus far in Porto Rico. The first question in the Philippines was, Shall it be adopted in civil cases? It would seem unwise. It is by no means clear that in our jurisprudence a trial jury in civil cases is an unmixed good. The abolition of the jury in civil cases would relieve civil suits and would not, I think, with proper appeal, deprive any litigant of an impartial hearing. Of course, it will never be done in courts of the United States, and perhaps never in any of the states. However this may be, in view of present conditions we are not called upon to introduce the jury in civil cases into the Philippines.

In the matter of the criminal procedure the question is very different. In a country where a part of the judges are aliens it would add much to the satisfaction of the people if a part of the judicial tribunal were made up of a jury of natives, and if this were consistent with the safety of the community those responsible for the new government would certainly introduce the jury system in the trial of crimes. Manifestly such a tribunal would have no place among an ignorant people, or, indeed, even among a people who are somewhat educated, if they have not inculcated in them a sense of responsibility for and share in the government. It is this sense of justice which is implanted naturally in the Anglo-Saxon breast, but which is absent in the Porto Rican and the Filipino.

In adopting a system for the punishment of crime for a new country, the first question which can be asked is, "How have the so-called guarantees of liberty of defendant worked on the whole?" While in England crime is punished with as much severity and uniformity as the public weal demands, and this although they have the trial by jury, although defendant cannot be compelled to testify, and although all the other rules of evidence to which I have referred have full application, how is it in this country? I grieve for my country to say that the administration of the criminal law in all the states of the union—there may be one or two exceptions—is a disgrace to our civilization. We are now reaching an age when we cannot plead youth, sparse civilization, newness of country as a cause for laxity in the enforcement of law.

Becomes Legal Fetish.

The institution of trial by jury has come to be regarded as fetish to such an extent that state legislatures have exalted the power of the jury and diminished the power of the court in the hearing of criminal cases. The function of the judge is limited to that of the moderator in a religious assembly. The counsel for the defense, relying on the undiminished power of the court, creates, by dramatic art and by harping on the importance of unimportant details, a false atmosphere in the court room which the judge is powerless to dispel and under the hypnotic influence of which the counsel is able to lead the jurors to vote as jurors for a verdict which, after all the excitement of the trial has passed away, they are unable to support as men.

And now what has been the result in this country? Since 1885 in the United States there have been 131,951 murders and homicides and there have been 2,286 executions. In 1885 the number of murders was 1,808. In 1904 it had increased to 8,482. The number of executions in 1885 was 108. In 1904 the number was 116. This startling increase in the number of murders and homicides, as compared with the number of executions, tells the story. As murder is on the increase, so are all offenses of the felony class and there can be no doubt they will continue to increase unless the criminal laws are enforced with more certainty, more uniformity, more severity than they now are.

Certainly the result of the American criminal procedure as distinguished from the English criminal procedure does not encourage us to think it would be wise to introduce into the Philippine islands a system of jury trial which now prevails in most of the states, especially under the restrictions of the power of the court which we find as we go west in this country. The cure for this growing cancer in the body politic may be found in statutory amendments. If laws could be passed either abolishing the right of criminal appeal and leaving to the pardoning power, as it is in England, the correction of judicial wrong, or instead of that, if appeal must be allowed, then if a provision of law could be enacted by which no judgment of the court below should be reversed except for an error which the court after reading the evidence can affirmatively say would have led to a different verdict, 99 reversals out of 100 under the present system would be avoided.

More Power for Court.

Second. If the power of the court by statute to advise the jury to comment and express its opinion to the jury upon the facts in every criminal case could be restored, and if the state and the defendant were both deprived of peremptory challenges in the selection of a jury, 25 per cent of those trials which are now miscarriages of justice would result in the conviction of the guilty defendant, and that which has become a mere game in which the defendant's counsel play with loaded dice would resume its office of a serious judicial investigation.

Our country is disgraced by the number of lynchings that occur both in the north and in the south, and excuses are sought for the horrid and fiendish cruelties perpetrated by mobs in such cases in some other cause than the delays of justice, but every man of affairs who has studied the subject at all knows that if men who commit crime were promptly arrested and convicted there would be no such for the purpose of lynching. Nothing but a radical improvement in our administration of criminal law will prevent the growth in the number of lynchings in the United States that bring the blush of shame to every lover of his country.

LITTLE GIRL JUMPS DOWN MINE SHAFT

TERRE HAUTE, IND., June 26.—(Special.)—Viola Yates, aged 7 years, playing about the shaft of a coal mine in Lintin, suddenly was seized with an uncontrollable impulse to jump down the shaft and, running 20 feet to the opening, made the plunge to death, 70 feet below.

To Install New Pastor.

A special meeting of Monongahela presbytery of the United Presbyterian church will be held this morning in Mt. Union church for the purpose of installing the Rev. Mr. Briceland as pastor of that congregation. The Rev. Mr. Briceland is a recent graduate of the Allegheny Theological seminary and resides in McDonald, Pa.

Strike at the Erie Basin.

NEW YORK, June 26.—(Special.)—Because their employers refused to meet the demands of the apprentice fitters and rivet holders for higher wages, 15,000 men employed in various occupations about the Erie basin shipyards are on a strike this afternoon. The men want $2.50 per day, an increase of 15 cents.

Indian Pardoned by the President.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Philip Scott, a full-blooded Creek Indian, convicted of criminal assault, has been pardoned by the president. There is doubt of the Indian's guilt. Lawrence Givens and William Paddock, horse thieves, also have been pardoned.

Doctors, lawyers, teachers and other professional men and women will find a source of much convenience and profit to have a savings account at the Peoples Savings Bank, Fourth avenue and Wood street. Four per cent compound interest paid.

MITCHELL SHAKES HIS FIST AND CURSES PROSECUTION

Says Anything Is Justifiable to Defy Government in His Case, According to the Testimony of His Former Private Secretary.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PORTLAND, ORE., June 26.—Harry Robertson, United States Senator John H. Mitchell's former private secretary, was the principal witness for the prosecution today in the trial of Senator Mitchell. Robertson told of alleged conversations with Mitchell at Washington in which, he said, the senator expressed fear of prosecution for his alleged work before departments. Robertson said he expressed to his employer the belief that denial was useless as several persons knew of the connection of the firm of Mitchell & Tanner with the work of getting the Kribs claims expedited.

On being subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury the witness said he went to Senator Mitchell and showed him the summons, asking the senator for what he could be wanted in Portland. The senator said, according to Robertson, that it was to testify about the accounts of the law firm of Mitchell & Tanner.

Mitchell, the witness said, told Robertson to go to Tanner and look at the partnership agreement and that Tanner would tell him how to testify. Robertson said the senator had cursed the prosecution and had said anything was justifiable in defying the government in this case.

On Robertson's return to Washington after appearing before the grand jury, Senator Mitchell, the witness said, shook his fist in Robertson's face and swore at him for his actions in Portland. The witness said Mitchell finally acknowledged that he had known Kribs and remembered the partnership agreement. The senator, according to Robertson, cried and swore and said that he ought not to be prosecuted in the Kribs case, as he had received only a few small checks for what he had done.

Robertson identified a letter given him by Mitchell at Washington to be delivered personally to Tanner, but which was given by Robertson to Prosecuting Attorney Heney and the grand jury. This letter told, to the best of the witness' recollection, the plans made by Mitchell and Tanner to evade breaking the law.

SUMMER CAPITAL NOW BEING PLACED IN ORDER

Nation's Executive Offices at Oyster Bay to Be Ready for President When He Arrives.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

OYSTER BAY, L. I., June 26.—Today Franklyn Hall, a messenger from the White House, started to put the executive offices in Moore's block in working order. The rooms will be fitted up the same as last year. Work is also being pushed at Sagamore Hill to have everything in readiness when Mr. Roosevelt arrives.

No concerted arrangements have been made for the president's reception when he arrives next Thursday morning. The welcome will be of an informal character, in which all of the president's friends and neighbors will participate.

"Uncle Amos" Boreum, the old United States mail carrier here, who carried the president around in his stage when Mr. Roosevelt was a boy, says he will be on hand with a flag to greet "Neighbor Roosevelt."

ELECTION IS LIVELY.

Iron Workers Vote for 50 Candidates for 24 Offices, and Ballots Are Counted All Night.

One of the liveliest contests ever waged in the history of Local Union No. 3, International association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, took place last night at the annual election, held at headquarters, 1119 Penn avenue.

Fifty candidates were in competition for 24 offices and the polls remained open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 10:30 o'clock last night. Owing to the fact that nearly 400 votes were cast and that there were no straight tickets in the field, ballots were still being counted at an early hour this morning, with no definite result in sight.

J. P. Kelly had no opposition for reelection as president. The position has a salary of but $5 a month. The bitterest contests were waged in the selection of a financial secretary and business agent. There were five candidates for each position. The former carries a salary of $24 a week and the latter $35 a week. Indications were that the present financial secretary, W. C. Bennett, was meeting with the strongest opposition in the candidacy of George Boyd, while the present business agent, M. Gelentine, was being vigorously opposed by Maurice Breen and James L. Kelly. The organization has a membership of 850, but owing to the great amount of out-of-town work now in progress a little less than half the membership had opportunity to vote.

BUILD NEW CAR BARN.

Pittsburgh Railways Company Will Erect $30,000 Structure in Frankstown Avenue for New Cars.

The 100 additional cars which the Pittsburg Railways company will shortly receive will call for more room than the present barns of the company give and the result will be a new barn. The structure will be built in Frankstown avenue at once and will cost $30,000.

In this barn will be handled the Frankstown avenue, Hamilton avenue, Shady avenue, West Wilkinsburg and Larimer and Lincoln cars.

The structure will be thoroughly modern in every respect. It will be built of steel and brick and will be ready for service in the fall.

NEW PASTOR IS CALLED.

Seventh United Presbyterian Church Fills Pulpit Vacancy.

At a congregational meeting of the Seventh United Presbyterian church, held last evening in the church, Forty-fourth street, the Rev. W. M. Hughes of the Unity (Westmoreland county) church was elected pastor.

Representatives of the congregation will attend a session of Monongahela presbytery in Mt. Union church today and ask that the Rev. Mr. Hughes be transferred from the Westmoreland to the Monongahela presbytery and that arrangements be made for his installation.

LATE SPEAKER REED'S DAUGHTER MARRIES

PORTLAND, ME., June 26.—(Special.)—The marriage of Miss Katharine Reed, daughter of the late Hon. Thomas B. Reed, and Lieut. Arthur T. Balentine, United States army, took place this noon at the Reed home here. Mrs. Reed being still in deep mourning, the marriage was as quiet and unpretentious as it was possible to make it. Lieut. and Mrs. Balentine are to go to Fortress Monroe.

Will Remain Another Year.

The Rev. Dr. Robert G. Ferguson, who resigned the presidency of Westminster college several months ago, has been prevailed upon to remain for another year. The committee which has been endeavoring to secure a successor to Dr. Ferguson has not definitely decided upon any candidate, and will continue its efforts to secure an efficient man during the extended presidency of Dr. Ferguson.

German Force Is Defeated.

CAPE TOWN, CAPE COLONY, June 26.—The rebel leader, Merengo, has attacked and defeated a German force commanded by Capt. Siebert at Amoas in the Karas mountains, German Southwest Africa. All the German ammunition and supplies were carried off by the rebels. The losses are reported to have been heavy.

Retired Officer Commits Suicide.

NEW YORK, June 26.—(Special.)—Maddened by the fate of his faithful wife, who was taken violently insane a week ago, Capt. Theodore Fling, 60 years old and a retired officer of the British army, who has been living in East Seventy-seventh street, blew out his brains in Central park today.

Pittsburgh Presbytery Meets Today.

The last meeting of the Pittsburgh presbytery of the Presbyterian church will be held today in the chapel of the First church, Sixth avenue. The business of the year will be closed up, and adjournment will take place until next September.

Mr. Stretch, an American delegate to the Sunday school convention, lies at the point of death at the home of the Rev. Dongali Brown. Mr. Stretch came from Indian territory or Oklahoma. He was stricken with paralysis.

WALLACE FOR SUBWAY JOB?

Panama Canal Engineer May Go With the Ryan-Morton Syndicate in New York.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—(Special.)—There is a rumor that Engineer Wallace of the Panama canal commission has told Secretary Taft that he will resign and that great pressure is being brought upon Wallace to remain. The tip is that Wallace has been approached by the Ryan-Morton syndicate in the interests of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company to use his services in connection with the proposed new subway for New York city. It is asserted that Wallace told Mr. Taft that personal interests would forbid him staying longer on the commission.

The president is said to be very uneasy over the situation as he feels that Wallace's retirement would give credence to the assertion that canal affairs are in any but a good and wholesome condition. A second report is that the Pennsylvania railroad has made Wallace an offer and that it wants him to take charge of its affairs, not the least of which is the New York tunnel project.

SILENT ABOUT CARDINAL.

Archbishop Ryan on Leaving Rome Says Pope Alone Has Decision Concerning America.

ROME, June 26.—(Special Cable.)—Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia, who started home this morning after a long visit at Rome, during which he was several times in conference with the pope, expressed himself as delighted with his visit in every way. Asked if he could say anything on the question of the next American cardinal, the venerable prelate smiled and said:

"Not a word. If there is to be another American cardinal, the holy father in his own time and in his own way will announce the fact. Until he does there will do nothing to say."

MR. BARRETT NOW MINISTER.

Oregonian Who Relieved Mr. Russell Now in Charge of Consulate at Colombia.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The formal announcement was made at the state department today of the appointment of John Barrett of Oregon as minister to Colombia, to which post Mr. Barrett was recently assigned to relieve Mr. Russell, who was ordered to Caracas, Venezuela, when Mr. Bowen was summoned to Washington.

Mr. Barrett was minister to Panama at the time, but was given permission to visit the United States before going to Bogota.

DOWIE BACK WITH MEXICAN CONCESSIONS

WAUKEGAN, ILL., June 26.—(Special.)—Gladstone Dowie, Judge Barnes and party returned to Zion City today from Mexico, having completed their negotiations with the Mexican government for the land and concessions they wished to secure in that country. It is understood all of the 500,000 acres which the "Prophet" of Zion's church wished to secure has been purchased or optioned.

AMERICAN CIRCUS MEN ARRESTED IN CANADA

GRAND MERE, QUEBEC, June 26.—Fifteen employes of an American circus were arrested here today by militia from Quebec charged with kidnaping and illusing a young French-Canadian girl at Roberval and shooting another girl at Chambord.

New Mill to Start in August.

The new rail mill at the Edgar Thomson steel works, Braddock, will be in operation by August. It will be known as rail mill No. 3, and it will be in the care of Supt. David L. Miller, who runs the other rail mills. It will be used exclusively for rolling second quality and old rails turned back on the company and will have its own heating furnaces.

WRECK'S VICTIM IS LAID AT REST

PALLBEARERS ARE PROMINENT

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square,
NEW YORK, June 26.

The funeral of John R. Bennett, the lawyer, who was killed in the wreck of the Twentieth Century flier at Mentor, last week, was held today from his late residence, at 38 West Fifty-third street. The Rev. Dr. Abbott E. Kittridge of the Madison Avenue Reformed church conducted the services, at which many men prominent in legal, manufacturing and commercial circles were present.

The honorary pallbearers were Charles M. Schwab, Sidney Mahon, president of the Weisbach Company; Henry D. MacDona, William Findlay Brown, a prominent Philadelphia lawyer; Judge W. J. Calhoun of Chicago, John W. Duntley, president of the Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company; Thomas W. Bakewell of Pittsburgh, United States Circuit Judge Alfred C. Coxe of Utica, George T. Oliver of Pittsburgh, Judge M. J. O'Brien, presiding justice of the appellate division; John G. Milburn, at whose home President McKinley died; F. N. Hoffstot, president of the Pressed Steel Car Company; Randall Morgan, vice president of the United Gas Improvement Company, Philadelphia; Herbert Lloyd, president of the Electric Storage Battery Company, Philadelphia; W. J. Chalmers of Chicago, Edward Wetmore and Thomas B. Kerr of this city; Judge E. H. Gary, president of the United States Steel Corporation; H. H. Bliss of Washington, Edwin S. Cramp, the Philadelphia shipbuilder, and Judge Joseph Buffington of the United States court, Pittsburgh.

The services, which were simple but impressive, began at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Bennett, widow of the dead lawyer, bore her grief bravely, although when her husband's body arrived at the Grand Central station she broke down completely. The floral offerings were beautiful in the extreme, the casket being almost hidden by them. Burial was in Greenwood cemetery.

The Peoples Savings Bank, Fourth avenue and Wood street, loans money on improved real estate in Allegheny county. No commission to pay. Reasonable charges for title examination and prompt service. Application blanks may be had at the bank.

J. H. JAHN LOSES MORE PROPERTY

Judge Shafer Decides That the Deeds Conveying Received by Him Were Forged.

UNION ANSWERS HENRY GRAF

John Henry Jahn, the former real estate dealer, who is still in jail on the six months' sentence given him by Judge Evans as punishment for several crimes of which he was convicted, has lost another case. Judge Shafer, in an opinion filed yesterday, ordered several deeds in which Jahn figured to be cancelled. Two suits are covered in the opinion, one being J. J. Miller against C. F. Minehart and others, and another, Eleanor C. Miller against J. Henry Jahn, and others. The deeds at issue purported to convey to the defendants property the plaintiffs claim.

Judge Shafer finds that the Millers deny signing the deeds to Minehart, and Minehart denied that he signed the deeds purporting to convey the property to Linnie Wolford, Jahn's stenographer. Judge Shafer says that if the signatures are not genuine they are very good imitations, but considering the circumstances the court is of the opinion that Jahn was quite capable of making such imitations. The court finds that the signatures of J. J. Miller and Eleanor C. Miller to the deeds to C. F. Minehart are forgeries, and the signature of C. F. Minehart to Linnie Wolford is a forgery. The plaintiffs are entitled to a decree declaring these deeds null and void, and as the deeds of Linnie Wolford to J. Henry Jahn and of J. Henry Jahn and wife to the latter were based on the first named deeds, they are also declared null and void. The costs are placed on the defendants, J. Henry Jahn and others.

Denies Treasurer Was Humiliated.

The German Beneficial Union has filed its return to the court of alternative mandamus granted on the petition of Henry Graf, who seeks to be reinstated into the union. The defendant denies that notice of the plaintiff's expulsion was widely circulated or that he was humiliated and disgraced. He was formerly supreme treasurer, and also secretary and treasurer of the national district. He was ordered, the answer sets forth, by the executive committee to surrender the books as secretary and treasurer of the national district to Louis Thum, supreme secretary, but he refused, it is said. It is alleged the plaintiff served notice on two banks not to pay any checks on the union's account unless countersigned by himself as treasurer. Legal proceedings were determined upon, it is said, but an agreement was reached whereby Graf was to be made organizer and all suits were to be dropped, and Graf is said to have agreed to use his influence for the good of the union. It is alleged he failed to perform the duties agreed upon, but resigned September 10, 1902, and demanded salary to September 15, 1902, whereas, it is said, he had performed no services after September 1, 1902. Without any attempt at adjudication within the union, it is alleged, he sued the union and secured judgment before an alderman for $62 50. From this decision the defendant appealed. The union admits the plaintiff was deprived of his fraternal privileges as a member of the union, but denies that his rights as a benefit certificate holder and his rights otherwise as a member are imperiled. On the other hand, it is alleged by the defendant that the plaintiff's rights as a certificate holder are more valuable with the plaintiff deprived of a voice in the management of the union's affairs than before such action was taken. The plaintiff's right to recover damages in this proceeding is denied, and he is also charged with laches.

What a Letter Will Do.

The master in the divorce suit of Sophia Simon against Philip F. Simon, for a decree from bed and board, has recommended the granting of the decree and giving the libellant $50 a month alimony. In his opinion the master says libellant has established her case, but the charges of immorality against the respondent are not sustained. The respondent was misled by a letter, the master finds, so that he became jealous and unreasonable and began a course of conduct such as would entitle the libellant to the decree sought, but the master is of the opinion that the letter was not intended for the libellant, and although the respondent must suffer for the consequences of his unreasonable acts, yet he is entitled to consideration by the court.

Mrs. Simon charged her husband with cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities to the person and testified that for a year past he simply kept a room in the house. To his alleged immoral conduct she attributed an illness of eight weeks. Simon appeared before the master by his attorney but did not sign his testimony, and the master says, practically allowed his case to go by default. Simon denied the allegations of his wife in his testimony.

J. M. Markowitz and Jacob Kramer, alleged officers of the Twelfth Ward Hebrew Political club, were tried and acquitted in Criminal court on a charge of selling liquor illegally, made by former Police Inspector Gray of the Second district. Several witnesses testified that they had purchased liquor at the club without being members. The jury was out a considerable length of time, and in returning the verdict placed the costs on the defendants.

Sloans Deny Any Liability.

Jacob and Sophia Sloan have filed an affidavit of defense to the suit brought against them by Heller, Perrin & Co., an action on an agreement. The Sloans deny any liability on their part. They say the plaintiffs violated the conditions of the agreement and are indebted to the defendants in the sum of $1,500.

Daniel Cooley was sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary for shooting John Sakara, a Hungarian, through the shoulder, at Duquesne a month ago.

Marion Marshall, charged with felonious assault in stabbing Edmond S. Kent, entered a plea of guilty to unlawful wounding. He will be sentenced Saturday.

Other cases disposed of were: Tony Amets, pointing firearms, fined $25 and costs; Clarence Woolheater, larceny, three months to the workhouse.

A preliminary injunction was granted the Versailles Fuel Gas Company against Abraham Lynch, restraining him from interfering with the removal of the plaintiff's pipes from the defendant's property.

The H. K. Porter Company has filed an answer to the suit of Gertrude M. Tesson and others. It denies that its machinery causes vibration of the ground, shaking plaintiff's property as they allege. The defendant says its machinery is the most improved, and makes less noise than any other works of its kind in this vicinity. It is denied that the business or the manner of its conducting is a nuisance, and it is alleged that much of the value of plaintiff's property is due to its close proximity to the defendant's works.

Paid Money, Then Retaliated.

Casper Gallion had a capias issued for the arrest of John Gallion. He asks $5,000 damages from the defendant. He says he cannot speak English and that the defendant sued him on a charge of obtaining $15 under false pretenses. At the hearing before an alderman the plaintiff says the defendant told him he had to pay $5 and costs or go to jail. The plaintiff says he paid the money and was discharged.

Judge Acheson of the United States circuit court heard testimony and argument in the case of Jonathan Clark & Sons Company against the city of Pittsburgh. The case grew out of the construction of the new Highland reservoir. The plaintiffs' claim is for $100,000. The case is being heard without a jury and will take up all of today.

The testimony in the divorce suit of Elsie H. Henwood against Pressley Henwood was filed. Mrs. Henwood charges her husband of ill-treating her and threatening her life. She testified that they were married in 1894 and moved 18 times to avoid paying house rent.

The Montour Valley Social and Beneficial association, with headquarters at Imperial, applied for a charter. Attorney H. M. Irons is the solicitor.

Michael Frederick has been sued for $2,000 damages by George Tall for alleged assault.

Suit for $1,000 damages has been entered by Charles V. Krugh against the Pittsburgh, Chartiers & Youghiogheny railroad. The suit is over land on Neville island taken by the railroad company.

Harry Graccy Is Indicted.

The grand jury returned true bills on eight indictments against Harry Gracey, the negro and alleged burglar who was arrested on the South Side two weeks ago. All the indictments are for entering a building, the prosecutors being Joseph Cohen, Mrs. John Geoffrey, George E. Hawes, Allen Marthens, Ethel E. Finley, G. A. Retch, Charles E. Miller and C. A. Tyler.

Other true bills were: Burglary, Anthony Hughes et al.; forgery, Willis F. Adams; larceny, Howard Caldwell, Hannah Jackson, P. R. Reliquot; aggravated assault and battery, Paul Mernick; assault and battery, John Furguson, Mike Kelly, John Doe et al.; selling liquor illegally, Jessie Palmer, John Mezako; misdemeanor, John O'Brien, Harry Ramsey, Jacob Salkoskey, Henry Hemberry, Helen Lenkis, Beh Lees et al., John Mitka.

Catherine Mulroy sued Ann Cahill for $5,000 damages, alleging the defendant made slanderous remarks about her.

Executions issued: National Cash Register Company vs. H. K. Snyder, $112 75; National Cash Register Company vs. T. A. Graham, $46; Hawley & Wharton, use, vs. Clark Coal and Coke Company, $90 52; R. M. Baisness vs. Mrs. Hattie Finley et al., $105; Joseph Ferry vs. I. McClure et al., $58 95.

Bertha Winkler began habeas corpus proceedings for the possession of her infant son, Wilhelm. She says the child's father deserted her, taking the child with him, and she says he refuses to return it to her. The court issued a writ, returnable June 28.

O'KEEFE A TRAVELER.

In Divorce Court Wife Testified Husband Left Her 13 Times in Six Years.

Judge Young took a turn at hearing the troubles of married couples yesterday when the divorce trial list was taken up before him in common pleas court No. 2. Desertion was the chief complaint. The last case heard was that of Catherine O'Keefe against John O'Keefe. They were married in 1896 and she says he deserted her finally in November, 1902. In the interval between these two dates Mrs. O'Keefe alleges he left her 13 times. Mrs. O'Keefe, who was dressed in deep mourning for her mother who died two weeks ago, told her story in a very low tone. From the time of the marriage they were continually moving, about six weeks being the limit in one place. When rent and grocery bills were about a month overdue O'Keefe, she said, would leave her. This was kept up until November, 1902, when they lived in Seventeenth street. O'Keefe brought a red-headed girl home with him and told his wife to clean the house and fix up for the stranger's entertainment. She refused to do this and he left. She went to her father's house and after his death worked to support herself. O'Keefe had told her he had married her for her money and that she was not the kind of a woman he wanted. Her father left her some money. The couple had two children.

A charge of infidelity was made by Joseph A. Steel against his wife, Grace Steel. One story he told was that he saw a man go to his house after he left to go to work in the morning. When he accused his wife of this she told him if he did not like it he could leave. He also testified that his wife visited houses of ill-repute.

Florence E. Blackwell brought a charge of desertion against William St. Clair Blackwell. They lived at Wilkinsburg, she said, and he deserted her owing a month's rent and leaving her without clothes or money.

Desertion was the grounds of the suit of Frederick Schade against Elizabeth Schade. He said she left him without cause eight months after their marriage. Harriett E. Harbison had a like charge against her husband, Albert L. Harbison. They had lived in many places and finally he left her in Bellevue to look for work. He never came back.

Clara Stockwell testified to desertion against her husband, Dr. Benjamin C. Stockwell, now living in St. Louis. Mrs. Stockwell was a widow with one son when she married Stockwell in Milwaukee and the stepson had been the cause of some of the troubles. She said her husband did not treat her well.

Margaret Ryan accused her husband, William J. Ryan, with repeated desertion. They were married in 1896 and lived with her mother. Five weeks later Ryan left. He returned in two years and she took him back. In six weeks he was gone again, after borrowing some money from her. They have one child.

SHUFF IS HEARD.

Cincinnati Owner of Grant Boulevard Property Testifies in Railway Case Before Commissioner.

Four witnesses were heard yesterday in the United States circuit court in the suit to dispossess the Grant and Liberty Street Railway Company of the Grant boulevard. The witnesses examined were F. A. Anderson, W. H. Kneling, W. W. Nixon and John L. Shuff of Cincinnati. Shuff was called by the defendants and will finish his cross-examination today.

Among those who were anxious to see Mr. Shuff was James W. Shuff of 537 Jackson street, Allegheny. The Allegheny man has a number of relatives named Shuff living in Ohio and he wanted to find if the Cincinnati man was one of them.

The Allegheny Shuff said yesterday that he has had a rather funny experience since the Grant boulevard deal started. Real estate firms had been pestering him to buy a Craig street property that he had never owned, but since the plaintiffs had made public the name of the Cincinnati owner of the Craig street property the real estate people who wanted it have stopped bothering him.

Loafing Juror Is Relieved.

Judge Kennedy in criminal court yesterday reprimanded and discharged a juror charged with retarding the work of the court in refusing to agree with other jurymen who sat with him in petty cases. The alleged derelict juror was Timothy O'Brien, who had been serving on the panel called a week ago. O'Brien was charged with loafing in the jury room. When called before the court Judge Kennedy, with a few curt remarks, told the clerk to make out an order for his pay for the last week and excused him from further service.

SOCIETY

UNUSUAL interest centers around the wedding of Miss Martha Page Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. James Laughlin, Jr.'s oldest daughter, and Edgar V. Seeler of Philadelphia, which is set for Thursday evening of this week. The wedding is to be a quiet home event, taking place at the residence of the bride's parents, Lincoln and Allegheny avenues, at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Sylvester Scovel of Wooster, O., former pastor of the First Presbyterian church, as officiant. The ceremony will be followed by a reception with a larger guest list. Miss Laughlin will have but one attendant, her sister, Miss Leila Irwin Laughlin. The bridal procession will include Mr. Seeler's best man, J. Randolph Coolidge of Boston, and the ushers, Harrison Seeler of Philadelphia, a brother of the bridegroom; H. Hughart Laughlin and James Laughlin, III., brothers of the bride-elect, and Rutherford Shepard of Plainfield, N. J. At the conclusion of their wedding trip Mr. Seeler and his bride will occupy apartments in the Haverford, Philadelphia. There will be a number of out-of-town people in attendance at the wedding, among them being George W. Seeler, father of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Seeler of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. J. Randolph Coolidge of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Fulton of Easton, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. James Frederick of Cumberland, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. T. Hughart of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. Frew's Luncheon.

As a farewell for Miss Helen Clay Frick, who, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Frick, and her brother, Childs Frick, will sail for Europe on July 11, Mrs. William Nimick Frew gave a beautifully appointed luncheon at the Gol. club yesterday afternoon. The guests included a number of the school girls of this year, as well as several who will enter the ranks of the debutantes next season. Thirty guests were seated at one large table and six at a smaller one, at both of which the decorations were in pink and white sweet peas and white phlox. The peas, tied with ribbon of delicate shades, formed corsage bouquets as favors and the dainty water colored place cards also carried out the sweet pea idea. In addition to Miss Frick, covers were laid for Miss Margarita Frew, Miss Virginia Frew, daughters of the hostess; Miss Marjorie Rea, Miss Lucile Mellon and her guest, Miss Beatrice Barclay; Miss Margaret Barr, Miss Jean Oliver, Miss Rachael Tatnell and Miss Bessie Kerbaugh, both of whom are visiting Mrs. Henry C. Beggs; Miss Katherine Jennings, Miss Mary Jennings, Miss Evelyn Black, Miss Paline Dilworth, Miss Mary Flinn, Miss Florence Harper, Miss Electa Harper, Miss Marion McKibben, Miss Bessie Hamilton, Miss Caroline Hays, Miss Helen Ayers, Miss Euphemia Bakewell, Miss Sarah McClelland, Miss Rachael McClelland, Miss Gwendolin Burgwin, Miss Elsie McClintock, Miss Jeannette McClintock, Miss Rachael McClintock, Miss Nancy Marshall, Miss Mary Rodd, Miss Harriet Balken, Miss Elizabeth Heron, Miss Frances Huselton, Miss Hester Singer, Mrs. Henry Clay Frick and the hostess.

Housewarming in Oakmont.

The first and second in her series of entertainments were given by Mrs. Cameron C. Smith of Oakmont yesterday afternoon and last evening. During the afternoon six tables, at which six-hand euchre was played, were scattered through the parlor and dining room, while in the cozy den were seated the guests who chose fancy work. The euchre prizes were won by Mrs. W. D. Hill, Mrs. Clarence Henderson and Mrs. Frank Cooper and those for fancy work by Mrs. George P. Loomis and Miss Mary Crosier. The hostess was assisted by Miss Blanche Forsaith of Aspinwall. Miss Alice Diehl and Miss Lizette Diehl of the East End; Miss Mabel Smith of Sharpsburg and Miss Bertha Woods of Tarentum. Miss Helen Crookston, who is home from St. Xavier's accdemy for the summer, gave a delightful musical program during the afternoon. Eleven tables were called into play in the evening when Mr. Smith received with his wife. Mrs. Smith will give the third and last in her series this afternoon. All three affairs are in the nature of housewarmings for the beautiful new home near the Oakmont Boat club.

Stadtfeld-Rosenhein.

Instead of the large bridal party at first chosen to attend Miss Rosa Stadtfeld and Otto Rosenhein at their wedding last evening the attendants included only the ushers, A. Stadtfeld, a brother of the bride, and Albert Samter of Detroit. Rabbi Michael Fried performed the ceremony at 6 o'clock in the Concordia club, the guests including only the immediate relatives. Among those from out of town were A. Rosenhein, father of the bridegroom, and Lewis Rosenhein, both of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Elnore of Cincinnati. The bride was gowned in white radium silk and duchesse lace and wore a veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Pink and white roses were used to decorate the reception hall of the clubhouse, where the ceremony was performed, and the parlor where the bridal couple received. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenhein will take a wedding trip of six weeks' duration. No plans have been made as to where they will be at home. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Sophie Stadtfeld of Marion street, this city.

Gives Informal Reception.

At "Hill Top," her home near Wilkinsburg, Mrs. George W. Black entertained in an informal but delightful manner last evening. There was no special guest of honor and owing to a recent death in the family connection the affair was very quiet. Mrs. Black entertained for a house party of young people, the guests including Miss Jessie Harbison of Sewickley, Miss Olive Snively and Miss Elizabeth Sanderson of the East End and Miss Johnston of Wilkinsburg. Mrs. Sidney Chalfant and Mrs. Henry R. Chalfant, Jr., both of whom are nieces of the hostess and recent brides, assisted.

Berryhill-Clayton.

There were no attendants at the wedding of Miss Jessie May Berryhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Berryhill of Terrace avenue, Allegheny, and Martin N. Clayton, which was a home event of last evening. The Rev. Thomas Clayton of Maple avenue, Allegheny, father of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the presence of the immediate relatives only. The couple will spend the spring on their honeymoon tour, at the conclusion of which they will be at home in Avalon.

Lanahan-Phelan Wedding Date.

Miss Florence B. Lanahan, Mrs. James K. Lanahan's daughter, has chosen Monday, July 10, as the date for her wedding to William D. Phelan. It is to be a quiet morning event in the Roman Catholic church of the Sacred Heart. Miss Edith Keating of Baywood street, East End, gave a luncheon at the Oakmont Boat club yesterday afternoon in Miss Lanahan's honor. The other guests were a dozen girl friends of the hostess and the bride-elect.

At Home Cards Issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren Merchant have issued cards announcing days at home, after September 1, in the Bellefonte apartments, Bellefonte and Elmer streets, East End. The cards have been issued with announcements of the marriage of the young couple, which took place on June 12, the bride being Miss Emily Evelyn Chaffey, a daughter of Mrs. William B. Chaffey of Sewickley.

Home from Wedding Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. James Melvin Brown have returned from their wedding trip and are now at home with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Morgan, in Hamilton avenue, Homewood. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will remain with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan until the completion of their new home in Kelley street, Homewood, of which they expect to take possession in a few weeks.

Notes of Society.

Miss Estella G. Schoenfeld of Washington street, Allegheny, is home from an eastern tour.

Mrs. Frank B. Smith of Grove avenue, Sewickley, will give a tea at her home this afternoon in honor of Mrs. James R. Tindle.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Meigs of Corey street, North Braddock, yesterday celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary. They entertained friends at dinner.

Misses Nanette and Hayselle Huston of Quaker Valley gave a gypsy supper at their home last evening. The guests were young girls and an enjoyable time was spent.

The first of a series of outings being given by the H. A. McKee chapter, No. 24, Order of the Eastern Star, will take place on Thursday afternoon in Homestead park.

A subscription dance for the younger men and girls will be given at the Edgeworth clubhouse Thursday evening. Miss Hester Singer, Miss Bessie Hamilton and Miss Ruth Walker are at the head of the affair.

Miss Mary F. Eaton, a former principal of the First ward school, who was here as special guest of honor at the recent reunion of the school, returned yesterday to her home in Warsaw, Ill. During her visit in this part of the country Miss Eaton was a house guest of Mrs. C. F. Hardonner of Stewart street, Allegheny.

SHOWS FOR YOUNG FOLKS ARE MANY AT LUNA PARK

Boy Band and an Open-Air Circus Make Things Merry for Little People.

This is youngster's week at Luna park. The Hungarian Boys' band and the Angelos troupe of boy acrobats are the star features in the plaza surrounding the lagoon, and, with Herbert's trained dogs, an ideal free show for youngsters is offered. The Elton Polo trio of aerialists give startling acts on the high places, and altogether a good performance is offered.

Notwithstanding the cool weather last night every building and every seat before the grandstand was filled. Women wore heavy wraps and men donned top coats, and it looked like an autumn crowd. A disagreeable climate, however, will not frighten people away from Pittsburgh's Luna park. The Hungarian Boys' band made a decided hit in its program of national and popular airs. The young musicians play with a dash and swing that goes well with outdoor music. The acoustics of the band pavilion are such that the music can be heard all over the park.

The chutes were not so well patronized last night. It was cool enough without experiencing the breeze in a ride down the inclined plane and a skim over the lagoon. The crowd went home rather early, but not until everybody in the park had taken in his share of the attractions. Yesterday morning the pupils of the Sixteenth ward public schools held their jubilee in the park and enjoyed a day of royal sport.

Is Held Under Heavy Bail.

W. J. Robinson, alias Anderson, alias Wilcox, was held for court yesterday by Magistrate Mooke to answer to two charges of false pretense, the bail being fixed at $1,000 in each case. Robinson was a former justice of the peace at Springdale and later was in the real estate business at the same place. He was brought back from Ligonier by Detectives Crooks and Riley, and it is said he has been wanted here for two years on charges of passing worthless checks.

AMONG THE CLUBS

Lawn Party at Sewickley.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the lawn party and bazaar to be given Thursday afternoon and evening by the women of St. James' Roman Catholic church of Sewickley, on the parish grounds adjoining the church. Father F. F. O'Shea will act as host, assisted by the parish committee, composed of Arthur Glamser, John Marron, H. S. Becker, Joseph Henler, James R. Kerr and T. A. Gilroy. Other committees are: Supper tables, Mrs. H. S. Becker, Mrs. W. Egler, Mrs. H. Sala, Mrs. William Schlumpf, Mrs. T. A. Gilroy, Mrs. William Stevenson. Mrs. L. Egler and Miss Ella Burke; fancy table, Mrs. C. F. Becker, Misses Mary Keenan, Julia Gannon, Mary Henler, Nettie Kropley, Bessie Sands, Anna Coyne and Kate Gilroy; lemonade stand, Mrs. J. Hoolahan, Mrs. Mary Brown, Jane Rodgers, Katie Lynch, Margaret Hegnor, Rose Zwickert and Lena Lang; ice cream, Misses Theresa Madden, Rose Byrnes, Mary Walsh, Julia Hollahan and Della O'Brien; gypsy camp, Misses Sophia Kanne, Stella Venn and Vera McConnell; music and entertainment, Leo Egler, Bernard Brown, Max Feltwell and Frank Kropley; committee on lighting, Bernard Brown, Thatan Feltwell, John Dolan and Anthony Egler; parking, A. Gilroy, Edward Zwickert, Jr., Frank Kropley, Anthony Hegnar and Frank Hegnar; ticket contests, etc., C. F. Becker, J. C. Langan, Edward Zwickert, James Lamb, Daniel Lynch and William Stevenson; grounds and tables, George Becker, John Lamb, John Besterman and Harvey Sala.

Little Girls Are Ambitious.

A group of little girls of North Braddock, without the knowledge of their mothers, made arrangements last week for a lawn fete to provide funds for the furnishment of a room in the Braddock General hospital. The mothers did not discover their plans until Saturday, and then they decided to lend a hand instead of frustrating the ambitious little folk. The affair will be held this afternoon and evening on the lawn at the home of David F. Melville, Bell and Jones avenues. The children have secured many donations in the way of fancy work, candy, cakes and the like. The girls in charge are Ruth Melville, Margaret Scott, Helen Maggini, Rebecca Collingwood, Florence Rosenbloom, Elizabeth, Dorothy and Myra Williams, none of them over 12 years of age.

Relief Club Will Meet.

The members of the Relief club will go to Idlewood on Thursday to put the old Idlewood hotel in readiness for the first party of children which will be taken to the country on Saturday, July 15, when the second party will be ready to go down for a two weeks' outing. The hotel is in good condition and needed no alterations this season. It is located about a mile from the depot on the hill beyond St. Paul's Orphan asylum. The Relief club is composed of a number of young women in Sacred Heart church parish, but the children who will be taken to the country for two weeks during the summer will be chosen irrespective of creed or nationality.

Graduate from Wellesley.

The Pittsburgh Wellesley club is represented in the graduating class of Wellesley college today by seven young women of this city, some of them former graduates of the Pennsylvania College for Women, and others going to college direct from the Pittsburgh High school. The graduates are Miss Mary Gillespie, Miss Olive Nevin, Miss Rachel Pflaum, Miss Marie Minahan, Miss Elma McGregor, Miss Katherine McCague and Miss Olive Clarke. Among the Pittsburghers who went on for the commencement exercises, which takes place today, and for the attendant festivities of commencement week are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas K. Gillespie, Mrs. John I. Nevin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. McCague, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Milliken, Mr. and Mrs. Magnus Pflaum and Mr. and Mrs. Clause of Sewickley.

Art Students in Holland.

Mrs. Harry P. Pears and Miss Minnie Sellers have sailed for Europe. Both are members of the Art Students league and anticipate spending the entire season in sketching and painting in Holland. They will pursue their studies under the direction of Henry Keller of Cleveland, who for several seasons has been the critic of the Art Students league.

Mr. Grimes to Make an Address.

William D. Grimes, assistant district attorney, will address the probation officers of the juvenile court in the bar association room at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Members of the juvenile court committee and all others interested in the juvenile court work are invited to hear Mr. Grimes.

JUNE RECORDS ARE BROKEN.

Run of Coal This Month Exceeds That of All Previous Years.

Although the rise was long in coming, the June freshet this year enabled them to break all records in the handling and shipping of coal. More than 15,000,000 bushels of coal were started south on the rise, and practically all of it has been handled, so far, without loss. The Tornado got out yesterday with 17 barges. The Little Fred, volunteer and L. N. Bunton went out Sunday night with 16 boats and 12 barges. The Alice Brown will take the tow at Beliaire and the smaller boats will bring up her tow of empties.

The Keystone State, from Cincinnati; the Ben Hur, from Parkersburg, and the Kanawha, from Charleston, arrived yesterday. The Keystone carried 850 cases of eggs, the Kanawha 1,800 and the Ben Hur 1,000. The boats also brought up a lot of livestock and a great number of passengers. The Columbia was the Morgantown boat yesterday.

The Kiehl line is enjoying a busy week. The Beauty and Island Queen both made trips yesterday, the Beauty carrying the Frankstown dancing club and the Island Queen the North Braddock fire department. Today the Island Queen will take the state entertainment committee of the American Mechanics. The Liberty has been chartered by the Crescent laundry employes. The Beauty will carry the congregation of St. Francis' church, Homestead.

The Vulcan, which upset in the Monongahela at California last week, has been righted and will go to the docks this week.

Capt. Arthur Moren of the River Coal Company is in Cincinnati. W. H. Crump, master of transportation for the same company, left last night for southern points on business.

Capt. G. W. Thomas of the Jutte company is back from New Orleans.

The Walton is the latest addition to the motor boat fleet on the local rivers. She was launched yesterday at the Allegheny wharf, foot of Anderson street. She is 25 feet long, of the latest design, her hull being of the torpedo model, with noiseless under-water exhaust. Her motive power consists of a two-cylinder, six-horse-power gasoline engine and her speed is 10 miles per hour. She is the property of W. L. Walton and G. E. Sutter.

TO CO-ORDINATE SCHOOLS.

Director Hamerschlag of Carnegie "Tech" Will Meet Representatives of Public Instruction.

To make the work of the Carnegie Technical schools harmonize with that in the public schools of this district is the purpose of a conference which Director Arthur A. Hamerschlag has called for tomorrow afternoon at his offices in the Germania National bank building.

Those invited to the conference include the three superintendents of public instruction in Allegheny county, Pittsburgh and Allegheny; the principals of schools and the directors of the high schools.

The session will take up entrance requirements at the "Tech," and an effort will be made to co-ordinate these entrance requirements with the work of the public school system. It is believed that in this way the "Tech" can be made more effective by far than by its going ahead without regard to the conditions in the two cities and the county.

Accepts Call to Braddock Church.

Expressing regret at doing so, the official board of the First Baptist church of McKeesport yesterday advised the congregation to accept the resignation of the Rev. T. J. Davis, who has been pastor for eight years. Mr. Davis has accepted a call to the First church of Braddock, and will take charge the first Sunday in September. He will leave this week to attend the Baptist congress in London, England, his expenses being paid by the McKeesport congregation.

AN ORDINANCE—Authorizing and ordering the regrading and repaving of Allegheny avenue, Sixth ward, from a point sixty (60) feet southeast of Juniata street to Railroad bridge, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof.

Section 1.—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the regrading and repaving of Allegheny avenue, Sixth ward, from a point sixty (60) feet southeast of Juniata street to Railroad bridge is hereby authorized and ordered, and the director of the department of public works is hereby instructed to prepare specifications therefor, and the mayor and the said director are authorized to advertise for proposals for doing said work in accordance with such specifications, and award the contract therefor according to the provisions of the acts of assembly in such cases made and provided.

Sec. 2.—When said regrading and repaving is completed, the cost and expense thereof shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of "Street Improvement Bonds."

Sec. 3.—That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted into a law in councils this 15th day of June, A. D. 1905.

JOHN C. OLIVER,
President of Select Council, Pro Tem.

Attest:
LAFAYETTE WILLS, City Clerk.
SAMUEL McELROY,
President of Common Council.
ROBERT DILWORTH, City Clerk.

Mayor's office, City of Allegheny, Pa., June 15, A. D. 1905. The above ordinance examined and approved.

JAMES G. WYMAN,
Mayor.

MAY GRANT REQUEST.

The Rev. Dr. T. B. Thomas Asks to Be Taken Home.

The condition of the Rev. Dr. Thomas B. Thomas, pastor of the Oakland Welsh Presbyterian church, who is lying in a critical condition in Passavant hospital, was reported last night as being somewhat improved, and his urgent desire to be taken home may be granted tomorrow.

Dr. Thomas was removed from his home in Oakland square to the hospital last Thursday, where it was expected he would be operated on for abdominal cancer. He became so weak that an operation became impossible and it was said at the hospital last night that his chances for recovery are very slight.

A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM, OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth Patches, Rash and Skin diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and defies detection. It has stood the test of 57 years, and is so harmless we taste it to be sure it is properly made. Accept no counterfeit of similar name. Dr. L. A. Sayre said to a lady of the haut-ton (a patient): "As you ladies will use them, I recommend 'Gouraud's Cream' as the least harmful of all the skin preparations." A GRAND SPECIAL SALE
HIGH-CLASS LIGHT
HARNESS HORSES,
JUNE 28 AND 29,
Watterson & Fitzsimmons.
A Few Special Ones.

Thermometer, record 2:09¾; trial 2:20½, bay mare, by Baron Wilkes; city broke; a grand mare and trotter.

Jessie Winifred, record 2:15½; by Bermuda Boy. This mare can trot ¼ in 32 seconds and think she can brush a 2-minute gait.

Vernon J., trial 2:20¼, over half-mile track; by Penryn. He trotted last season, 5 weeks' work, a mile in 2:20½. We think he can show as much speed as any horse shown at this sale.

Wilkes Girl, trial 2:20, by Wilkes Boy, dam by Happy Medium. This mare is a full sister to Mary Agatt, who showed miles in 2:14, and think this one just as fast.

A RACE HORSE.

A STOCK HORSE.

Two years old, sired by Director Rod, record 2:20¼; he by Director, out of Red Wilkes mare. This colt's dam is Marian, a mare A. B. Moore refused $10,000 for; she could trot in 2:15; she was bred like Axtel, 2:12, by Wm. L., dam by Mambrino Boy. Here is a great colt and a sure trotter and stock horse.

Chinta, trial 2:25, by Uncle Josh, 3-year record, 2:20¾; dam Fabric, the dam of Dress Goods, record 2:15. This mare is standard and registered, and a trotter.

Sunshine, a show gelding 15-1 hands, a beautiful dark chestnut; high actor and one of the most desirable ones for a lady to drive you will find in a thousand; his style, manners and conformation cannot be improved on.

Coach pair, 15-3 hands, beautiful bays, absolutely fearless of city objects; have been used by private gentleman and he is leaving the city with his family and are sold for no fault, only he has no use for them.

STOCKS RULED STRONG DESPITE GOLD EXPORTS

Engagements for Paris Reached $3,300,000—U. S. Steel the Strongest of the Industrials. Sharp Rally in Coal Preferred.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The New York stock market yesterday ruled active and firm, despite lower London quotations, sales of American securities for London account, and the rather unexpected engagement of $3,300,000 gold for export. Closing prices almost without exception showed net gains for the day, some of them of a very substantial character.

The first announcement of the gold movement came between noon and 1 o'clock, when prices had reached their highest level, and the amount engaged was $1,000,000. Later other exporters appeared, and the total was raised to $3,500,000, all of which will be shipped to Paris on Thursday. The explanation for the movement is that Paris has been selling international securities in London, presumably because of the unsettled state of affairs over the Moroccan question. To offset these sales London has been selling American securities in New York, and the latter market is called upon to ship gold to Paris. The movement of the precious metal during the 11 months of the current fiscal year has been very irregular. Within that period we have imported $51,492,000 and exported $88,565,000, the balance against the United States being a little more than $37,000,000. In a little more than two months from now the current may be in the other direction, as it usually is in the autumn, when we are exporting cotton and breadstuffs. If this present movement had occurred two weeks ago, when New York bank reserves were down to less than $8,000,000, and the stock market was almost at a dead center awaiting for something to give it a start, there is little doubt that the start would have been downward. Last Saturday's bank statement, however, showing the large increase in cash, mainly gold, and the low rates for call loans, which were not disturbed yesterday, closing at 2 per cent, has robbed the gold movement of its usual effect, for the present at least.

The United States Steel issues were active and strong, and did much to sustain the firm tone of the market. The common closed 1⅝ and the preferred 1⅝ per cent higher than on Saturday. The minor iron and steel issues closed fractionally higher. American Smelting was notably strong, advancing to and closing at 135¾, a net gain of 2¼ per cent. Amalgamated Copper closed ⅞ per cent higher.

Reading was an active feature of the railroad list and advanced to 99⅝, which is within ¼ of the record price established last March. There were confident predictions that the stock would reach par during the day and ultimately much higher prices, based upon covering of shorts, but the gold movement apparently checked the buying. Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio were also strong and closed higher than on Saturday.

Union Pacific was the leader in the advance, and on large transactions rose to 128¾, closing with a net gain of 2¼ per cent. Illinois Central closed 2 per cent higher. Although cold water was thrown upon predictions of a dividend on Southern Pacific this week, that stock ruled strong and closed 1 per cent higher than on Saturday. St. Paul closed 1¼ per cent higher and Atchison ½ per cent. The southern and southwestern group closed fractionally higher.

The commodity markets were active and higher, although some irregularity developed toward the end of the day. Wheat lost all its early gain, but corn and cotton closed higher.

A strong rally in Pittsburgh Coal preferred was the feature of a dull local market. The stock opened unchanged at 63, but under the leadership of New York advanced to 66¾, with the final sale at 65¾, the net gain being 2 per cent. Sales approximated 1,500 shares and it was the opinion on the board that the bulk of the buying was for the purpose of covering shorts. The common stock did not share in the strength of the preferred, declining to 14 and closing at 14⅜, a loss of ¼. There were no transactions in River Coal preferred, which was nominally quoted at 20 bid. The only other active stock in the market was U. S. Steel, which closed 1⅝ higher for the common and 2⅛ higher for the preferred. Transactions in Crucible were confined to nine shares of the preferred. Brewing securities were steady to firm. There were no transactions in any of the Westinghouse stocks and prices were nominally unchanged.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

On its face the strength of the New York market seems illogical when foreign markets are depressed, as they were during the latter part of last week and again yesterday, when foreigners are selling, and when gold exports are resumed. There may be something underlying the surface, however, which will appear later and explain the apparent anomaly. The gold engaged in New York yesterday is for shipment to Paris. The French bankers have been selling English consols and other international securities in the London market, and instead of London sending gold to Paris in payment therefor, London sells American securities and calls upon New York to send gold to Paris. Now if the French bankers are preparing to finance the indemnity which Russia will pay to Japan, it would explain the movements in the world's three chief markets during the past few days, and which have been ascribed in part to apprehension over the situation between Germany and France in connection with Moroccan affairs. If there were really any serious danger of a conflict between Germany and France, the international bankers in New York would know about it, and the New York market, instead of advancing, would go the other way. The markets of the world have been looking forward for several months to a declaration of peace, and have been trying to discount its effect. They have certainly not been discounting the possibility of a conflict between two such great military nations as Germany and France.

There is no doubt that the confidence felt in the continued great ease of the money market has had an important influence in prompting the present speculative movement. Hopes of increased dividend disbursements were also made a prominent feature of the day's operations. With the Reading dividend increase as a precedent it was argued that the policy thus indicated would probably be pursued in the case of Baltimore & Ohio and Norfolk & Western, and Union Pacific was also made a feature of its extra 1 per cent dividend increase. One argument used to enforce the probability of the dividend increases was that they were indicated by the high level at which these stocks were already selling.

The market for Pittsburgh Coal acted yesterday as if there is a large short interest in the preferred stock. There also appeared to be less uncertainty regarding the pending dividend; in fact there were confident predictions that the full rate would be declared next month, although there was no additional news thereon of a reliable character. There were no transactions in River Coal preferred, and the stock was quoted at 20 bid, which was regarded as purely nominal. The recent decline of this stock has removed any hope that might have been entertained of a dividend next month.

Directors of the Philadelphia Company have declared the usual quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on the common stock, payable August 1 to stock of record July 1. There were no quotations on the stock yesterday. All the gas stocks were extremely dull, the only sales being 30 shares Manufacturers Light and Heat at 35¾, 10 shares Ohio Fuel Supply at 40, and 20 shares Consolidated Gas preferred at 35.

The local market yesterday was narrower than for a long time. There were transactions in only 14 issues. There were no sales of Crucible Steel common, only nine shares of the preferred, and nothing in any of the Westinghouse issues. Bonds were entirely neglected, and there were no dealings in bank and trust company shares.

National Carbon Company directors have declared a regular semi-annual dividend of 1¾ per cent on the common stock, payable July 15 to stock of record July 5.

The gross earnings of Louisville & Nashville for the third week in June increased $17,850.

Gross earnings of Chicago Great Western for the third week in June increased $9,048.

The Wisconsin Central railroad reports for May a surplus, after fixed charges, taxes, etc., of $77,705, an increase of $25,757. For eleven months ending May 31 a surplus, after fixed charges, taxes, etc., of $487,902, an increase of $154,380.

A Philadelphia Bell telephone interest says, with reference to the $2,000,000 increase in stock, the proceeds of which are to be used for construction, that the company has been making extensive improvements and extensions in the Delaware and Atlantic territory, and has built two exchanges in the past year. The extension of the service in the city has been rapid, 15,000 new 'phones having been installed by the company in and outside the city since January 1, 1905. This is the largest increase ever made by the company in the same length of time.

Commencing July 1 the Boston Consolidated Gas Company will reduce the price of gas delivered to the city of Boston to 79.30 per thousand cubic feet, and on January 1, 1906, the price will be still further reduced to 74.50c a thousand cubic feet. These prices are a reduction from the average price, 84.30c now charged by all the gas companies for gas supplied to city public buildings.

Judge Fowler has delivered an opinion in the court of appeals at Baltimore affirming the decision in the circuit court in the case of Alexander Brown et al. against the Maryland Telephone and Telegraph Company of Baltimore. By the decision the telephone company is granted the power to furnish electric light to the city of Baltimore under such regulations as the mayor and city council may prescribe. The single question presented by the appeal was whether or not the Maryland Telephone Company has the power under its charter to do an electric lighting business in Baltimore.

Frank A. Vanderlip, vice president of the National City bank, says: "I have no doubt that the present price level has been in a measure the result of the increase in gold stocks, and that further increase in gold reserves will have a tendency further to advance prices. That tendency, however, it must not be forgotten, may be interfered with and may be entirely counteracted, or more than counteracted by other influences, that it by no means follows that prices are to continue to rise merely because a golden flood seems likely to continue to come from the mines."

At a special meeting of National Lead stockholders the capital stock was increased $20,000,000 in accordance with the recommendation of the board of directors. Of this amount $10,000,000 is preferred and $10,000,000 common. This makes the total capital stock $50,000,000, half preferred and half common. The object of the increase is to purchase certain outside properties to carry out the proposed Lead merger, which is expected to include the United Lead Company.

BELLEVUE TRACT COSTS $150,000

William Roseburg Frontage Is Sold and Will Be Plotted into Lots Soon.

BIG WATER STREET SALE

The William Roseburg property, probably the most valuable tract of acreage on the North Side, has been sold for about $150,000, or $11,500 an acre. Although the deal was made nearly a month ago, it has been kept a secret until yesterday, the transaction being credited to the Real Estate Trust Company. This sale and the sale of the Walker property in the Brighton road district Saturday by George T. McDonald for $75,000 are the real deals made this year for high-priced suburban properties, except the purchase of the Sherman property at Swissvale by Berland & Waddell, and show whether or not the Greater Pittsburg agitation reaches a favorable conclusion this year investors are looking to the North Side for choice frontage that can be sold at top-notch figures. The Roseburg tract includes about 13 acres and is located on the north side of Lincoln avenue, between Thomas and Ellsworth avenues, Bellevue, and opposite Division street, Euclid and Fremont avenues. It has a frontage of over 800 feet, with a depth of 900 feet on one side and 1,500 feet on the other, and a width in the rear of 500 feet next to the Ross township line. Near the front of the lot is the old Roseburg homestead, a large brick house now used as a boarding house. The buyer of the property is a prominent realty investor, who has made a specialty of residence property, and has already had the surveys made for plotting this land in lots 50 feet wide or larger. In this locality such sites will command a high price, for there is no suburb around Pittsburgh where values have advanced more rapidly than in Bellevue this year, and it is said that no time will be lost in getting the property on the market.

$100,000 Buy in Water Street.

Water street values are getting jolted frequently these days, and the sale of 229 for $100,000, or $8,333 a front foot, which was reported yesterday, puts all records behind. The property is known as the old Painters' office building, and belonged to T. Painter & Son. The buyer is said to be a prominent downtown merchant. The lot is 30x160 feet, situated between Wood and Market streets, and extends through to First avenue. A three-story brick building, now vacant, stands on the Water street end, and an old structure of little value faces on First avenue. On a square foot basis the property costs only $20.82, which, considering the fact that lots of this size and having a good frontage on two leading streets are very scarce in Pittsburgh, is not unreasonable. The former Boggs & Buhl lot at 240-242 Water street, 20x60 feet, was sold last week for $28.33 a square foot, and two weeks ago 107 Water street, 28x100 feet, brought $16 a square foot.

Sewickley Heights Sale of $45,000.

D. E. Park, one of the four fortunate men who bought the old Dalry farm on Sewickley Heights a few years ago, has disposed of the 27-acre tract, which was allotted to him, the buyer being F. C. Perkins, the attorney, and the price $45,000, or $1,666 an acre. Mr. Park's land is at the corner of the Backbone road and the road that leads into the Allegheny Country club grounds, and is not over 30 feet from the clubhouse. It is finely timbered and is one of the prettiest lots on the heights. The old stable of the Dalry farm, which was later turned into a boarding house for laborers, stands on the property. It will be remembered that Mr. Park, with William Witherow, James Bell and D. T. Watson, bought the farm of 1,600 acres, most of which they still own, the quartet reserving 27 acres for his own use when the farm was purchased. Mr. Witherow sold his portion, which adjoins the land sold yesterday, to the late Henry W. Oliver, who made extensive and costly improvements on the property. Mr. Bell still owns his allotment, which is across the road from the Park lot.

Buying on the South Side.

Investors who have been crowded off outer Fifth avenue by the lack of properties to buy are taking to the South Side, where the prospect of a tunnel from near the Tenth street bridge is likely to send up the prices of properties for several squares along Carson street. Yesterday George C. Norris & Co. sold for C. L. Shannon to H. Saul, the Fifth avenue merchant, the property at 1313-1315 Carson street for $32,000 cash. The lot is 45.5x72 feet and is improved with a very good two-story brick building, which is occupied by the Bernardi department store. It is leased at a good rental until April 1, 1907, when Mr. Saul contemplates using it for a similar purpose himself. The sale is at the rate of $703 a front foot.

George Brothers have made another purchase for the Realty Corporation of Pittsburgh, getting for it the E. C. Hopkins property at 9817 Penn avenue, East End, for $26,000. The lot is 39x148 feet, extending through to Kirkwood street, and being only 25 feet from the site which Vincent Scott & Co. bought a few days ago and which they will improve with an $80,000 furniture emporium. There is an 8-room brick house on the Hopkins lot, which was bought for an investment.

$125,000 Church for Brookline.

A $125,000 church will be erected in the new suburb of Brookline, in West Liberty borough, by the Holy Cross Roman Catholic congregation of the South Side, which has been contemplating a move for two years. The Rev. Thomas Devlin, rector of the church, on Saturday closed a deal with the Freehold Real Estate Company, agents of Brookline, for a five-acre site. More than a year ago it was reported in sound quarters that the church authorities were seriously considering the purchase of a big site in this locality, where the members could secure desirable residence sites. The homes of many of the parishioners have been taken over by the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company and the railroads, so that it has been a serious question how and where to locate. The present deal practically settles that question, as the Brookline suburb offers exceptional advantages for residents of the South Side, who are thus enabled to get away from the smoke and dirt and still be within 15 minutes of their work.

Architects Yerdaudin & Wolfe are receiving estimates for a handsome English residence to be built in Amberson avenue for Mrs. Anna R. D. C. Gillespie.

Architect T. P. Herron has plans nearly completed for a 12-room school house to be built in McKeesport at a cost of $62,500.

The West End Methodist Episcopal church of McKeesport has appointed a building committee to look after the erecting of a $35,000 edifice. The Rev. James Law, pastor, is chairman of the committee.

Architects Struthers & Hannah let the contract to F. H. Fulmer for the Hamilton Avenue United Presbyterian church, to be built at Hamilton avenue and Idlewild street at a cost of $40,000.

Sell Altoona Lots by Mail.

Pittsburgh real estate firms which are operating outside the city are reporting unusually good success this year in marketing lots. The Land Trust Company, which put on the big Altoona allotment one month ago, is hampering away there under its manager, S. P. Duncan, and has disposed of two-thirds of the 200 lots. Eight lots were sold yesterday by mail, the buyers being workmen from the towns lying along the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburgh.

Adeline M. Rankin has bought from Rose A. Breitenreiter a vacant plot, 105x172 feet, at the southeast corner of Focussed street and Shady avenue, Twenty-second ward, for $4,500.

Frederika Schweitzer sold to Elizabeth B. Speer an improved property, 90x115 feet, on the north side of Rodman street, Nineteenth ward, for $11,000.

Through the Aronson Realty Company S. S. Lee has sold to Louis Brockstein two nine-room houses on 46x110 feet, in Center avenue, near Dinwiddie street, for $18,500. They also sold to William Rosier a vacant lot, 25x100 feet, in Ligelow street, for $1,600.

Vine street: Israel Finkelstein sold to Meyer Goldstein an improved lot, 20x114 feet, on the west side of Vine street, near Reed street, Eighth ward, for $3,000.

Webster avenue: William H. Jones sold to George Mohn 30x100 feet, in Webster avenue, near Granville street, Fifteenth ward, for $1,000.

Pittsburgh building permits were issued yesterday to the Peebles sub-district school, Twenty-third ward, for a two-story brick school house, 103x90 feet, at Greenfield and Loretta streets, to cost $100,000; the Pittsburgh Railways Company, one-story brick and steel barn on Frankstown avenue, Thirty-seventh ward, to cost $30,000; George H. Shickle, three-story brick apartment in Boquet street, Fourteenth ward, to cost $35,000, and John Riebling, two-story brick veneered dwelling in Sheridan avenue, Nineteenth ward, to cost $5,000.

The Wool Market.

LONDON, June 26.—The arrivals of wool for the fourth series of auction sales which is scheduled to open on July 4, closed today, with the following amounts listed: New South Wales, 28,804 bales; Queensland, 8,725 bales; Victoria, 28,331 bales; South Australia, 6,909 bales; West Australia, 405 bales; Tasmania, 5,213 bales; New Zealand, 68,245 bales; Cape of Good Hope and Natal, 56,124 bales. Fifty thousand bales of Australian, and 20,000 Cape of Good Hope and Natal were forwarded direct to spinners, leaving the total amount available for the series, 118,956 bales, including 16,000 bales held over from the last sales.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE NOTES.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—National bank notes received today for redemption, $1,024,186; government receipts from internal revenue, $1,173,027; customs, $773,847; miscellaneous, $188,068; expenditures, $1,600,000.

NEW YORK, June 26 (Special.)—The possibility of exporting gold from New York to Paris on Thursday was raised today by the decline in the Paris check rate on London to 25 francs 13½ centimes and the advance of 10 to 15 points in sterling exchange here. This led to engagements at the assay office of $3,300,000 in gold bars. The National City bank will ship $1,000,000, Lazard Freres $500,000, and Goldman, Sachs & Co. $300,000. The total amount of gold bars available at the assay office is $11,000,000. The desire of the Bank of France to strengthen its gold holdings in view of the Moroccan situation is the prevailing cause.

NEW YORK, June 26.—(Special.)—July interest and dividend disbursements are estimated at $140,300,000, an increase of $5,500,000 over the amount paid in the same month of last year. Last Saturday's bank statement, however, indicated that preparations have been making to finance these enormous disbursements without disturbance to the money market. In January, 1905, the grand total was $138,600,000.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Creditors of the grain commission house of Knight, Donnelly & Co. this afternoon petitioned for a receiver for the company. Edwin W. Potter was appointed receiver in bonds of $100,000. The claims of the petitioning creditors aggregate $18,000, but it is said that the liabilities will amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars. Assets are not given.

SUGAR MAKES ANOTHER FIFTEEN POINT DROP

Civil War Among Refiners Said to Be on in Earnest—Green Goods Have Improved.

Sugar made another drop yesterday of 15 points, bearing out the story related a day or two ago to the effect that a civil war has developed among the sugar refiners. Wholesalers are unable to explain the cut in any other way. Sugar is lower now than it has been for almost a year, and dealers are looking for it to get back to the low prices it was a couple of years ago, when the war was on in earnest. The two cuts have not stimulated the market to any extent, as grocers have become scared and fear further reductions. In consequence they are refusing to buy more than they need to supply the immediate demand. As it is an unprofitable business, anyhow, they are not anxious to buy a large stock and get caught with a falling market.

Flour did not make a move yesterday, although some change was looked for. The shading continues and dealers consider the hugging of the one price a bad omen for the future.

The firmer tone of the butter market was marked by the fact that the Elgin board did not change the price again yesterday. Cheese is also firm and eggs are easy, but good selected stock is bringing 18 cents. There are plenty of eggs of inferior quality in market and they are going, some of them at less than quotations.

Green goods were a good sale yesterday and prices were inclined to shade off. Berries had picked up again from Saturday, when they dropped from $4.00 a crate to $2.65. The market was much firmer yesterday.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts.

Receipts yesterday were: Pennsylvania, 17 cars oats, 2 cars feed; 3 cars corn. Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 4 cars corn, 2 cars hay, 6 cars oats. Baltimore & Ohio, 1 cars oats, 6 cars hay, 2 cars straw.

As noted in The Gazette yesterday, hay has reached bottom, and the reaction has set in. Prices advanced yesterday. Hay men look for good prices this fall, as hay will not be a very heavy crop, having been damaged considerably by frost. Grain continues firm and prices have advanced again.

Southern Oil Company Gets Good Well in the Ellsworth District

Near Point Pleasant Ellsworth district, Tyler county, W. Va., the Southern Oil Company has completed its No. 4 on the Cristen heirs' farm and has a show for a 40 or 50-barrel producer in the Keener. This is the best producer that has been found in this district for some months. At Smithburg, Doddridge county, the Eastern Carbon Black Company has completed a test on the T. M. Ryan town lot and has a good gasser in the Gordon. On Big Run, Grant district, Wetzel county, the Philadelphia Company has completed a test on the W. P. Hubbard farm and has a gasser in the Gordon. In the Salem district, Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company's No. 1 M. D. Queen and No. 3 on the W. H. Hutson farm are producing 15 barrels each from the Gordon.

South of Mannington, Marion county, the South Penn Oil Company drilled its second test on the Jacob Simpson farm through the fifth sand and to a depth of 3,708 feet and found nothing in any of the regular producing formations. On Ten-Mile creek, Ten-Mile district, Harrison county, the South Penn company has drilled its test on the S. D. Williams farm through the Gordon and the hole has filled up 1,000 feet with fluid. In the Folsom district, in the same county, the same company has completed its test on the P. B. Moore farm and has a show for a 12 or 15-barrel pumper in the Gordon. In the Smithfield district the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 7 on the J. L. Price farm through the gray and has a light show of oil. It is now drilling to the Gordon.

In the Bens Run district, Pleasants county, the South Penn company has completed and shot its No. 3 on the M. H. Flowers farm and has a 3-barrel pumper in the Cow Run sand. In the Yellow Creek district, Calhoun county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its No. 6 on the Clark Camden farm and has a 10-barrel pumper in the Berea grit. In the same district the South Penn company's No. 3 and 4 on the Rose L. Norman farm are producing 150 and 125 barrels a day, respectively. The Carter Oil Company's No. 2 on the L. G. Fluharty farm is holding up at 175 barrels a day.

On the Ohio side, in the Lewisville district, Monroe county, the Pure Oil Producing Company has completed its No. 5 on the Justice Claus farm and has a show for a 20-barrel producer in the Keener. In the same district J. Johnson & Co. have completed a second test on the Hannah Grimes farm and have a show for a 15-barrel pumper in the Keener. In the Lowell district, Washington county, the Cleveland & Marietta Oil Company has completed its No. 8 on the Daniel Fouss farm and has a duster. Davis & Co. have drilled their test on the George Wunderlich farm through the 600-foot sand and have a duster. Wilkin & Co. have completed 4 on the Daniels farm and have a show for a light pumper. In the Scio field, in Harrison county, the Ohio Oil Company has completed No. 18 on the James Trushel farm and has a 5-barrel pumper in the Berea grit.

Near Georgetown, Beaver county, Pa., Haymaker & Brown have completed a test on the John Nelson farm and have a duster in the Berea grit. At Moon Run M. Finnegan has completed his second test on the Teresa Grimes farm and has a duster in the 100-foot, have a show for a light pumper.

MR. WATTS TELLS ABOUT THE WRECK

Left Doomed Car Only 10 Minutes Before Crash Came—B. & O. Officer to Marry.

RIOTS OF '77 ARE RECALLED

Charles Watts, general superintendent of transportation of Pennsylvania lines west, returned to his office yesterday morning from a business trip to Chicago, Cleveland and New York. During this trip Mr. Watts had the thrilling experience of being caught in the wreck of the Twentieth Century Limited on the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railway at Mentor in which 19 lives were lost. In speaking of the wreck yesterday Mr. Watts said:

"It seems almost providential that I should be spared again in this wreck. I had left the composite car, the parlor smoker in which most of the victims were caught, not more than 10 minutes before the crash came and was standing at one of the reading tables looking over the papers when I was suddenly hurled among the chairs of the observation car. Except in the observation car there was not a light about the wreck.

"Just before I had walked back to the observation car I had been shown through the composite car at the front end of the train. The car had a good seating capacity and almost every chair was filled, showing that it is a well-patronized part of the train. I stood at the rear end of the room for a moment before leaving the car and viewed what I little thought would be a mass of wreckage in a few minutes. The barber who was killed, a fine looking fellow with whom I had just talked concerning his part in the fine train's conveniences, stood with arms folded in the passageway near his chair.

"How many and what wrecks have I been in? I can say at least twenty."

Rehabilitating Big Roundhouse.

"This reminds some of us older fellows of the riots of 1877," remarked one of the veteran employes of the Pennsylvania railroad at the Twenty-eighth street roundhouse yesterday as his eyes wandered over the apparently dismantled building, "only at that time there was more of a mass of ruins, for the place had pretty lively times."

The roundhouse at Twenty-eighth street is being given a complete overhauling. There is to be a partly new plant installed. The electric turntable in the center of the house was found to have too weak a foundation to support the monster passenger and freight engines. Workmen are now digging a hole about 20 feet deep in which will be laid a solid foundation. The whole floor will also be newly relaid with concrete and the electric turntable again installed. The building is also to have a new floor throughout and a new water line is to be extended around the structure.

Since the closing of the roundhouse for repairs last Wednesday the 75 engines have to be cared for in the yards about the plant. Aside from the Pennsylvania and most of the Panhandle passenger locomotives there are 10 engines of the preference freight trains to be looked after daily. For each of the 175 engines there is a crew and this crew must find from the roundhouse foreman's office where to find the engine on the yard tracks, or on coming in from a run must be advised where to set the engine. It is expected that the roundhouse repairs will be completed in about a month.

Pitcairn Has Y. M. C. A. Train.

The Pitcairn branch of the Pennsylvania railroad department of the Young Men's Christian Association now has what some of the railroad boys term a "Y. M. C. A. train, with Secretary I. G. Sanders as conductor." The Pitcairn association was first domiciled in a single old passenger car; then another car was added for the educational classes, and now a third car is being fitted up with four shower baths. Some time ago work was started on a Y. M. C. A. building near the Pitcairn station, but difficulties arose, the man who gave the land for the station site claiming that it was given with the express condition that it be used only for railroad purposes. Work was stopped on the Y. M. C. A. building when the foundation was almost completed and nothing has been done since. Some time ago there was a similar claim made against the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, but the lower and higher courts decided that the Railroad Y. M. C. A. was a part of the railrodd. It is not known whether the Pennsylvania railroad will proceed with the structure on the basis of the New York Central's experience. M. W. Callender, the general secretary of the Pennsylvania department in this district, returned to his duties yesterday after a week's visit to Louisville, and is busy looking after the comforts of the many members.

P. & L. E's. New Dining Car Service.

A party of Pittsburgh newspaper men, guests of L. A. Robison, general passenger agent of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, yesterday assisted in inaugurating a new dining car service between Pittsburgh and Cleveland that marks the most notable innovation the "Little Giant" has undertaken in recent years. The new Cleveland Flyer, leaving Pittsburgh at 1.35 p. m., city time, carried the party, and in addition to the newspaper representatives were Messrs. J. B. Yohe, W. A. Terry and W. B. Morris. The run was made to Cleveland exactly on time, arriving at 4 p. m. Returning, the party left Cleveland at 6:25 p. m., Pittsburgh time, arriving at 8:35 p. m., dining in the new car. The new dining car which will hereafter run on these trains is one of which the Lake Erie officials are particulary proud. It was built by the Pullman Company for exhibition at the world's fair at St. Louis and is the finest product of the Pullman shops. The forward section is fitted up in the style of a superb grill room in an up-to-date club, with a seating capacity for 18 people. A full course dinner or a light meal can be served. The car cost $27,000 and it and a companion car, which will be stored overnight at Cleveland, will furnish dining service on the four Cleveland fast trains established on the new schedule.

Local Firm Gets Filter Contract.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company has just awarded to the William B. Scaife & Sons Company of Pittsburgh a contract for a large water-purifying plant to be erected at Sioux City, Iowa. The plant will have a capacity of 100,000 gallons, and will supply the locomotives and shops of the St. Paul road with filtered and purified water at that point. It will be of steel construction, of a special design to meet the peculiar needs of its location. One of the features of this plant, in which it differs from other similar plans built by the Scaife company, is that of its being operated entirely from the ground. The Scaife company is also now erecting two filter plants for the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad, each of 18,000 gallons capacity. One of these will be placed in operation soon.

Douglass Consulting Engineer.

H. T. Douglass, formerly chief engineer of the West Side Belt railroad, was yesterday appointed consulting engineer of the Wabash lines east of Toledo. Mr. Douglass tendered his resignation as chief engineer of the West Side Belt when the Gould interests secured the road several months ago, but this was not accepted. The resignation of Charles McK. Watts as principal assistant engineer of the Wabash Pittsburgh Terminal railway has been accepted and his tenure of office ended yesterday. W. J. Cousin also resigned as assistant engineer of the terminal line and left the service yesterday.

Thompson to Become Benedict.

Arthur W. Thompson, superintendent of the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and formerly division engineer of the Pittsburgh division, will be married on Thursday morning to Miss Marion Dinwiddie Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gordon of Cumberland, Md. The wedding will take place at 9 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church of Cumberland. Bruce W. Duer, superintendent of the Pittsburgh division, will be best man. Mr. Thompson is considered one of the rising railroad officers of the Baltimore & Ohio. He is a graduate of Allegheny college.

President Murray Coming.

President Oscar G. Murray of the Baltimore & Ohio will arrive here shortly before 1 o'clock today on an inspection of the Pittsburgh system. He is accompanied by the Pittsburgh system and Pittsburgh division operating and engineering officers. This forenoon trip will be over the Pittsburgh division from Connellsville to Pittsburgh, and it is probable the afternoon will be spent in examining the needs in Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

Railroad Notes.

Engineer John Maddara and Conductor A. T. Griffin of the Panhandle's Wheeling express, left last night for a vacation hunting and fishing trip in the mountains of Huntingdon county.

C. T. Dabney, superintendent of the River and Low Grade divisions of the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley division of the Pennsylvania, was at Buffalo attending a semi-monthly staff meeting yesterday.

J. E. Simons, general manager of the Fitz-Hugh-Luther Company of Chicago, and formerly assistant master car builder of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, accompanied by Mrs. Simons, is paying a business and pleasure visit to his Pittsburgh district friends.

The Baltimore & Ohio family meeting at Deer Park, Md., last Friday and Saturday was one of the most valuable yet held. It was headed by the general manager, chief engineer and general superintendent of motive power, topics and methods of these departments being discussed.

OFFICIAL—ALLEGHENY.

(No. 64.)

AN ORDINANCE—To authorize the mayor and the director of the department of public works of the city of Allegheny to enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company supplemental to and modifying and changing the agreement between the city of Allegheny and the Pennsylvania Company, dated November 1, 1901, relative to the elevation and depression of said railway between McClure avenue and the Allegheny river bridge, in the city of Allegheny, so far as it relates to the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing.

Whereas, On the first day of October, 1901, the councils of the city of Allegheny duly passed an ordinance authorizing the proper officers for and on behalf of the city of Allegheny to enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, relative to the relocation, change, elevation and depression of said railway in the said city between McClure avenue and the Allegheny river bridge; the vacation and change of grade of streets and other matters incident to or connected with said change of said railroad; and

Whereas, Said contract was duly entered into on the first day of November, 1901, between the city of Allegheny as first party and the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company as second party, now therefore—

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, that the mayor and the director of the department of public works of said city, be and are hereby authorized and empowered, in the name of and in behalf of said city of Allegheny to make and enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, supplemental to said contract of November 1, 1901, in the form following, to-wit:

CONTRACT.

This Agreement, Made this.....day of....., A. D. 1905, between the city of Allegheny, a municipal corporation of the state of Pennsylvania, hereinafter called the city, as first party, and the Pennsylvania Company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, hereinafter called the Railway Company, as second party,

WITNESSETH.

Whereas, Section 1 of the said contract of November 1, 1901, required that the changes at street crossings be made in conformity to the plans thereto attached and made a part thereof, said plans being three in number and marked respectively "Exhibits A, B and C" and identified by the indorsement or signature of the chief engineer of said railway company and the director of the department of public works of said city; and

Whereas, Said plans required that at the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing the two said streets should be elevated and should be carried over the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway by means of a bridge, the character of which and its location with reference to the existing street lines was to be as shown on said plans; and

Whereas, Said city is desirous of modifying the character and location of said bridge with reference to the present street lines, for the reasons that the plan has been found to be unsatisfactory to a majority of the residents in the immediate vicinity of the said crossing and that it would cost the city upwards of $500,000 to do its share of the work according to said plan; and

Whereas, Said railway company is willing that said change shall be made.

Now, therefore, in consideration of the premises, it is agreed by and between the said parties:

(1) That the plan attached to the contract heretofore referred to in so far as it relates to the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing, is hereby abrogated and annulled; and that the said changes at the said Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing shall be made in conformity with the plan hereto attached and made a part hereof and marked "Exhibit A," and identified by the indorsement or signature of the chief engineer of said railway company and the director of the department of public works of the said city. The said contract of November 1, 1901, shall, except as herein changed, remain in every respect as heretofore.

(2) This agreement shall extend to and bind the parties hereto, their successors and assigns, respectively.

Witness the corporate seal of the said city of Allegheny and the signatures of the mayor and of the director of the department of public works and of the city controller; and the corporate seal of the said Pennsylvania company and the signature of its ..... vice president and secretary, the day and year first above written.

This agreement being executed and delivered by and in behalf of the said city entitled:

"An ordinance to authorize the mayor and the director of the department of public works of the city of Allegheny to enter into a contract with the Pennsylvania company operating the railway of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, supplemental to and modifying and changing the agreement between the city of Allegheny and the Pennsylvania Company, dated November 1, 1901, relative to the elevation and depression of said railway between McClure avenue and the Allegheny river bridge, in the city of Allegheny, so far as it relates to the Washington avenue and Sedgwick street crossing."

Approved.....A. D. 1905, and by and in behalf of said railway company pursuant to resolutions of its board of directors, adopted.....A. D. 1905.

(No. 65.)

AN ORDINANCE—Requiring the curbing and laying of flagstone sidewalks on the south side of Watson boulevard, from Perrysville avenue to Tioga street, providing for notice to the abutting property owners to do said work, and on their failure to comply therewith, authorizing and ordering the advertisement for proposals and awarding of a contract for doing said work, and providing for the collection of the cost and expense thereof.

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the curbing and laying of a flagstone sidewalk on the south side of Watson boulevard, from Perrysville avenue to Tioga street, is hereby authorized and ordered, and the owners of the properties abutting thereon are hereby required to do said curbing and lay said sidewalk in front of their several properties within thirty days after notice to them to do so. Said flagstone sidewalk to be of a uniform width of five feet, and the sidewalk to be laid and the curb to be set upon such lines as shall be designated by the city engineer, and under the direction and to the satisfaction of the director of the department of public works.

Sec. 2—It shall be the duty of the department of public works to serve a written notice upon the owners of property abutting on the south side of said Watson boulevard to do said work, and if owners are residents of the city of Allegheny, said notice may either be served personally or by leaving a copy thereof at their place of residence with an adult member of their family. If the owners are not residents of the city of Allegheny, such notice may be served by posting three copies thereof upon the premises.

Sec. 3—Upon the expiration of thirty days after the service of said notices, the director of the department of public works is hereby instructed to prepare specifications for doing said work in front of all the properties, the owners of which failed to comply with said notice, and the mayor and the said director are authorized to advertise for proposals for doing said work in accordance with said specifications, and award the contract therefor according to the provisions of the acts of assembly in such cases made and provided.

The cost and expense thereof to be assessed upon the properties in front of or along which said work is done, and liens filed therefor, in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania pertaining thereto.

Sec. 4—That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Ordained and enacted into a law in councils this 15th day of June, A. D. 1905.
